Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:

- the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
- all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,

Andrea

Subject: RE: 753 Walnut Street - Draft Report

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for transmitting the preliminary report. We have been reading and discussing it avidly. Perhaps before we fire off written comments, it would be useful for us to have a conference call with the Research Team. We realize that it is the start of the semester and that things are probably quite hectic on campus, but we are hoping that you might have some availability during the week of September 11th. As of this writing our team is available on:

- the morning of Tuesday September 12th, and
- all day Friday September 15th.

Looking forward to hearing back from you!

Best,

Andrea

Subject: 753 Walnut Street research

Hi Michele,

I hope you are well, and enjoying the summer. As you know, my Commissioner is very interested in this research project, and is inquiring about the current status of your research. Might we be able to schedule a conference call sometime within the next week to discuss the status of the research?

Right now, it appears that we would be available for a call at the following times:

Friday, July 21st: anytime

Tuesday, July 25th: anytime between 10am and 1pm

Wednesday, July 26th: between 2pm and 4pm

Please let me know if any of these times might work for you. Thank you so much for your help!

Sincerely,
Kate

Dear God, don't hate me. This VERY SECOND I got tagged into an afternoon field trip to tour Rutgers' dorms (long story).

Ugh.

So, since the earlier dates didn't work for John, can I preemptively ask for your availability for July 27 or the week following (July 31-August 3)?

That would be great, yes! Would a pre-meeting at 2pm, with a conference call at 3pm work? We might not need a full hour, but might need more than 30 minutes.

Dear God, don't hate me. This VERY SECOND I got tagged into an afternoon field trip to tour Rutgers' dorms (long story).

Ugh.

So, since the earlier dates didn't work for John, can I preemptively ask for your availability for July 27 or the week following (July 31-August 3)?

That would be great, yes! Would a pre-meeting at 2pm, with a conference call at 3pm work? We might not need a full hour, but might need more than 30 minutes.

Dear Kate and Andrea:

I am pleased to submit Stockton's University's Biographical Investigation final report. It is too large to send via email, I'm afraid (primarily do to the high resolution imagery imbedded within).

[REDACTED]

Please let me know if you have any difficulty opening the report. I realize that, according to the contract specifications, we need to send a number of hard copies, as well as a digitized version on CD. I thought I would let you review the attached first, and make sure there were no suggestions or emendations, before printing and binding.

I appreciate your patience, and hope the result meets your needs. I look forward to hearing from you (and Andrea, enjoy the rest of your week away!).

Best wishes,

Hi all,

I've been down with a head cold since late last week, so I've been slow to get to this.

I can certainly help with this project, but it's Paul Schopp that you want on the team. He has worked on 8 national registry applications and knows the area well.

We are both on campus Tuesday and will be at the AMST meet and greet at 4:30pm. A meeting at 12:30pm would work for us if it works for others.

All the best,

Tom

Tom Kinsella and I discussed this potential project this morning. I have kept tabs on this unfolding story since Haddon Heights resident Patrick Duff first brought it to light early in 2015. It holds a two-fold interest for me: I have been a student of Camden City history for over 40 years and have studied South Jersey African American history for over 25 years. So, I am interested in being engaged in this project if the New Jersey Historic Preservation Office selects the Stockton University team to undertake the work. I have spoken with Mr. Craig on two occasions about the effort to document MLK's whereabouts relative to 753 Walnut Street in Camden during 1950.

I look forward to the potential of some collaboration.

Bahiya:

Thank you for contacting me concerning your proposed short course. South Jersey Culture & History Center director, Dr. Thomas Kinsella, and I, his assistant director, conducted a one-day African American History and Genealogy symposium at Stockton's Kramer Hall in Hammonton, at the end of March 2017, in cooperation with the Dr. James Still Historic Site and Education Center in Medford, Burlington County. Attached is our latest annual report highlighting the SJCHC's activities. If you review pages 10 and 11, you will find more information about our symposium. We are also engaged in republishing three books originally emanating from the Still family, which you will find mentioned in the annual report. Our biannual South Jersey culture & history journal, SoJourn, has featured one or more articles related to South Jersey African American history in almost every issue. On a personal note, I have been researching black history in South Jersey for over 25 years, including compiling a list of 140 discreet African American enclaves of which nearly 100 date to the antebellum period. It is a perpetual project that I am always updating as new information comes to light.

You might consider inviting Sam Still, chairperson of the Dr. James Still Center, to become part of your planning committee. He and I have already been talking about working on bus trips as part of our annual African American events. We could easily meld our efforts into what you have in mind, if that would be acceptable.

Paul

Hello all,

I have spoken to some of you about the idea of holding an annual African American Cultural Heritage Short Course. Others of you were suggested to me as having specialized knowledge about the history of African Americans in southern New Jersey. I have attached a brief concept paper that summarizes the idea, and I am hoping that you will be able to attend a meeting to discuss its feasibility.

