Re: OPRA #113017-3

Dear Mr. Duff:

Stockton University received your Open Public Records Act (OPRA) request on November 29, 2017. The undersigned official Records Custodian received your OPRA request on November 30, 2017. As such, the seven (7)-business day deadline to respond to your request is December 11, 2017.

Your OPRA request sought access to the following:

- All communication between Stockton University employees and the NJDEP regarding the research project on 753 Walnut St. and its connection to MLK Jr, such as emails, letters, faxes and requests made of the research team by any and all NJDEP officials. I am also seeking all interpersonal communications by Stockton employees regarding the study, such as but not limited to, Paul Schopp, Michelle McDonald, John O'Hare, Briana Cardinale, Kimberly Bylone and any other employee or student who worked on the publicly funded study

With regard to your records request, the records referenced on the attached Index are being timely provided with redactions.

If your request for access to a government record has been denied, you have a right to challenge the decision to deny access. At your option, you may either institute a proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey or file a complaint with the Government Records Council ("GRC") by completing the Denial of Access Complaint Form. You may contact the GRC by toll-free telephone at 866-850-0511, by mail at P.O. Box 819, Trenton, NJ, 08625, by e-mail at grc@dca.state.nj.us, or at their web site at www.state.nj.us/grc. The Council can also answer other questions about the law. All questions regarding complaints filed in Superior Court should be directed to the Court Clerk.

Sincerely,

LEGEND: Legal explanation and statutory citation for the denial of access to records

A. Advisory, Consultative, Deliberative (general)

Content redacted includes “inter-agency or intra-agency advisory, consultative, or deliberative material” and therefore exempt from disclosure pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1. See also Educ. Law Ctr. ex rel. Abbott v. N.J. Dep't of Educ., 198 N.J. 274 (2009) (quoting In re Liquidation of Integrity Ins. Co., 165 N.J. 75 (2000)), finding that the deliberative process privilege permits the government to withhold documents that reflect advisory opinions, recommendations, and deliberations comprising part of a process by which governmental decisions and policies are formulated; and that the privilege exists to ensure free and uninhibited communication within governmental agencies so that the best possible decisions can be reached.

B. Advisory, Consultative, Deliberative (draft)

Content redacted is “inter-agency or intra-agency advisory, consultative, or deliberative material” and therefore exempt from disclosure pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1. See also Parave-Fogg v. Lower Alloways Creek Township, GRC Complaint No. 2006-51 (August 2006) finding that draft meeting minutes that had not been approved by the governing body constitute inter-agency, intra-agency advisory consultative, or deliberative material and are exempt from disclosure.

C. Student E-mails

Student email(s) have been redacted pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (“FERPA”), 20 U.S.C. §1232g (implemented by regulations at 34 CFR Part 99) which regulates the disclosure of student information. Your request under OPRA must also be read in conjunction with FERPA. Though electronic mail addresses may be discloseable if designated by an institution as “directory information” under FERPA, the University, as permitted, elected not to include students’ electronic mail addresses as directory information. Accordingly, because under FERPA this information is protected, student electronic mail addresses are excepted from disclosure under OPRA.

D. Personal Identifying Information

Content redacted (e.g., home address, private/unlisted telephone number, social security number, etc.) contains “personal identifying information” and is therefore exempt from disclosure pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1, Burnette v. County of Bergen, 198 NJ 408 (2009) (finding that OPRA imposes an obligation on public agencies to protect against disclosure of personal information which would run contrary to reasonable privacy interests).

E. Job Applicant, Prior Employment, and/or Personnel Information

The redacted content references a candidate who never accepted employment with the College or details prior employment information. Except for an individual’s name, title, position, salary, payroll record, length of service, date of separation and the reason therefore, and the amount and type of any pension received, personnel records shall not be considered a government record and shall not be made available for public access. N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10. See also Toscano v. New Jersey Department of Human Services, Division of Mental Health Services, GRC Complaint

No. 2010-147 (May 2011). Additionally, Executive Order 26 (McGreevy 2002) provides: “The resumes of successful candidates shall be disclosed once the successful candidates is hired. The resumes of unsuccessful candidates may be disclosed after the search has been concluded and the position has been filled, but only where the unsuccessful candidate has consented to such disclosure.”

F. Attorney-Client Privileged Communication

Content redacted is “within the attorney-client privilege” and therefore exempt from disclosure pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1. See also Farneski v. Hunterdon County Prosecutor’s Office, GRC Complaint No. 2010-20 (October 2011), finding that the attorney-client privilege protects communications between a lawyer and the client made in the course of that professional relationship, and particularly protects information which, if disclosed, would jeopardize the legal position of the client. N.J.S.A. 2A:84A-20; RPC 1.6. Also confidential are mental impressions, legal conclusions, and opinions or theories of attorneys. In Re Environmental Ins. Actions, 259 N.J.Super. 308, 317 (App.Div.1982).

And/or, , the content was redacted pursuant to the “common interest rule” which extends the confidentiality of attorney-client communications and attorney work product to information shared with attorneys representing separate clients, in the context of a request for production of public records pursuant to OPRA, and the common law right to access government records. O’Boyle v Borough of Longport, 218 N.J. 168 (2014) [Adopting the common interest rule articulated in Laporta v Gloucester County Board of Chosen Freeholders, 340 N.J.Super. 254 (App.Div.2001), and recognizing that the common interest exception to waiver of confidential attorney-client communications or work product due to disclosure to third parties applies to communications between attorneys for different parties if the disclosure is made due to actual or anticipated litigation for the purpose of furthering a common interest, and the disclosure is made in a manner to preserve the confidentiality of the disclosed material and to prevent disclosure to adverse parties.]

G. Information which, if disclosed, would give an Advantage to Competitors or Bidders

Content redacted is “information which, if disclosed, would give an advantage to competitors or bidders” and therefore exempt from disclosure pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1.

H. Records in Pursuit of Charitable Contribution

Content redacted includes information concerning the pursuit of charitable contributions. N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1 provides “a government record shall not include, with regard to any public institution of higher education, the following information which is deemed to be privileged and confidential: records of pursuit of charitable contributions.”

I. Privacy Interest

A public agency has a responsibility and an obligation to safeguard from public access a citizen’s personal information with which it has been entrusted when disclosure thereof would violate the citizen’s reasonable expectation of privacy. N.J.S.A 47:1A-1 (Legislative Findings). And see Burnette v. County of Bergen, 198 NJ 408 (2009).

j. Certain records of higher education institutions

Pedagogical, scholarly and/or academic research records and/or the specific details of any research project, except that a custodian may not deny inspection of a government record or part thereof that gives the name, title, expenditures, source and amounts of funding and date when the final project summary of any research will be available.

By Edward Colimore

The plot of ground on East Main Street in Maple Shade, where Mary's Place once stood, is empty now, except for trees planted as a buffer against the steady hum of traffic on busy Route 73.

No one would know that a 1950 incident at the bar helped shape the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s character, and inspired his passion for civil rights.

