

NAME OF THE COMMITTEE:	Health Curriculum - Ad Hoc
NAME OF THE CHAIRPERSON:	James Parrino
DATE/TIME/LOCATION OF MEETING:	July 17, 2023, 7:15 p.m.
BOARD MEMBERS ATTENDING:	Laura Cooper, Stacey Price, K. Pedersen
ADMINISTRATORS ATTENDING:	Dr. Jill Mortimer

SUBJECT	Alternative Instruction Planning
NOTES	• Dr. Mortimer will ask Denise Velez, the new Director of Elementary Education, to review the alternative lessons we have in place with the K-5 Principals this summer, given the change in the Director position. • The alternative lessons all come from The Great Body Shop. • Dr. Mortimer feels [REDACTED] ACDACDACDACDACD [REDACTED] ACDACDACDACDACDACDACD [REDACTED] ACDACD
CONCLUSIONS / RECOMMENDATIONS	The committee reviewed the alternative lesson plans and are comfortable with the approach of the AIP.

To be given to Board Secretary for distribution to the entire board. Reports will be used as the basis for updating the board and the public at the board meetings.

NOTES	- Perhaps draft a proposed resolution and forward it to the NJ DOE commission. Review with counsel beforehand. - Models: Roxbury - see Curriculum section of 8/22/22 minutes Sussex Wantage - see June 30, 2022 minutes
CONCLUSIONS / RECOMMENDATIONS	Dr. Mortimer suggests ACDACDACDACDACD ACDACDACDACDACDACDACDACD

SUBJECT	Health Curriculum Standards - Update on Implementation
NOTES	- C&I discussed this topic at their meetings during the 22-23 school year: August 2022 February 2023 March 2023 - Requests for opt-out numbers have been met by the Administration as well.
CONCLUSIONS / RECOMMENDATIONS	At this point, Dr. Mortimer feels ACDACDACDACD ACDACDACDACDACDACD Board members have partnered with and will continue to partner with other districts throughout the state to advocate for age-appropriateness of the health curriculum. They will continue these efforts through the Curriculum Committee and therefore will vote on the recommendation to disband the ad hoc committee.