I know you are all very busy so I promise to be mindful of your time. I am pretty open the week of 12/11. Please let me know your availability. I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,
Bahiya

Thelma has agreed to meet with me Monday. I will do my best at getting her on video. Again, let me know if there are any questions you want me to ask and I will ask her for you.

I have been wondering... Did you ever have any luck speaking with any of McCalls family members or have you found anything major that I missed? Could you possibly send me the findings that were already presented By The students a couple of months ago? Any info would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks,
Patrick

The plot of ground on East Main Street in Maple Shade, where Mary's Place once stood, is empty now, except for trees planted as a buffer against the steady hum of traffic on busy Route 73.

No one would know that a 1950 incident at the bar helped shape the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s character, and inspired his passion for civil rights.

But Patrick Duff hopes to change that, and has a dream he plans to share with the Maple Shade town council. He wants to create a park at the location, with a plaque, benches, and possibly a statue of King, memorializing his confrontation with a bartender who refused to serve him and his friends. "If we don't preserve this history, it can be erased," said Duff, 38, a Haddon Heights resident, car salesman, and social activist. "I can't believe something this important to every American would not be commemorated."

He researched what happened that Sunday night more than 63 years ago and found a criminal complaint against the pub owner and bartender, Ernest Nichols.

And that document, signed by King, provided his address, a rowhouse at 753 Walnut Street in Camden, where the future civil rights leader lived in a room while a student at the now-closed Crozer Theological Seminary in Upland.

Like the Maple Shade location, no one would know that the-now boarded-up house was once King's home. It's now occasionally occupied by drug addicts and is marked by graffiti, 1 Wish, sprayed a few times across the front.

Duff found the owner, Jeanette Lily Hunt, who once lived there and remembered King. The two of them met to discuss transforming the house into a historic site.

"I was about twenty and married," said Hunt, now 83, a retired teacher whose husband's father, Benjamin Hunt, owned the house. "I can see King out on the sidewalk, leaning against a car, talking."

On that Sunday night in June of 1950, King visited Mary's Place with fellow seminary student W.R. McCall of Camden and their dates, Pearl E. Smith and Doris Wilson of Philadelphia.

They took a table and were ignored by the waitress, so King went to the bar to ask for beer and four glasses, according to statements.

Nichols, the pub owner, refused, saying he was prohibited from selling "package goods" on Sunday or after 10 p.m. on any day, according to a July 1950 statement by his attorney, W. Thomas McGann.

King then asked for four glasses of ginger ale and was told by Nichols, according to a 1982 biography, The Trumpet Sounds, that "the best thing would be for you to leave."

King and his friends held their seats and Nichols became verbally abusive, a police report said. The bartender pulled out a pistol, walked outside, and fired it a few times.

"Mr. Nichols claims that this act was not intended as a threat to his colored patrons," said McGann in his 1950 statement. "The colored patrons, on the other hand, while they admit that the gun was not pointed at them or any of them, seemed to think it was a threat."

"Mr. Nichols on the other hand states that he has been held up before and he wanted to alert his watchdog who was somewhere outside on the tavern grounds," McGann stated.

King reported the incident to police and Nichols was arrested. His signature, as well as McCall's and Smith's, can be seen on a Municipal Court complaint, which stated that Nichols did "willfully refuse to serve beverages of any kind, used profane and obscene language, and intimidation by weapons."

McGann said Nichols had often served blacks at his bar and was concerned that the King party was trying to entrap him by getting him to sell package goods on a Sunday.

The case was dismissed when several witnesses failed to testify before a grand jury.

Standing on the now state-owned ground where the confrontation took place, Colandus "Kelly" Francis, president of the Camden County branch of the NAACP, this week endorsed the proposed memorial and park to honor King.

"I think what happened here should be memorialized," said Francis. "It's part of the healing process. You forgive and move on."

The bar was demolished in 2010. Its location is across the street from a sign reading, "Welcome to Maple Shade - Nice Town, Friendly People."

The township council wants to learn more about the "impact on Dr. King's path and direction" before making any decisions about a memorial, Councilman Louis Manchello said Tuesday. Miles away, in the Bergen Square section of Camden, Francis and Duff this week stopped to visit the house where the young King lived.

Francis, a retired mail carrier who moved to Camden from Virginia in 1949, once delivered mail to the home, long before King became a national figure. "He was just a student renting a room," he said. "It would be good to acknowledge it now."

The street, like many in Camden, has boarded up houses and trash-strewn lots. But its connection to King gave Duff and Francis ideas.

They left the rowhouse to find its nearby owner in the 300 block of Pine Street. Hunt, who lived there with her husband, Jesthroe, remembered King living in "a back room upstairs."

"We didn't talk a lot - just 'How you doing?' " she said. "He was very polite."

At the time of the Maple Shade incident, her father-in-law met King and the others to help out. Remembering the lessons of those days is important, and one way of doing that is by marking and preserving the two sites, said historian and author Bill Kelly, a Camden native who now lives in Browns Mills.