But Patrick Duff hopes to change that, and has a dream he plans to share with the Maple Shade town council. He wants to create a park at the location, with a plaque, benches, and possibly a statue of King, memorializing his confrontation with a bartender who refused to serve him and his friends. "If we don't preserve this history, it can be erased," said Duff, 38, a Haddon Heights resident, car salesman, and social activist. "I can't believe something this important to every American would not be commemorated."

He researched what happened that Sunday night more than 63 years ago and found a criminal complaint against the pub owner and bartender, Ernest Nichols.

And that document, signed by King, provided his address, a rowhouse at 753 Walnut Street in Camden, where the future civil rights leader lived in a room while a student at the now-closed Crozer Theological Seminary in Upland.

Like the Maple Shade location, no one would know that the-now boarded-up house was once King's home. It's now occasionally occupied by drug addicts and is marked by graffiti, 1 Wish, sprayed a few times across the front.

Duff found the owner, Jeanette Lily Hunt, who once lived there and remembered King. The two of them met to discuss transforming the house into a historic site.

"I was about twenty and married," said Hunt, now 83, a retired teacher whose husband's father, Benjamin Hunt, owned the house. "I can see King out on the sidewalk, leaning against a car, talking."

On that Sunday night in June of 1950, King visited Mary's Place with fellow seminary student W.R. McCall of Camden and their dates, Pearl E. Smith and Doris Wilson of Philadelphia. They took a table and were ignored by the waitress, so King went to the bar to ask for beer and four glasses, according to statements.

Nichols, the pub owner, refused, saying he was prohibited from selling "package goods" on Sunday or after 10 p.m. on any day, according to a July 1950 statement by his attorney, W. Thomas McGann.

King then asked for four glasses of ginger ale and was told by Nichols, according to a 1982 biography, The Trumpet Sounds, that "the best thing would be for you to leave."

King and his friends held their seats and Nichols became verbally abusive, a police report said. The bartender pulled out a pistol, walked outside, and fired it a few times.

"Mr. Nichols claims that this act was not intended as a threat to his colored patrons," said McGann in his 1950 statement. "The colored patrons, on the other hand, while they admit that the gun was not pointed at them or any of them, seemed to think it was a threat.

"Mr. Nichols on the other hand states that he has been held up before and he wanted to alert his watchdog who was somewhere outside on the tavern grounds," McGann stated.

King reported the incident to police and Nichols was arrested. His signature, as well as McCall's and Smith's, can be seen on a Municipal Court complaint, which stated that Nichols did "willfully refuse to serve beverages of any kind, used profane and obscene language, and intimidation by weapons."

McGann said Nichols had often served blacks at his bar and was concerned that the King party was trying to entrap him by getting him to sell package goods on a Sunday.

The case was dismissed when several witnesses failed to testify before a grand jury.

Standing on the now state-owned ground where the confrontation took place, Colandrus "Kelly" Francis, president of the Camden County branch of the NAACP, this week endorsed the proposed memorial and park to honor King.

"I think what happened here should be memorialized," said Francis. "It's part of the healing process. You forgive and move on."

The bar was demolished in 2010. Its location is across the street from a sign reading, "Welcome to Maple Shade - Nice Town, Friendly People."

The township council wants to learn more about the "impact on Dr. King's path and direction" before making any decisions about a memorial, Councilman Louis Manchello said Tuesday.

Miles away, in the Bergen Square section of Camden, Francis and Duff this week stopped to visit the house where the young King lived.

Francis, a retired mail carrier who moved to Camden from Virginia in 1949, once delivered mail to the home, long before King became a national figure. "He was just a student renting a room," he said. "It would be good to acknowledge it now."

The street, like many in Camden, has boarded up houses and trash-strewn lots. But its connection to King gave Duff and Francis ideas.

They left the rowhouse to find its nearby owner in the 300 block of Pine Street. Hunt, who lived there with her husband, Jesthroe, remembered King living in "a back room upstairs."

"We didn't talk a lot - just 'How you doing?' " she said. "He was very polite."

At the time of the Maple Shade incident, her father-in-law met King and the others to help out.

Remembering the lessons of those days is important, and one way of doing that is by marking and preserving the two sites, said historian and author Bill Kelly, a Camden native who now lives in Browns Mills.

"Both should have historical markers and the house should be preserved," Kelly said. "Maybe the restoration of the house would lead to other improvements in the neighborhood."

Added Hunt: "I'd like to see it turned into a historical site. That would have all my cooperation."

A quick review of this week's meeting. On Friday, John and I meet with staff from the Historic Preservation Office to review our progress. We'll primarily be working through the attached chronology (which was compiled by another branch of this project; he's been weeding through the records of local archives and newspapers).

It would be helpful to be able to lay your work through published sources alongside his references. [REDACTED]

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:

- the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
- all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,
Andrea

Dear Kate and Andrea:

I am pleased to submit Stockton's University's Biographical Investigation final report. It is too large to send via email, I'm afraid (primarily do to the high resolution imagery imbedded within).

Please let me know if you have any difficulty opening the report. I realize that, according to the contract specifications, we need to send a number of hard copies, as well as a digitized version on CD. I thought I would let you review the attached first, and make sure there were no suggestions or emendations, before printing and binding.

I appreciate your patience, and hope the result meets your needs. I look forward to hearing from you (and Andrea, enjoy the rest of your week away!).

Bahiya:

Thank you for contacting me concerning your proposed short course. South Jersey Culture & History Center director, Dr. Thomas Kinsella, and I, his assistant director, conducted a one-day African American History and Genealogy symposium at Stockton's Kramer Hall in Hammonton, at the end of March 2017, in cooperation with the Dr. James Still Historic Site and Education Center in Medford, Burlington County. Attached is our latest annual report highlighting the SJCHC's activities. If you review pages 10 and 11, you will find more information about our symposium. We are also engaged in republishing three books originally emanating from the Still family, which you will find mentioned in the annual report. Our biannual South Jersey culture & history journal, SoJourn, has featured one or more articles related to South Jersey African American history in almost every issue. On a personal note, I have been researching black history in South Jersey for over 25 years, including compiling a list of 140 discreet African American enclaves of which nearly 100 date to the antebellum period. It is a perpetual project that I am always updating as new information comes to light.

You might consider inviting Sam Still, chairperson of the Dr. James Still Center, to become part of your planning committee. He and I have already been talking about working on bus trips as part of our annual African American events. We could easily meld our efforts into what you have in mind, if that would be acceptable.

Paul

Subject: African American Cultural Heritage Short Course

Hello all,

I have spoken to some of you about the idea of holding an annual African American Cultural Heritage Short Course. Others of you were suggested to me as having specialized knowledge about the history of African Americans in southern New Jersey. I have attached a brief concept paper that summarizes the idea, and I am hoping that you will be able to attend a meeting to discuss its feasibility.

I know you are all very busy so I promise to be mindful of your time. I am pretty open the week of 12/11. Please let me know your availability. I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,
Bahiya

Interestingly, I've also just been contacted by the New Jersey Historic Preservation Office which is researching the eligibility of a house in Camden for the National Register of Historic Places because of its association with Martin Luther King, Jr. while visiting his Morehouse and Crozer Theological Seminary friend, Howard McCall.

