Re: Open Public Records Act Request # 19-120

Dear Mr. Stilton:

This letter is in response to your public records request dated September 25, 2019 in which you seek “copies of court filings, complaints, charges related to the case of State vs. Jeremy Grunin of Toms River during the period between July 17, 2016 and July 17, 2018. I am also seeking a copy of the conflict documents sent by Ocean County Prosecutors Office regarding this case. Please, also, if possible provide case resolution documents, filings. This case was transferred from Ocean County to Atlantic County due to conflict.”

Please let this letter serve as an official response to your request. Enclosed please find the complaint along with the motor vehicle tickets and the accusation.

In regards to the rest of your request, under the Open Public Records Act (OPRA), criminal investigatory records are not government records and, therefore, are not subject to disclosure. The OPRA statute sets out the following: “[a] government record shall not include...criminal investigatory records.” N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1. A criminal investigatory record is defined as a record that is: 1) not required to be made by law, and 2) pertains to a criminal investigation. N. Jersey Media Grp., Inc. v. Twp. of Lyndhurst, 229 N.J. 541, 564-65 (2017). A criminal investigatory record possesses its character as such irrespective of the status of the investigation. See Janeczko v. New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety, No. 2002-79 and 80 (criminal investigatory records are exempt from public inspection regardless of whether a matter is an open or closed investigation). Janeczko described criminal investigatory records as records involving all manner of crimes and includes all information that is part and parcel of the investigation. Ibid.

Because the additional documents you have requested are criminal investigatory records, they are not subject to disclosure under OPRA. Accordingly, I must respectfully deny your request.

Very truly yours,