"Both should have historical markers and the house should be preserved," Kelly said. "Maybe the restoration of the house would lead to other improvements in the neighborhood."

Added Hunt: "I'd like to see it turned into a historical site. That would have all my cooperation."

Thelma is Mrs. Hunt's sister-in-law, and she is the one who said that Walter McCall worked as a substitute in Camden...and she is also a living witness that places King at the home. I never knew she existed until a couple of months when the neighbor, who is also Thelma's son, let me know that she also knew King when he stayed there? She was hesitant to speak to anyone at first, and still hasn't let me tape her and she doesn't want to speak to reporters of any kind. I have just spoken to her by phone a couple of times. She said that King and McCall were inseparable, which is also what Jimmy Beshai said. What she also said, which I think I find a bit more interesting, is that her Daddy told them not to go to Maple Shade. I am going to try and get more clarification on Monday about what she knows, but it kind of makes sense.

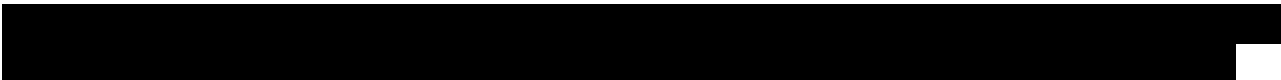

Think about it.. Georgia had no laws against discrimination while King lived there, neither did PA, where Crozer was located, but NJ was a different story. The redrafting of the 1947 NJ Constitution included laws against discriminating on the basis of color. Dr. Wiggins, who was also the Hunt's Family Doctor, was one of the people who helped make sure the redraft included wording making segregation illegal. So, this was the first time that King had the ability to challenge segregation and actually have a legal leg to stand on. He was refused service at restaurants throughout PA during his time at Crozer and nothing legally could be done about it, so nothing is what he did. Yet even though the law was on his side...he still never claimed victory. This left a burning with him, don't you think?

I never got a chance to interview Clarence Jones on tape, and I literally only got to speak to him while he was signing my book, but I asked him if King had ever mentioned the event and he said that he would mention it to people who were from the North who acted like they had it so good where they lived.

Talk to you soon,
Patrick

King and his friends held their seats and Nichols became verbally abusive, a police report said. The bartender pulled out a pistol, walked outside, and fired it a few times.

"Mr. Nichols claims that this act was not intended as a threat to his colored patrons," said McGann in his 1950 statement. "The colored patrons, on the other hand, while they admit that the gun was not pointed at them or any of them, seemed to think it was a threat.

"Mr. Nichols on the other hand states that he has been held up before and he wanted to alert his watchdog who was somewhere outside on the tavern grounds," McGann stated.

King reported the incident to police and Nichols was arrested. His signature, as well as McCall's and Smith's, can be seen on a Municipal Court complaint, which stated that Nichols did "willfully refuse to serve beverages of any kind, used profane and obscene language, and intimidation by weapons."

McGann said Nichols had often served blacks at his bar and was concerned that the King party was trying to entrap him by getting him to sell package goods on a Sunday.

The case was dismissed when several witnesses failed to testify before a grand jury.

Standing on the now state-owned ground where the confrontation took place, Colandus "Kelly" Francis, president of the Camden County branch of the NAACP, this week endorsed the proposed memorial and park to honor King.

"I think what happened here should be memorialized," said Francis. "It's part of the healing process. You forgive and move on."

The bar was demolished in 2010. Its location is across the street from a sign reading, "Welcome to Maple Shade - Nice Town, Friendly People."

The township council wants to learn more about the "impact on Dr. King's path and direction" before making any decisions about a memorial, Councilman Louis Manchello said Tuesday.

Miles away, in the Bergen Square section of Camden, Francis and Duff this week stopped to visit the house where the young King lived.

Francis, a retired mail carrier who moved to Camden from Virginia in 1949, once delivered mail to the home, long before King became a national figure. "He was just a student renting a room," he said. "It would be good to acknowledge it now."

The street, like many in Camden, has boarded up houses and trash-strewn lots. But its connection to King gave Duff and Francis ideas.

They left the rowhouse to find its nearby owner in the 300 block of Pine Street. Hunt, who lived there with her husband, Jesthroe, remembered King living in "a back room upstairs."

"We didn't talk a lot - just 'How you doing?' " she said. "He was very polite."

At the time of the Maple Shade incident, her father-in-law met King and the others to help out.

Remembering the lessons of those days is important, and one way of doing that is by marking and preserving the two sites, said historian and author Bill Kelly, a Camden native who now lives in Browns Mills.

"Both should have historical markers and the house should be preserved," Kelly said. "Maybe the restoration of the house would lead to other improvements in the neighborhood."

Added Hunt: "I'd like to see it turned into a historical site. That would have all my cooperation."

Do you want me to have Patrick Duff email you his information or should I wait until you guys decide more definitively how you want to handle?

If you prefer, you could contact him directly, although I am happy to help.