Patrick Duff, a historian from Haddon Heights, just called offering historical information/exhibits that he thinks might work well in "A Time for Change."

He says he has documents showing Dr. King lived in Camden from 1948-51 and his first civil rights actions were in south jersey.
He mentioned someone named Dr. Wiggins as having a major role also.

He has copies of the Philadelphia Tribune showing this, for one thing. He would like to share and can email copies of the documentation.

To whom should he email them or how would you like to proceed? Not sure whether this is information already known to you.

I found this online about Duff's fund-raising efforts on GoFundMe:

<https://www.gofundme.com/DrKinginSJ>

And this Inquirer article on him:

Andrea:

As I explained over the phone, on page 3 of 13 of the contract between the University and the NJDEP was approved as to legal form by both John Kuehne on behalf of NJDEP and me on behalf of the University.

I view this approval to include verification that the document and all attachments are legal and valid, including the policy attached as Attachment E.

I do not believe any additional certifications or resolutions are necessary to confirm the validity and authority of the individuals who executed the agreement on behalf of the University.

The University is anxious to finalize this matter as soon as possible since the work under this contract is now on hold, pending execution of the contract by the NJDEP.

Well - I have a copy of the June 1950 complaint against Ernest Nichols - proprietor of Mary's Place bar in Maple Shade, NJ for refusing service signed by Michael King, who gave his address as 753 Walnut Street, Camden, NJ.

When this document was discovered by Patrick Duff and shared with me, I was the first person to go to that address and photograph the house before it was cleaned up, a picture that appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer the next day.

I learned of the incident when reading the obituary of Nichol's attorney and went to Maple Shade and photographed Mary's Place before it was razed by the NJ Dept. of Transportation.

Nichol's attorney (McCann) said he later heard a radio broadcast of King's testimony before a congressional committee when a Congressman asked King what stimulated him to make civil rights an issue in his ministry. King replied that it was an incident in New Jersey when he was refused service, but that preCSPAN testimony has been hard to find.

Maybe your professors can locate it.

I have done some research into the background of those involved including Dr. Wiggins - who assisted King in his case - Nichols, McCann his lawyer as well as the other three people who were with King and signed the complaint - including another seminary student and two women - one a Philadelphia police officer - Rare in those days for a black women to be a police officer.

I found a picture of her in the Philadelphia Bulletin.

In any case, I have a lot of info on King's residency in NJ.

He also gave an important speech on civil disobedience to Quakers in Cape May that was recorded but that tape has yet to surface.

As today's WHYY story says - the state's delay in recognizing the historic value of the Camden house is delaying its restoration as the roof is deteriorating.

I interviewed Charlie Sifford for my book "Birth of the Birdie" - I will send you a copy. Sifford broke the ACCC course record of 66 during the first 1980 Seniors Tournament - that developed into today's Champions Tour, and he said he grew up around Cobbs Creek. When Sifford won the Canadian Open tournament that qualified him to play in the Masters they quickly met to change the rules to keep him out.

The Babe also won an early ACCC Women's tournament that became the LPGA tour.

Both Sifford and The Babe credited Leo Fraser for opening the clubhouse doors to blacks and women and he grew up in a house off the first green at Seaview.

Thanks for your comments below. Unfortunately, they factually incorrect. Richard Stockton owned more than one slave, and he didn't free them. He also did not lose his land, family or fortune, and he did not give his life for the cause of independence. He died of cancer of the throat and mouth.

On another note, I am very interested in your work on golf in Atlantic County. I teach a course on sports history, and so I was wondering whether at some time in the future you would like to come to Stockton to share your wealth of knowledge in this area with my class. I was thinking that we could create a panel focusing on scholars like yourself who have done some work on local sports history.

Yes Michelle, I would like you to introduce me to Dr. Kinsella. I am familiar with some of his work.

It didn't take much research to determine Richard Stockton was a lawyer who owned a slave - that he freed rather than sell.

And unlike Jefferson, Adams et. al., Stockton did lose his land, family, fortune and gave his life for the cause of independence.

I would think that enough to name the school after him.

Good Morning Michelle,

Just wanted to give you a heads up that the three (3) copies of the Historic Preservation Office contract has been executed by Michael Angulo, Brian Kowalski and Margaret Quinn. Please confirm if you would like your office to forward the hard copies to Katherine J. Marcopul in Trenton. I will definitely scan a copy for our files and will forward same to you as well.

At your convenience, please advise how you would like to proceed. Thank you and have a great day!

Best regards,
Marie

Hello Mr. Duff,

Thank you for your communication below. I would just like to confirm that both of the OPRA requests you sent may be cancelled.

1. Copy of proposal submitted by Stockton University regarding Martin Luther King Jr and his connection to 753 walnut Street, as well as all documents, interview transcripts and video/taped interviews that were obtained regarding the project; and
2. All communication between Stockton University employees and the NJDEP regarding the research project on 753 Walnut St. and it's connection to MLK Jr, such as emails, letters, faxes and requests made of the research team by any and all NJDEP officials. I am also seeking all interpersonal communications by Stockton employees regarding the study, such as but not limited to, Paul Schopp, Michelle McDonald, John O'Hare, Briana Cardinale, Kimberly Bylone and any other employee or student who worked on the publicly funded study.

Regards,
Cynthia

Subject: Fw: OPRA Request

Dear Patrick:

I received the request below this afternoon. I can comply, of course, but I also called Kate Marcopul to ask if it might be easier if I just sent you both the original application for Stockton's study as well as the final report.

Please know that I submitted the final report just last night (I'm happy to forward you the email by which I did so, which provides the date and time). This report also includes all transcribed interviews as appendices. I can send you the two audio files as well (what we transcribed is a verbatim transcription). Other interviews were done by email, and those are also appended.

I was going to send your interview, as well as that of Ms. Hunt to both of you, but first needed to submit to HPO as this is contracted work for hire. Again, this just happened yesterday.

I can send you both the application and final report today, if that would be helpful. Please let me know if this would satisfy the needs of your OPRA request.

I'm also happy to talk my phone. My work number is (609) 626-3529; [REDACTED]

Hi Brianna (and John):

Attached are a couple of examples of past graduate assistant logs. As you can see, they needn't be too burdensome--the date, number of hours per session, type of work performed, and then maybe a final entry of hours for each week.

I've also attached the most recent version of the Graduate Assistant Handbook, you might have already received a copy. Looks like 3 credit hours (which I believe is what you've been awarded) is equivalent to 4.5 hours a week.

Let me know if you have any questions, and nice to meet you earlier today.

Cast of characters associated with Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr

Walter McCall: McCall was one of King's closest friends. Before meeting King at Morehouse, McCall was in the Military. They met at as classmates at Morehouse College in 1945 and both chose to go to Crozer once they graduated. McCall was the barber for the Dorm and King got his haircut but forgot his money. This caused McCall and King to have a wrestling match outside of the Dorm, where King bested the older and bigger McCall. McCall and King would become great friends for years to come.

Herbert Holmes: Herbert Holmes was hired by the King Center to provide interviews as a part of the oral history project for the remembrance of Dr. King.

