Question? In an recent video I see a phone printed on the back and the sides of the vehicle. but I see no 911 decals, would this mean that Atlantic county is NOT 911 compatible? and a manual phone needs to be dialed in order to get emergency services such as fire and police?

My name is cathy. I'm 34 and when I was at my best i was an all star athlete up through college, almost joined with the Army instead I went to be a cop. I started to get very ill and that dream was shattered. I wanted to be with a k9 unit than get into the FBI for profiling. Anyway in 2013 I found out I was sick and now I have terminal cancer. One day I found all these police shows about a year ago and I was consistently watching. i wanted to say personal thank you to all the Leo's out there ,seeing the officers and k9s brings joy and passion back to my heart that I lost a long time ago. I hope this doesnt bother you or anybody but I'm trying to collect patches to make a weighted blanket for my 2 year old before I pass away, so he has something we both shared together and will always help him feel safe; aj is non verbal, autistic. He loves police lights, uniform, the dogs and all the sounds. He enjoys all stories of police and especially the ones with K9s. We thank every leo we see for their service and sometimes are able to take a picture with them. I wasnt sure if anyone on here could help me accomplish this project, it would mean tons to me and my son, we love law enforcement and all the officers and departments everywhere all across the US. We watch on tv religiously and are huge back the blue supporters!!! I hope that you can share a patch or shirt for this project. I thank you all for your service and God bless all of you! Thank you. What you are presently experiencing is not a battle between left and right. It is not a battle between democrat and republican. It is not a racial divide. It is not a war between liberals and conservatives.

What you are experiencing is the collapse of what was formerly the USA.

You will not be seeing less Amerikan on Amerikan violence until after you see 50 states in flames. When you do see 50 states in flames you will know then that this has been a collapse the entire time. You will also know that you will not be able to or permitted to leave these borders.

Are you prepared to defend your loved ones fight for your freedom and your families freedom in what was formerly your country?