Hi Michelle and Maryjane,

I spent the past hour reading news coverage. It looks fascinating. Two elements are in play: first, that King was denied service in a Maple Shade, NJ, tavern; and second, that, at the time, he was living at 753 Walnut St. in Camden while he attended Crozer in his time between Morehouse and Boston. That is the address listed in the police reports related to his complaint about denial of service.

Interestingly, I've also just been contacted by the New Jersey Historic Preservation Office which is researching the eligibility of a house in Camden for the National Register of Historic Places because of its association with Martin Luther King, Jr. while visiting his Morehouse and Crozer Theological Seminary friend, Howard McCall.

Patrick Duff, a historian from Haddon Heights, just called offering historical information/exhibits that he thinks might work well in "A Time for Change."

He says he has documents showing Dr. King lived in Camden from 1948-51 and his first civil rights actions were in south jersey.
He mentioned someone named Dr. Wiggins as having a major role also.

He has copies of the Philadelphia Tribune showing this, for one thing. He would like to share and can email copies of the documentation.

To whom should he email them or how would you like to proceed? Not sure whether this is information already known to you.

I found this online about Duff's fund-raising efforts on GoFundMe:

No problem and no apologies necessary! Email in the digital age has acclimated us all to an expectation/myth of instant response -- we don't get enough time to deliberate.

Sometimes I like to think for a few hours before responding to questions! You deserve the same privilege!

Hi Michelle and Maryjane,

I spent the past hour reading news coverage. It looks fascinating. Two elements are in play: first, that King was denied service in a Maple Shade, NJ, tavern; and second, that, at the time, he was living at 753 Walnut St. in Camden while he attended Crozer in his time between Morehouse and Boston. That is the address listed in the police reports related to his complaint about denial of service.

Interestingly, I've also just been contacted by the New Jersey Historic Preservation Office which is researching the eligibility of a house in Camden for the National Register of Historic Places because of its association with Martin Luther King, Jr. while visiting his Morehouse and Crozer Theological Seminary friend, Howard McCall.

Patrick Duff, a historian from Haddon Heights, just called offering historical information/exhibits that he thinks might work well in "A Time for Change."

He says he has documents showing Dr. King lived in Camden from 1948-51 and his first civil rights actions were in south jersey.

He mentioned someone named Dr. Wiggins as having a major role also.

He has copies of the Philadelphia Tribune showing this, for one thing. He would like to share and can email copies of the documentation.

To whom should he email them or how would you like to proceed? Not sure whether this is information already known to you.

I found this online about Duff's fund-raising efforts on GoFundMe:

Sadly, deliberation was not what stalled me--it was the sheer number of emails that breed like rabbits when I am not watching them.

[REDACTED]

But your call on timing. I've got blocks of time the next couple of weeks (indeed, have a morning meeting at Philadelphia University on Sept. 7, so I'll already be in town; that afternoon might be ideal). What does your teaching schedule look like?

Dear Kate:

I've heard back from all members of our team, and we're comfortable with the addendum you propose (one minor correction, I'm Michelle McDonald--both names very easy to misspell, but if this is becoming part of the official record, I thought I'd pass this along :-)

Dear Maggie and Marie:

This is a quick note to virtually introduce you to Kate Marcopul. Kate is with the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, and she and I have been working on the details of a research project that a team of our faculty and staff are posed to undertake. She's about to initiate the contract process, and needed some details about Stockton (DUNS number, vendor ID, etc.), so I'm hoping I'm pointing her in the right direction by giving her your contact information.

I just wanted to give you a heads up that this was coming down the line. The project is a biographical review of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s time in Camden, New Jersey while in seminary. It would be housed in the Stockton Center for South Jersey Culture and History (with Tom Kinsella and Paul Schopp).

Additional people contributing to the project are John O'Hara (GENS), Robert Gregg (Dean of GENS) and yours truly, as well as a couple of assigned American Studies graduate students that are working either as Graduate Research Assistants or for academic credit as Independent Studies (Kate, we actually secured two students rather than one--which is great!).

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Michelle

Dear All:

I'm sorry this is a bit later than I originally proposed, but attached is my draft application for the MLK project. I have everyone's brief biography and your CVs. My thanks (I haven't attached the CVs to this version....I will when this is final and I convert it to a PDF).

I told the Historic Preservation Office that I would have our application to them by Friday, so we have a little time to review and edit.

Let me know what you think! I don't take proposal writing personally, and this was put together with some haste, so all thoughts/changes/suggestions are welcome.

Dear All:

I'm sorry this is a bit later than I originally proposed, but attached is my draft application for the MLK project. I have everyone's brief biography and your CVs. My thanks (I haven't attached the CVs to this version....I will when this is final and I convert it to a PDF).

I told the Historic Preservation Office that I would have our application to them by Friday, so we have a little time to review and edit.

Let me know what you think! I don't take proposal writing personally, and this was put together with some haste, so all thoughts/changes/suggestions are welcome.