Benjamin Hunt: Hunt was cousins with Walter McCall. He allowed for King and McCall to stay at his home (753 Walnut St. Camden, NJ) on and off for two years while they went to Crozer theological Seminary in Upland, PA.

Lily Hunt: Mrs. Hunt is the daughter in law of Benjamin Hunt. She was married to his Son, Jesthroe Hunt, and would frequently see Dr. King at the home in Camden during a two and a half year period.

Rev. Lloyd Burrus: Burrus also went to Crozer with King. Burrus was the Reverend of the Zion Baptist Church in Camden beginning in October of 1949. Burrus helped Dr. King get into contact with Dr. Wiggins. Burrus also allowed King to preach at his church in Camden.

Thelma Lawrey: Thelma is the Daughter of Benjamin Hunt and a living witness that also verifies that Dr. King lived at 753 Walnut. Thelma lived at 753 Walnut Street during the time that King and McCall stayed at the home. She said that King and McCall were inseparable and were always together.

Mordecai Johnson: Johnson was the President of Howard University and the person said to be responsible for convincing King that Gandhi's nonviolent methods could also work for black and brown people in America. Johnson is also said to be one of the most prolific orators of the 19th century.

Pearl E. Smith: Smith was the second African American woman to become a Philadelphia Police Officer. She was sworn in in May of 1950 and was with King the night of the Maple Shade incident.

Doris Wilson: Wilson, a Philadelphia social worker, was also with King the night of the Maple Shade incident.

Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins: Wiggins was the President of the Camden NAACP from 1941 till his death in 1966. Wiggins was one of the greatest civil rights activists in the NJ, even before he became President of the NAACP. He was responsible for getting thousands of black people jobs they would not otherwise have at industries in Camden that before Wiggins intervention, either refused to hire black people or would only employ them in the unskilled positions. Wiggins was also partially responsible for helping to desegregate the Camden School System along with the areas in which black people could reside. Wiggins personally helped King and the group navigate the situation in Maple Shade and also filed a lawsuit against the restaurant owner for refusing to serve King and the three others.

Robert Burk Johnson: Johnson was the lawyer for King and the other three, he was the first African American to serve as editor of the Penn Law Review, to be elected to the Camden School Board and also the first African American NJ Supreme Court Justice. Johnson also served as counsel for the Camden branch of the NAACP. McCall is quoted as saying that Johnson was a good friend of his.

Ernest Nichols: Nichols was a former German Soldier who fought in World War 1. He immigrated to America and later bought Mary's Cafe. Nichols is the one who refused King service and threatened him and the group with a gun.

Percy Charlton: Charlton was the Magistrate for Maple Shade. He is the one who officially charged Nichols and also found him guilty of brandishing a weapon.

Thomas McGann: McGann was the attorney for Nichols after Nichols refused King service. McGann later became a Judge in Burlington County and has written many times about the incident that took place in Maple Shade to King.

Eileen Stilwell: Stilwell was a reporter for the Courier Post who wrote the story in 1981 entitled "City Man Housed Activist".

George Anastasia: Anastasia wrote an article entitled "For lack of a Beer--King rocked America's bias" in 1976 about the incident in Maple Shade. In that article a spokesperson for the SCLC said that King "often recounted the incident as one example of what stirred his interest in the civil rights movement."

Timeline of 1945-1961

September of 1945: King starts his schooling at Morehouse college after graduating from High School at the age of 15.

1945, date unknown: McCall gives King a haircut but King forgot his money. This caused a wrestling match between the two where King bested McCall, causing McCall to gain respect for the younger and smaller King and they soon became best friends. For years to come they were known as "Mac and Mike".

May of 1948, Morehouse College: King and McCall graduate from college and both decide to go to Crozer Theological Seminary, in Upland, PA. King's Father bestows upon his son a Brand new Cadillac to drive himself and McCall to Crozer.

June of 1948, Haverford College: King and fellow Morehouse Graduate, June Butts work with Dr. Ira Dea Reid learning interview techniques. They later travelled around the south and interviewed black preachers during the summer months.

September of 1948, Crozer and 753 Walnut: King starts his first semester as a student at Crozer. One semester later he is joined by McCall. Most biographers thought McCall stayed in Atlanta and followed King after needing to save enough money for tuition, which is half true. Instead, McCall was staying at 753 Walnut Street and working in Camden, NJ as a substitute teacher to save money.

1948, Camden School District, date yet unknown: Walter McCall interview with Herbert Homes: McCall states that "I worked for three months in the public school system in Camden, NJ" This shows that McCall was staying in Camden in 1948 and that he was not in the Atlanta area as has been previously written in the history books. Thelma "Hunt", Daughter of Benjamin Hunt, says that McCall worked as a substitute teacher in the Camden Schools.

1948, 753 Walnut Street in Camden, Quotes by Benjamin Hunt, Lily Hunt and Thelma Lawrey: All report King and McCall as staying at 753 Walnut off and on for about 2 years.

On March 5th, 1950 at 8 p.m. Rev. King was a speaker at the Fifth Presbyterian Church for Men's day. 3rd and Tilghman St. Chester, PA 19013

On March 8th, 1950 Rev. King was a speaker at Calvary Baptist Second and Baker

On May 2nd, 1950, Pearl E. Smith is sworn in as the second African American woman to join the Philadelphia Police Force.

On May 3rd, 1950 Rev. King spoke in Newark Delaware at the local NAACP Chapter meeting. Exact location still unknown.

Spring of 1950, date yet unknown: Dr. King hears Mordecai Johnson, who is said to be one of the most prolific orators of the 20th century, speak in Philadelphia at a fellowship house meeting, after the speech Dr. King went out and bought every book on Gandhi and his techniques of nonviolence that he could find. In these teachings he would learn about such things as "sit ins", an idea that he would soon employ in his own life, and other forms of nonviolent resistance.

May of 1950, Crozer: King and McCall complete their second year of seminary school. It was mentioned in the Philadelphia Tribune article that King and McCall were staying in the area after school for the summer to work on a project with Dr. Ira Dea Reid at Haverford College.

June 11th, 1950 at Mary's Cafe on a Sunday night in Maple Shade: King, McCall, Pearl E. Smith and Doris Wilson walk into Mary's Cafe around 11:30 pm. Pearl, Doris and King all took a seat while McCall went up to the bar and asked for 1, or 2 quarts of beer and 4 glasses. The Bartender, Ernest Nichols, rudely responded, "NO BEER". King began to question Nichols as to whether he wasn't serving them based on their color, so Nichols responded by saying it's illegal to sell packaged goods on a Sunday after 10 pm, and a quart of beer was considered packaged goods. So McCall, armed with this new bit of information, walks back up to the bar and says that he wants 4 beers or 4 Ginger Ales, Nichols asks them to leave and they decided to perform a sit in. Nichols loses it and begins to yell at King and his group. A couple of white college students from Penn tried to calm down Nichols and have them served, but Nichols goes back to his apartment and grabs a gun. He returns to the bar where King and his group were still seated. He points the 45 in McCall's face and orders them out but they still refused to leave. Nichols takes one step out the front door and fires the gun off a couple of times into the air and screams "I'll Kill for Less". At this point, with their lives being threatened, the four leave the bar and go to the Maple Shade police station.

June 11th 11:45 pm: Maple Shade Police Station: King and the group go to the police station to file charges. Pearl Smith is quoted as saying "we attempted to prefer charges". My belief is the police refused to prefer charges, causing Dr. King to reach out for some help. Benjamin Hunt is quoted as saying that "It was King's idea to call a doctor who was very active in civil rights", and that doctor was Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins. Hunt also said that they got locked up that night, which could have been the reason why Wiggins left his home in the middle of the night. Wiggins was one of the people responsible for helping to make sure that the newly drafted NJ Constitution, which was implemented in 1947, included a section making refusal of service based upon color illegal.

June 12th, 1950 12:45 am: Maple Shade Police Station: President of the Camden NAACP comes to help King and the group prefer charges. King is said to have been introduced to Wiggins by Lloyd Burrus, a fellow Classmate of King and McCall at Crozer and the pastor at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, which was only blocks from Dr. Wiggins house, and also a place that King preached at several times. A complaint is filed for the refusal of service, some one hour and 15 minutes after the incident occurred. The interesting part of the actual complaint was the charge was originally written "Refusal to serve alcoholic beverage in public place", but the word "alcoholic" was later crossed out, most likely by the magistrate judge. This is interesting because the very complaint itself was attempting to incriminate King and his group by saying they were trying to buy alcohol on a Sunday after 10. Another interesting part of the complaint was the address that King listed as his home, which was 753 Walnut St. Camden, NJ. Which we now know was his part time residence while he attended Crozer. We also know that classes had ended at Crozer for over a month at this point in June, so it's safe to assume that he was staying at the address he listed on the sworn police complaint at that time.

June 12th, 1950 later in the morning, Maple Shade Municipal Court: The restaurant owner, Ernest Nichols, appears before Judge Percy Charlton with his attorney Thomas McGann. McGann asks for a continuation and the hearing is postponed till Thursday night, June 15th.

June 15th, 1950 Thursday night, Maple Shade municipal courthouse: A formal complaint is made against Nichols for brandishing a weapon, using obscene language and refusal of service. Ernest Nichols is held on $500 bail by Judge Charlton on for the refusal charge and found guilty on the brandishing a weapon and obscene language charges and paid a $50 fine. The refusal charge is sent to the Grand Jury for further proceedings. King and McCall are represented by Robert Burk Johnson who is assisted by Ulysses S. Wiggins. Three white witnesses testify on behalf of King and his group, saying they tried to calm down Nichols and have them served. This shows that the white people were being served at the same time he refused to serve King and the group, otherwise, why would they ask King's group be served?

June 16th, 1950, Claymont DE: King is arrested for speeding in Claymont Delaware on his way to his Brother's wedding. His brother's wedding was on the next day, so King was rushing back to make sure he was there, especially considering he was the best man.

June 17th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the Maple Shade situation. King is listed as Michael King. Other articles from the same time period about King have his name listed as Martin Luther King Jr., or M.L. King Jr, but this clearly states his name as Michael, why? The article also states they were being helped by Dr. Wiggins, who they were introduced to through LLOYD Burrus.

June 20th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the maple shade incident where King is listed again as, Michael.

Unknown date: Camden NAACP filed a lawsuit against the restaurant owner for discrimination. I believe this was done to gain some leverage because McCall faced being indicted too for trying to buy what could be considered packaged goods on a Sunday after 10pm.

July 1st, 1950: Baltimore Afro American article about the incident. King is mysteriously left out of the article. Dr. Ulysses Wiggins is quoted at saying "Our organization expects to launch a drive soon against public places which refuse accommodations solely on the basis of race and color". Wiggins would later go on to lead a drive in the Southern NJ area to help desegregate places of public accommodation. Proving that this event was not just significant to King as a person, but also to southern NJ as a catalyst.

August 28th, 1950, Burlington County Detectives office, Mount Holly NJ: Pearl Smith gives an interview to Burlington County Chief Detective, Clifford D. Cain, and in doing so she incriminates McCall by saying he was trying to buy "one, or two quarts of beer, and four glasses", and admitting it was a Sunday after 10 pm. She also tells the story of what happened inside Mary's cafe that night. Pearl, who was listed in all of the articles found about her as Mrs. Pearl Smith, was a police woman at the time, and should have known that her statement incriminated McCall. Interestingly, Detective Cain was under an investigation of his own for looking the other way on a Casino that operated out of Maple Shade for many years until it was busted right around the same time of this incident. The Casino was just down the street from Mary's Cafe.

Date unknown, place unknown: A short while after Pearl gives the statement, the case is dropped by King and McCall, and they all walk away. McCall says the case was thrown out when three white witnesses refused to testify, King says that it was two white witnesses. McGann says that it was King and McCall that refused to show up. McCall also said in that King and himself couldn't act as their own plaintiff and defense at the grand jury, which shows that they were also facing being charged at the grand jury. Was it that the white students who originally testified on their behalf did not show up, as King and McCall said, or was it King and McCall who decided to not risk being indicted at the grand jury and walked away? It being 1950, and them being African American's, it was probably best not to take that chance.

On Nov 12th, 1950 at 3:30 p.m. Rev. King delivered a sermon to the Fifth Presbyterian Church at 3rd and Tilghman St. Chester, PA 19013

Between September and December of 1950, Crozer Campus: King begins to court the girlfriend of one of his professors, Kenneth Lee Smith, and wound up winning her heart. Her name was Betty Moatz, she was the daughter of the cook on campus and she also just happened to be white. King fell in love and asked for her to marry him. His friends and mentors stressed that he could not possibly return to the south with a white wife, Moatz, also thought the same, and they had to call it off. This angered King, said Moatz, but he went through with it in the end and they broke it off.

January 6th, 1951: Courier Post clipping showing Walter McCall gave a sermon at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ

January 13th, 1951 2:20 pm: Courier Post clipping showing Dr. King gave a sermon at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ.

On Feb 25th, 1951 at 11 a.m. Rev. King was a speaker at the Fifth Presbyterian Church at 3rd and Tilghman St. Chester, PA 19013

On March 11th, 1951 at 3 p.m. Rev. King gave a sermon to the Calvary Baptist Church on 1612 West Second Street Chester, PA. 19013

On April 14th, 1951 at 8 p.m. Rev. King was a speaker at St. Daniels Methodist Church at 315 Edwards St. Chester, PA 19013

September 15th 1952: Courier Post clipping showing Dr. King and Walter McCall were guests for the weekend at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ. This is the last documented time of King in Camden.

August 5th, 1954 letter to King, McCall writes to King in a letter: "Pearl has gone to California. I gave her fifty dollars with the idea of helping to support the child, but that support only gave Pearl a ray of hope to win me over to marry her although I have told her again and again that I am not going to do that. She has already worried the very day light out of me by long distance phone calls and a host of letters. So, instead of continuing that support, I have cut it off already. Never do I expect to help in any fashion. Man, Pearl will harass me to death if I give her the least o' consideration. Hate to take that attitude, but I think I am wise in so doing." Could McCall be talking about Pearl Smith?