Michelle

Michelle,

I have given careful review to this excellent proposal. You will see many small deletions. I am regularizing punctuation after sentences to one space. Ignore those deletions if you see fit to do so.

Thanks for all of your hard work on this. I am in all day tomorrow if you need more from me.

All the best,

I received the request below this afternoon. I can comply, of course, but I also called Kate Marcopul to ask if it might be easier if I just sent you both the original application for Stockton's study as well as the final report.

Please know that I submitted the final report just last night (I'm happy to forward you the email by which I did so, which provides the date and time). This report also includes all transcribed interviews as appendices. I can send you the two audio files as well (what we transcribed is a verbatim transcription). Other interviews were done by email, and those are also appended.

I was going to send your interview, as well as that of Ms. Hunt to both of you, but first needed to submit to HPO as this is contracted work for hire. Again, this just happened yesterday.

I can send you both the application and final report today, if that would be helpful. Please let me know if this would satisfy the needs of your OPRA request.

I'm also happy to talk my phone. My work number is \(609\) 626-3529; [REDACTED]

We do need to get this contract completed. At this point, we've entered a new fiscal year, and I've had to arrange for payment for work done from the year prior, but I've put all additional work on hold until this is complete.

I'll let you know as soon as I hear from our folks.

Andrea:

As I explained over the phone, on page 3 of 13 of the contract between the University and the NJDEP was approved as to legal form by both John Kuehne on behalf of NJDEP and me on behalf of the University.

I view this approval to include verification that the document and all attachments are legal and valid, including the policy attached as Attachment E.

I do not believe any additional certifications or resolutions are necessary to confirm the validity and authority of the individuals who executed the agreement on behalf of the University.

The University is anxious to finalize this matter as soon as possible since the work under this contract is now on hold, pending execution of the contract by the NJDEP.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss, please contact me.

Hi Tom:

I need to create an invoice and I've heard you're the man to do it. The bill will be going to the Historic Preservation Office, housed within the state Department of Environmental Protection. Below is their email authorizing a payment of $10,000.

I'm generating the cover letter on this end, but can you provide an invoice that shows the following:

Vendor name: Stockton University

Vendor address: 101 Vera King Farris Drive, Galloway, NJ 08205

Information on period worked: February 15, 2017 through September 15, 2017

Contract Number: L-0311517-7 (Stockton) and HPO-H2017-015 (HPO)

Information on products produced or work performed:

During the period of work under consideration, Stockton completed a preliminary report of the "Biographical Investigation of Martin Luther King, Jr. with Respect to 753 Walnut Street, Camden, New Jersey during the Years 1948-1951." This included: analysis of both published and unpublished secondary source materials; local archival research in both land and tax records; efforts to identify available documentation for Crozer Theological Seminary; construction of a chronology of King's whereabouts based on historic newspaper analyses; and consultation with archives at the King Center (Atlanta) and Stanford University.

The invoice is going to:

Mail Code 501-04B
State of New Jersey

Historic Preservation Office
PO Box 420
Trenton, NJ 08625-0420

TEL: (609) 984-0176

I wasn't able to connect with Kelly today, but can you reach out to let her know what you need to prepare the funds for distribution?

You needed to know into which account to transfer money, right?

Hi Tom:

I need to create an invoice and I've heard you're the man to do it. The bill will be going to the Historic Preservation Office, housed within the state Department of Environmental Protection. Below is their email authorizing a payment of $10,000.

I'm generating the cover letter on this end, but can you provide an invoice that shows the following:

Vendor name: Stockton University

Vendor address: 101 Vera King Farris Drive, Galloway, NJ 08205

Information on period worked: February 15, 2017 through September 15, 2017

Contract Number: L-0311517-7 (Stockton) and HPO-H2017-015 (HPO)

Information on products produced or work performed:

During the period of work under consideration, Stockton completed a preliminary report of the "Biographical Investigation of Martin Luther King, Jr. with Respect to 753 Walnut Street, Camden, New Jersey during the Years 1948-1951." This included: analysis of both published and unpublished secondary source materials; local archival research in both land and tax records; efforts to identify available documentation for Crozer Theological Seminary; construction of a chronology of King's whereabouts based on historic newspaper analyses; and consultation with archives at the King Center (Atlanta) and Stanford University.

The invoice is going to:

Mail Code 501-04B
State of New Jersey

Historic Preservation Office
PO Box 420
Trenton, NJ 08625-0420

TEL: (609) 984-0176

I wasn't able to connect with Kelly today, but can you reach out to let her know what you need to prepare the funds for distribution?

You needed to know into which account to transfer money, right?

Hi Tom:

I need to create an invoice and I've heard you're the man to do it. The bill will be going to the Historic Preservation Office, housed within the state Department of Environmental Protection. Below is their email authorizing a payment of $10,000.

I'm generating the cover letter on this end, but can you provide an invoice that shows the following:

Vendor name: Stockton University

Vendor address: 101 Vera King Farris Drive, Galloway, NJ 08205

Information on period worked: February 15, 2017 through September 15, 2017

Contract Number: L-0311517-7 (Stockton) and HPO-H2017-015 (HPO)

Information on products produced or work performed:

During the period of work under consideration, Stockton completed a preliminary report of the "Biographical Investigation of Martin Luther King, Jr. with Respect to 753 Walnut Street, Camden, New Jersey during the Years 1948-1951." This included: analysis of both published and unpublished secondary source materials; local archival research in both land and tax records; efforts to identify available documentation for Crozer Theological Seminary; construction of a chronology of King's whereabouts based on historic newspaper analyses; and consultation with archives at the King Center (Atlanta) and Stanford University.

The invoice is going to:

Mail Code 501-04B

Historic Preservation Office
PO Box 420
Trenton, NJ 08625-0420

TEL: (609) 984-0176

Hi John:

I think it would be best if you contacted Ms. Hunt to determine whether she's interested in being interviewed. If she's game, I'm happy to reach out to production services to set up the video arrangements.

Would that work?

In other news, HPO reached out today about the preliminary report. This is my bad. I owe you those edits. I'm really trying... :-S

Glad you're home safe and sounds. Seems like Austin was an adventure.

Subject: Re: MLK and 753 Walnut

I only sent you a small bit of the documentation that I have found. Much of it is about the culture in that time of Maple Shade, which was quite a wild town in 1950. Just a short distance from Mary's Café was a Casino that was operating illegally for years that just got busted by a state force because all of the local police were looking the other way. I have an interview that Chief Detective Clifford Cain did of Pearl E. Smith, who was one of the two women there that night with Dr. King, all about what happened that evening in Mary's Café. If you don't have that please let me know and I will forward it to you. The strange thing about it is that the statement is given two and a half months after the incident and she also incriminates Walter McCall her statement.

Pearl was actually the second African American woman ever to become a Philadelphia Police Officer. Detective Cain was under investigation himself for covering up the casino, and referring a person complaining about it back to the Maple Shade police station where they already refused to do anything. I believe the statement by Pearl is what lead to the case being thrown out, and not the story about the white witnesses not wanting to testify. The biographies, King and McCall, all say that the case was thrown out when two or three white witnesses refused to testify at the grand Jury. Thomas McGann very clearly states in an article he wrote that it was King and McCall that didn't show up to the grand jury...so who is right?

I only sent you a portion of what I found, so I will send you over some more stuff in this email.

I can set up the interviews with the witnesses and or provide you with their contact info, what's best for you? I would however like to take video of the interviews and be able to ask some of my own questions for a documentary I am putting together about the project.

I put together a timeline that I will send over also.

I wanted to ask a favor, could you please give me a synopsis of what the students found?

Thanks for your time,
Patrick Duff

Hello Dr. McDonald,

We spoke sometime ago regarding the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his connections to south jersey. I see that you are part of the group doing the research for the DEP. I was hoping to help with the project if I could? I have three living witnesses that place Dr. King at the home, one lived there with him, the other visited the home while he lived there, and the third on Dr. King told in the early 60's that he used to live in Camden.

Please send me any updates or new information you may find. I would love to get together with you to explain the timeline and narrative that I have been working on and also some of the other evidence that I have found.

Statement of PEARL E. SMITH (colored), taken at the County
Detectives Office, Mount Holly, New Jersey, on August 28, 1950.

By - Chief Clifford W. Cain.

Stenographer - Anna E. Bading.

Q. This is Pearl E. Smith. Now, on June 12th, were you, along with some other folks, in the tap room known as Mary's Tavern, in Maple Shade, New Jersey?

A. Yes, I was.

Q. Tell us your own way what happened?

A. Well, when we entered Mary's Cafe about 11.30 on the 12th of June, we were seated at a table.

Q. That was on a Sunday?

A. Yes, on a Sunday. The three of us - three of a party of four, sat at a table and that was Miss Doris Wilson and Rev. M. L. King and my and Rev. McCall, the fourth member of the party went to the bar and asked to be served and I believe he asked for one or two quarts of beer, I am not certain which and four glasses, and at this time the proprietor, at least it was the man behind the bar, we learned later he was the proprietor, he said there was no beer served because it was Sunday and he came back to the table where we were and he asked if we thought perhaps he ~~xxxx~~ was refusing to serve us because it was Sunday and a bottle beer was considered package goods, and went back to the counter again and asked for four glasses of beer, or four glasses of gingerale. Mr.
Nichols became abusive and jumped out of the bar and went to his apartment and got a gun and came back and opened the front door and shot out the door and he came back in the tavern and was waving the gun aroun and using very abusive language.

Q. You mean profane language?

A. Yes, and we left because we were afraid of the gun and we got the police and came back down and the police confiscated the gun and came back to the office in Maple Shade and attempted to prefer charges against him and that is the gist of the incident.