October 28th, 1961: Philadelphia Tribune Article with Dr. King speaking about what happened in Maple Shade. King said it was a very painful experience because they decided to "sit in". This proves that this was the first recorded time in which King would perform a sit in.

1960's, unknown date: Thomas McGann reports hearing a report by Fulton Lewis Jr that said Dr. King's interest in civil rights began while he was staying with friends in Camden and he was refused service at a restaurant in the suburbs of the city. This caused McGann to call Robert Burk Johnson to ask him to look into his files and see if he had the case they had together over a decade earlier. Johnson called McGann back and confirmed that it was Dr. King who was involved in the incident.

1970 interview with Walter McCall: McCall very clearly states that the first civil rights struggle Dr. King was in was in Maple Shade in the year 1950. He also states that he worked in the Camden, NJ school system for three months in 1948.

1976 article by George Anastasia: It is reported that the spokesperson for the SCLC said that Dr. King would frequently mention the situation in Maple Shade as what inspired him to become involved in civil rights.

Jan 16th, 1981 article in the Courier Post by Eileen Stilwell: Interview of Benjamin Hunt, cousin of Walter McCall, speaking about King and McCall living on and off at 753 Walnut St. in Camden, NJ. Reporter talks about seeing Dr. King in the pictures on the wall. Hunt states that he believed that what happened in Maple Shade started to change him into the leader he became.

Subject: Timeline

Timeline of 1945-1961

September of 1945: King starts his schooling at Morehouse college after graduating from High School at the age of 15.

1945, date unknown: McCall gives King a haircut but King forgot his money. This caused a wrestling match between the two where King bested McCall, causing McCall to gain respect for the younger and smaller King, and they soon became best friends. For years to come they were known as "Mac and Mike".

May of 1948, Morehouse College: King and McCall graduate from college and both decide to go to Crozer Theological Seminary, in Upland, PA. King's Father bestows upon his son a Brand new Cadillac to drive himself and McCall to Crozer.

June of 1948, Haverford College: King and fellow Morehouse Graduate, June Butts work with Dr. Ira Dea Reid learning interview techniques. They later travelled around the south and interviewed black preachers during the summer months.

September of 1948, Crozer and 753 Walnut: King starts his first semester as a student at Crozer. One semester later he is joined by McCall. Most biographers thought McCall stayed in Atlanta and followed King after needing to save enough money for tuition, which is half true. Instead, McCall was staying at 753 Walnut Street and working in Camden, NJ as a substitute teacher to save money.

1948, Camden School District, date yet unknown: Walter McCall interview with Herbert Homes: McCall states that "I worked for three months in the public school system in Camden, NJ" This shows that McCall was staying in Camden in 1948 and that he was not in the Atlanta area as has been previously written in the history books. Thelma "Hunt", Daughter of Benjamin Hunt, says that McCall worked as a substitute teacher in the Camden Schools.

1948, 753 Walnut Street in Camden, Quotes by Benjamin Hunt, Lily Hunt and Thelma Lawrey: All report King and McCall as staying at 753 Walnut off and on for about 2 years.

October of 1949, Zion Baptist Church in Camden:, date yet unknown, Courier Post article:

King's Crozer classmate, Rev. LLOYD Burrus, becomes pastor at Zion Baptist Church.

Spring of 1950, date yet unknown: Dr. King hears Mordecai Johnson, who is said to be one of the most prolific orators of the 20th century, speak in Philadelphia at a fellowship house meeting, after the speech Dr. King went out and bought every book on Gandhi and his techniques of nonviolence that he could find. In these teachings he would learn about such things as "sit ins", an idea that he would soon employ in his own life, and other forms of nonviolent resistance.

May of 1950, Crozer: King and McCall complete their second year of seminary school. It was mentioned in the Philadelphia Tribune article that King and McCall were staying in the area after the school year for the summer to work on a project with Dr. Ira Dea Reid at Haverford College.

June 11th, 1950 Mary's Cafe Sunday night: King, McCall, Pearl E. Smith and Doris Wilson walk into Mary's Cafe around 11:30 pm. Pearl, Doris and King all took a seat while McCall went up to the bar and asked for 1, or 2 quarts of beer and 4 glasses. The Bartender, Ernest Nichols, rudely responded, "NO BEER". King began to question Nichols as to whether he wasn't serving them based on their color, so Nichols responded by saying it's illegal to sell packaged goods on a Sunday after 10 pm, and a quart of beer was considered packaged goods. So McCall, armed with this new bit of information, walks back up to the bar and says that he wants 4 beers or 4 Ginger Ales, Nichols asks them to leave and they decided to perform a sit in. Nichols loses it and begins to yell at King and his group. A couple of white college students from Penn tried to calm down Nichols and have them served, but Nichols goes back to his apartment and grabs a gun. He returns to the bar where King and his group were still seated. He points the 45 in McCall's face and orders them out but they still refused to leave. Nichols takes one step out the front door and fires the gun off a couple of times into the air and screams "I'll Kill for Less". At this point, with their lives being threatened, the four leave the bar and go to the Maple Shade police station.

June 11th 11:45 pm: Maple Shade Police Station: King and the group go to the police station to file charges. Pearl Smith is quoted as saying "we attempted to prefer charges". My belief is the police refused to prefer charges, causing Dr. King to reach out for some help. Benjamin Hunt is quoted as saying that "It was King's idea to call a doctor who was very active in civil rights", and that doctor was Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins. Hunt also said that they got locked up that night, which could have been the reason why Wiggins left his home in the middle of the night. Wiggins was one of the people responsible for helping to make sure that the newly drafted NJ Constitution, which was implemented in 1947, included a section making refusal of service based upon color illegal.

June 12th, 1950 12:45 am: Maple Shade Police Station: President of the Camden NAACP comes to help King and the group prefer charges. King is said to have been introduced to Wiggins by Lloyd Burrus, a fellow Classmate of King and McCall at Crozer and the pastor at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, which was only blocks from Dr. Wiggins house, and also a place that King preached at several times. A complaint is filed for the refusal of service, some one hour and 15 minutes after the incident occurred. The interesting part of the actual complaint was the charge was originally written "Refusal to serve alcoholic beverage in public place", but the word "alcoholic" was later crossed out, most likely by the magistrate judge. This is interesting because the very complaint itself was attempting to incriminate King and his group by saying they were trying to buy alcohol on a Sunday after 10. Another interesting part of the complaint was the address that King listed as his home, which was 753 Walnut St. Camden, NJ. Which we now know was his part time residence while he attended Crozer. We also know that classes had ended at Crozer for over a month at this point in June, so it's safe to assume that he was staying at the address he listed on the sworn police complaint at that time.

June 12th, 1950 later in the morning, Maple Shade Municipal Court: The restaurant owner, Ernest Nichols, appears before Judge Percy Charlton with his attorney Thomas McGann. McGann asks for a continuation and the hearing is postponed till Thursday night, June, 15th.