Q. Isn't McCall and King studying to be Ministers?

A. Yes, they are both already ordained Ministers.

Q. Are you a police woman?

A. Yes, I am. We had just left church when this incident happened.

Dr. Martin Luther King's passage through the county

Before his appointment to the Superior Court, retired Judge W. Thomas McGann was an attorney in the practice. In 1950, he represented a Maple Shade man accused of firing several shots after throwing a brick at Martin Luther King out of a bar on Route 73.

Years later, the bar was known as Mary's Cafe. It later became the Jade Tavern and as the Moorestown Inn in business today. Charges against McGann's client were dropped after King, then a divinity student at Princeton, Pa., never showed up at a county grand jury hearing on the case.

Later, King told biographers that his interest in civil rights issues was rooted in the incident at the Maple Shade bar. This is McGann's account of that incident.

By Judge W. Thomas McGann
Special to The PCT

While listening to the radio in the early 1960s, I heard reporter Fulton Lewis Jr. commenting on the national news of the day, particularly a report on a Senate committee on civil rights, where the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. was the principal witness.

According to the report, Dr. King was asked why he had taken such an unusual interest in civil rights. He replied that when he was a seminarian, he was staying with a friend in Camden and went out one evening with a group of people, stopping for "refreshments" at a place in a "suburb of Camden," where he was rudely refused and threatened by the proprietor.

This past May during the commencement of Duke University in Durham, N.C. — where Mrs. Coretta King was awarded an honorary degree — I was reminded of the incident referred to by the Rev. King. It was of particular interest to me because I represented the proprietor of the tavern where King and his friends — another seminarian and two women — sought to purchase a six pack of beer on a Sunday night in June 1950 in Maple Shade.

As a result of what occurred that night, my client was charged with a violation of the New Jersey civil rights statute and unlawful use of a gun. The incident occurred on a Sunday night, but probably past midnight.

Rev. King or his seminarian friend sought to purchase a six pack of beer, but the defendant, Ernest Nichols, refused to serve him because he felt that would violate the law against the sale of package goods on Sunday. Because they were well dressed and spoke politely, Nichols was suspicious and really believed they were trying to entrap him.

Nichols behaved belligerently and was fully overreacted. He refused to serve them anything and resorted under the bar for his gun, and then went outside and shot the revolver in the air.

The Rev. King and his group went to the local police station and pressed charges against Nichols. The matter came before the magistrate who was the acting municipal judge. The judge, Percy Carlton, heard the preliminary evidence and determined that the local court did not have jurisdiction. He ordered that the matter be referred to the county grand jury because the alleged offenses were indictable violations. The complainants were represented by an attorney, and Nichols held on $500 bail for the grand jury.

Unfortunately, nothing ever came of the charges because the Rev. King and his friends never appeared before the grand jury, even though they were notified and asked to be available as witnesses. Accordingly the case was dismissed.

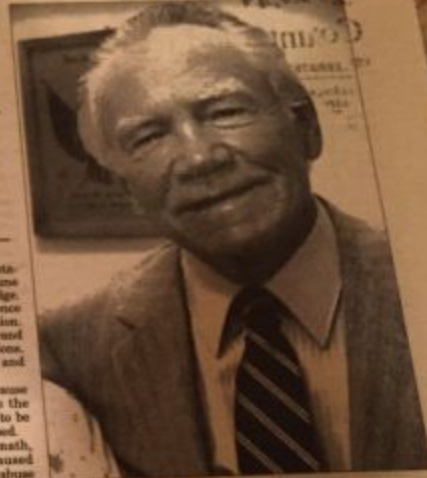

This whole wrongful event did have a good aftermath, however. If we can believe Lewis' news report, it caused Martin Luther King to take an unusual interest in the abuse of civil rights and led to a historic campaign against racial abuses. For the most part, those abuses have been changed and hopefully cured, at least to the point that African Americans and other minorities have been accorded equal protection of the law.

Martin Luther King's courageous campaign, through his natural ability as an orator and peaceful pursuit of a noble cause, brought about a revolutionary change in civil rights.

In this respect he was like Mahatma Gandhi. He also reminds me of Daniel O'Connell, the great Irish emancipator for civil rights, who like the Rev. King was an outstanding orator who pursued a policy of peaceful practice and determined dedication. Like Dr. King he was arrested and convicted too, but his conviction was reversed on appeal by the House of Lords because of his underlying policy of non-violence.

Dr. King philosophically subscribed to Gandhi's "satyagraha," a form of passive resistance rather than violence. His dream was one of advancement of good relations where all could live as brothers.

All of these advocates for civil rights knew instinctively that elemental natural law and morality, aside from the politics of the day, underscored their efforts for civil rights and justice.

Future American history cannot be written without referring to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his significant role in making the United States a more civil nation.

Of course, there are still problems with racism, but that is not unexpected because of human frailty and ignorance. You find it affecting not only African Americans, Latin Americans and Asian Americans, but other groups too.

It will never be wiped out completely, but at least we thinking, fair-minded people, racial equity is gradually being adopted to the point where bigotry is decried by people of good will.