June 15th, 1950 Thursday night, Maple Shade municipal court house: A formal complaint is made against Nichols for brandishing a weapon, using obscene language and refusal of service. Ernest Nichols is held on $500 bail by Judge Charlton on for the refusal charge and found guilty on the brandishing a weapon and obscene language charges and paid a $50 fine. The refusal charge is sent to the Grand Jury for further proceedings. King and McCall are represented by Robert Burk Johnson who is assisted by Ulysses S. Wiggins. Three white witnesses testify on behalf of King and his group, saying they tried to calm down Nichols and have them served. This shows that the white people were being served at the same time he refused to serve King and the group, otherwise, why would they ask King's group be served?

June 16th, 1950, Claymont DE: King is arrested for speeding in Claymont Delaware on his way to his Brother's wedding. His brother's wedding was on the next day, so King was rushing back to make sure he was there, especially considering he was the best man.

June 17th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the Maple Shade situation. King is listed as Michael King. Other articles from the same time period about King have his name listed as Martin Luther King Jr., or M.L. King Jr, but this clearly states his name as Michael, why? The article also states they were being helped by Dr. Wiggins, who they were introduced to through LLOYD Burrus.

June 20th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the maple shade incident where King is listed again as, Michael.

Unknown date: Camden NAACP filed a lawsuit against the restaurant owner for discrimination. I believe this was done to gain some leverage because McCall faced being indicted too for trying to buy what could be considered packaged goods on a Sunday after 10pm.

July 1st, 1950: Baltimore Afro American article about the incident. King is mysteriously left out of the article. Dr. Ulysses Wiggins is quoted at saying "Our organization expects to launch a drive soon against public places which refuse accommodations solely on the basis of race and color". Wiggins would later go on to lead a drive in the Southern NJ area to help desegregate places of public accommodation. Proving that this event was not just significant to King as a person, but also to southern NJ as a catalyst.

August 28th, 1950, Burlington County Detectives office, Mount Holly NJ: Pearl Smith gives an interview to Burlington County Chief Detective, Clifford D. Cain, and in doing so she incriminates McCall by saying he was trying to buy "one, or two quarts of beer, and four glasses", and admitting it was a Sunday after 10 pm. She also tells the story of what happened inside Mary's cafe that night. Pearl, who was listed in all of the articles found about her as Mrs. Pearl Smith, was a police woman at the time, and would have known that her statement incriminated McCall. Interestingly, Detective Cain was under an investigation of his own for looking the other way on a Casino that operated out of Maple Shade for many years until it was busted right around the same time of this incident.

Date unknown, place unknown: A short while after Pearl gives the statement, the case is dropped by King and McCall, and they all walk away. McCall says the case was thrown out when three white witnesses refused to testify, King says that it was two white witnesses. McGann says that it was King and McCall that refused to show up. McCall also said in that King and himself couldn't act as their own plaintiff and defense at the grand jury, which shows that they were also facing being charged at the grand jury. Was it that the white students who originally testified on their behalf did not show up, as King and McCall said? Or was it King and McCall who decided to not risk being indicted at the grand jury and walked away? It being 1950, and them being African American's, it was probably best not to take that chance.

Between September and December of 1950, Crozer Campus: King begins to court the girlfriend of one of his professors, Kenneth Lee Smith, and wound up winning her heart. Her name was Betty Moatz, she was the daughter of the cook on campus and she also just happened to be white. King fell in love and asked for her to marry him. His friends and mentors stressed that he could not possibly return to the south with a white wife, Moatz, also thought the same, and they had to call it off. This angered King, said Moatz, but he went through with it in the end and they broke it off.

January 6th, 1951: Courier Post clipping showing Walter McCall gave a sermon at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ

January 13th, 1951 2:20 pm: Courier Post clipping showing Dr. King gave a sermon at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ. The oral history of the church has spoke about Dr. King visiting and preaching there, but this clipping solidified it.

September 15th 1952: Courier Post clipping showing Dr. King and Walter McCall were guests for the weekend at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ. This is the last documented time of King in Camden.

October 28th, 1961: Philadelphia Tribune Article with Dr. King speaking about what happened in Maple Shade. King said it was a very painful experience because they decided to "sit in". This proves that this was the first recorded time in which King would perform a sit in.

1960's, unknown date: Thomas McGann reports hearing a report by Fulton Lewis Jr that said Dr. King's interest in civil rights began while he was staying with friends in Camden and he was refused service at a restaurant in the suburbs of the city. This caused McGann to call Robert Burk Johnson to ask him to look into his files and see if he had the case they had together. Johnson called McGann back and confirmed that it was Dr. King who was involved in the incident.

1970 interview with Walter McCall: McCall very clearly states that the first civil rights struggle Dr. King was in was in Maple Shade in the year 1950. He also states that he worked in the Camden, NJ school system for three months in 1948.

1976 article by George Anastasia: It is reported that the spokesperson for the SCLC said that Dr. King would frequently mention the situation in Maple Shade as what inspired him to become involved in civil rights.

Jan 16th, 1981 article in the Courier Post by Eileen Stilwell: Interview of Benjamin Hunt, cousin of Walter McCall, speaking about King and McCall living on and off at 753 Walnut St. in Camden, NJ. Reporter talks about seeing Dr. King in the pictures on the wall. Hunt states that he believed that what happened in Maple Shade started to change him into the leader he became.

Subject: MLK In NJ Study

Well - I have a copy of the June 1950 complaint against Ernest Nichols - proprietor of Mary's Place bar in Maple Shade, NJ for refusing service signed by Michael King, who gave his address as 753 Walnut Street, Camden, NJ.

When this document was discovered by Patrick Duff and shared with me, I was the first person to go to that address and photograph the house before it was cleaned up, a picture that appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer the next day.

I learned of the incident when reading the obituary of Nichol's attorney and went to Maple Shade and photographed Mary's Place before it was razed by the NJ Dept. of Transportation.

Nichol's attorney (McCann) said he later heard a radio broadcast of King's testimony before a congressional committee when a Congressman asked King what stimulated him to make civil rights an issue in his ministry. King replied that it was an incident in New Jersey when he was refused service, but that preCSPAN testimony has been hard to find.

Maybe your professors can locate it.

I have done some research into the background of those involved including Dr. Wiggins - who assisted King in his case - Nichols, McCann his lawyer as well as the other three people who were with King and signed the complaint - including another seminary student and two women - one a Philadelphia police officer - Rare in those days for a black women to be a police officer.

I found a picture of her in the Philadelphia Bulletin.

In any case, I have a lot of info on King's residency in NJ.

He also gave an important speech on civil disobedience to Quakers in Cape May that was recorded but that tape has yet to surface.

As todays WHYY story says - the state's delay in recognizing the historic value of the Camden house is delaying its restoration as the roof is deteriorating.

I interviewed Charlie Sifford for my book "Birth of the Birdie" - I will send you a copy. Sifford broke the ACCC course record of 66 during the first 1980 Seniors Tournament - that developed into today's Champions Tour, and he said he grew up around Cobbs Creek. When Sifford won the Canadian Open tournament that qualified him to play in the Masters they quickly met to change the rules to keep him out.

The Babe also won an early ACCC Women's tournament that became the LPGA tour.

Both Sifford and The Babe credited Leo Fraser for opening the clubhouse doors to blacks and women and he grew up in a house off the first green at Seaview.

Dear Bill,

Thanks for your comments below. Unfortunately, they factually incorrect. Richard Stockton owned more than one slave, and he didn't free them. He also did not lose his land, family or fortune, and he did not give his life for the cause of independence. He died of cancer of the throat and mouth.

On another note, I am very interested in your work on golf in Atlantic County. I teach a course on sports history, and so I was wondering whether at some time in the future you would like to come to Stockton to share your wealth of knowledge in this area with my class. I was thinking that we could create a panel focusing on scholars like yourself who have done some work on local sports history.

Yes Michelle, I would like you to introduce me to Dr. Kinsella. I am familiar with some of his work.

It didn't take much research to determine Richard Stockton was a lawyer who owned a slave - that he freed rather than sell.

And unlike Jefferson, Adams et. al., Stockton did lose his land, family, fortune and gave his life for the cause of independence.

I would think that enough to name the school after him.

Excellent! Ordinarily, I'd probably like to be near coffee when we meet, but we might want a meeting room for the inaugural meeting next Wednesday (Feb. 15) in case we want to look at material collectively online. I'll see if I can get one of the meeting rooms in Campus Center (the Provost Office conference room is booked, or I'd go that route). So, space TBA for now, but will update shortly.

I've attached the funding proposal we submitted to the state to get us started. It provides a brief overview of the project and research timeline. Let me know if you have any questions!

Best,

Michelle

Just realized I'd set this meeting for my default 30 minutes (almost all meetings are 30 minutes up this way). I expanded it to an hour, and will send out a recurring meeting request as soon as I have a confirmed room.

See you all Wednesday!

Dear Kate and Andrea:

Attached please find an executed copy of the NJDEP Historic Preservation Office contract. I think that wraps up this part of the process from our end.

I can mail hard copies when I return to the office (I'm out of the office until July 1), but wanted to send this along in the meantime.

Good Morning Michelle,

FYI - Just wanted to inform you that all three (3) originals of the NJDEP Historic Preservation Office contract have been executed by Michael Angulo, Brian Kowalski and Margaret Quinn. Please advise if your office will be forwarding the originals to Katherine J. Marcopul in Trenton directly. I have attached a scanned copy for your reference.

At your convenience, please let me know how you would like to proceed. Thank you and have a great day!

Regards,
Marie

Michelle,

Attached please find the reviewed/and approved "draft" agreement between Stockton University, NJDEP and the Historic Preservation Office. Contract no. L031517-7 has been assigned as the reference. However, the only issue that Brian mentioned was that several pages are marked "DRAFT." Obviously, we should not insert the "DRAFT" pages into the final document. Upon receipt of the final document, I would be more than happy to affix the contract number to the agreement.

Please note that, if the vendor makes any changes to this agreement, the revisions must be reviewed and approved by Legal Counsel prior to execution. If you have any questions or require any additional information, please contact our office.

Have a great weekend!

Marie

Open Public Records Act request - All communication between Stockton University Subject: employees and NJDEP regarding the research project on 753 Walnut St. and its connection to MLK Jr..

Dear Stockton University,

This is a request for public records made under OPRA and the common law right of access. I certify under penalty of NJSA 2C:28-3 that I have not been convicted of an indictable offense. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.
Records requested:

All communication between Stockton University employees and the NJDEP regarding the research project on 753 Walnut St. and it's connection to MLK Jr, such as emails, letters, faxes and requests made of the research team by any and all NJDEP officials. I am also seeking all interpersonal communications by Stockton employees regarding the study, such as but not limited to, Paul Schopp, Michelle McDonald, John O'Hare, Briana Cardinale, Kimberly Bylone and any other employee or student who worked on the publicly funded study.

Yours faithfully,

Patrick Duff

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:

- the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
- all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Hi Andrea:

I've written to the rest of the crew on my side about their availability on the dates you propose. I'll be back in touch as soon as I hear from them.

I hope you are all well in Trenton.

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:
the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,
Andrea

Great! I'll put a meeting request out for the folks on our end.

It might be helpful to have a sense of your questions, so we can pull together material targeting those areas. Would that be possible?

Looking forward to the discussion.

And then a command meeting lands on me for Sept. 12 from 9:30-10:15am. I have angered the calendar gods.

So.

Would it be possible to shift the start time of our meeting to 11am after all? We could then meet as a group from 10:15am to 11am, and dial in the HPO folks at 11am (assuming they are amendable).

If that doesn't work, plan B is that we have our pre-meeting on Monday, Sept. 11, and keep our 10:00am meeting time with HPO....
I just might be a few minutes late.

Thoughts? Beyond the evil ones I have towards Outlook calendar at the moment, I mean.

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on: the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,
Andrea

I don't know if it's possible, but I've been called into a morning meeting on Sept. 12 that will run past our start time of 10am (most likely until 10:30am or 10:45am). Is it at all possible to start our conference call at 11am instead?

If not, I'm happy to suggest other dates, and I apologize for any complications.

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:

the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,
Andrea

So.

Would it be possible to shift the start time of our meeting to 11am after all? We could then meet as a group from 10:15am to 11am, and dial in the HPO folks at 11am (assuming they are amendable).

If that doesn't work, plan B is that we have our pre-meeting on Monday, Sept. 11, and keep our 10:00am meeting time with HPO....

It sounds like you and John can both do a 10:15am meeting on Sept. 12, followed by the conference call at 11am. Let me see if HPO is amendable.

Thank you both for your flexibility, and I'm sorry to throw a wrench into the proceedings. Night all!

So.

Would it be possible to shift the start time of our meeting to 11am after all? We could then meet as a group from 10:15am to 11am, and dial in the HPO folks at 11am (assuming they are amendable).

If that doesn't work, plan B is that we have our pre-meeting on Monday, Sept. 11, and keep our 10:00am meeting time with HPO....

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:
the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,

Andrea

Dear Andrea:

I don't know if it's possible, but I've been called into a morning meeting on Sept. 12 that will run past our start time of 10am (most likely until 10:30am or 10:45am). Is it at all possible to start our conference call at 11am instead?

If not, I'm happy to suggest other dates, and I apologize for any complications.

Michelle

Hi Andrea:

I've written to the rest of the crew on my side about their availability on the dates you propose. I'll be back in touch as soon as I hear from them.

I hope you are all well in Trenton.

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:
the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,
Andrea

Please forgive the tardy response, but I think you've done a masterful job of blending the work that John and I completed into a succinct and cohesive narrative. [REDACTED]

Thank you for compiling a convincing report with well stated arguments relative to MLK's reputed time in Camden.

Respectfully,
Paul

Good evening, all. I sent in our preliminary report to the HPO today (see below and attached). Paul, I used most of what you provided, although some of the first section duplicated information John had also drafted. In those instances, I tried to combine your two sets of materials--using the phrasing and citations that I thought were most persuasive.

We'll see what they say!

Many thanks to all for all of their hard work on this project.

Best,
Michelle