Thus, it can be said that Dr. King's "dream" "promised land" is gradually and inevitably being brought to fruition.

Negroes from the four corners of this city jam-packed the Academy of Music last Tuesday night and cheered to the oratorical great-ness of Martin Luther King.

Climaxing a four-day visit to his former home city in which he introduced non-violent tech-niques to Kingway groups through-out the area, he told reporters at a news-press conference that Philadelphia had made "mean-ingful strides" in integration.

more employment on merit than race and that moves made in modern housing are "very encouraging".

The famous integrationist, who says he got his "inspiration from Jesus Christ and operational technique from Gandhi," told reporters of his own local experience with segregation when, in 1951, driving two friends from Philadelphia to Merchantville, N.J., the group stopped for some food.

"They refused to serve us," Dr. King said. "It was a painful experience because we decided to sit in." He said the owner of the establishment thereupon produced a pistol saying, "I'll kill for less than that."

King and his companions got the police and came back. He says the grand jury didn't indict because two white customers present at the time refused to testify. Dr. King's two companions in the adventure were Rev. Walter McCall and Rev. Ray Ware.

Referring to his hour-long White House conference with President Kennedy last week, Dr. King said he asked the President to proclaim a second Emancipation Proclamation outlawing all segregation. Kennedy is conferring with lawyers now on the problem, and it is expected to be a "priority" issue when Congress convenes in January.

He expressed his "personal appreciation to ministers of the city" and their endorsement of the "Selective Buying Program". Of business, Dr. King commented, "They respect our dollar, let them respect our person."

Mrs. Smith is at present employed as a social worker at the Bureau for Colored Children, 41st and Baring sts. She is a graduate of Morris Brown College in Atlanta, taking an A.B. in sociology and from Atlanta University where she earned her master's degree.

For a while during the war she worked at the Office of Dependency Benefits in Newark, N.J. Later, she joined the WACs and became personnel sergeant at Fort Monmouth.

Mrs. Smith came to Philadelphia three years ago. She took the policewomen's examination in January and was accepted and sworn in within two days.

Gun-Toting Women Land In The Jug

Two women and a man were arrested in West Philadelphia over the week-end when police heard a gun report and upon arrival on the scene found the three in a heated argument.

When patrolmen arrived at the corner of Budd and Wallace sts. to check out the noise they allegedly found James Clayton, 36, of 418 N. 41st st. with the gun in his hand. With him were two women, Dorothy Hill, 25, of 419 N. 41st st. and Josephine Hall, 29, of 424 40th st., who were handling charges and counter charges at each other.

Miss Hill told the arresting officers that Miss Hall had fired two shots from the gun in an attempt to kill her, and the Hill woman said that she used the gun to protect herself against bodily harm threatened by the other.

Clayton and the Hill women were charged with violation of the Uniform Firearms Act and Miss Hall with threats to do bodily harm.

City Policewoman Charges N. J. Inn Keeper With Bias

MAPLE SHADE, N. J. — A Philadelphia policewoman, together with a social worker, and two college students, lodged complaints against a cafe proprietor of this borough early Monday morning for violation of the state's civil rights act when he allegedly refused to serve them and became abusive. The man, Ernest Nickles, proprietor of Mary's Cafe on Rt. S-41 and Main st., was also charged with brandishing a gun and using obscene language.

Mrs. Pearl Smith, the policewoman, of 735 N. 40th st., Philadelphia, and Miss Doris Wilson, same address, a Philadelphia child-care worker, in company of Michael King, Atlanta, Ga., and Walter McCall of South Carolina, students of Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., entered the place, they said, and asked to be served. According to statements made to Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins, president of the State conference of Branches of the NAACP, they were ordered out by Nickles.

When they did not leave, the men allegedly ran in the back and obtained a gun which he fired in the air out the front door, saying "I would kill for less than this." The group said several white patrons in the place attempted to calm the man and asked that the Negroes be served. According to the policewoman and her companions, these people volunteered to appear against Nickles should they press charges.

Leaving the establishment, complaints were lodged at the police headquarters. The police were said to have obtained the gun from the man when he was taken to the police station. At a hearing held Monday morning, Nickles appeared with his attorney, a Mr. McGann of Moorestown, who asked for a continuation of the hearing. Thursday evening was set by Municipal Judge Percy Charlton.

Robert Burk Johnson of the legal staff of the NAACP, was contacted by Boyd Eatmon, president of the Burlington County branch. Not familiar with legal procedure in New Jersey, the offended visitors, all highly respected persons, were put in contact with Dr. Wiggins by the Rev. Lloyd A. Burros, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Camden. Rev. Burros was called by the men, both of whom were his schoolmates at Crozer Seminary. King and McCall are in this section to assist Dr. Ira DeA. MAPLE SHADE--Ernest Nickles, proprietor of Mary's Cafe, Route S-41 and Main St., is being held for action of the grand jury on charges of violating the State's Civil Rights Law and possessing and discharging a revolver.

The proprietor is said to have fired the gun into the air in an attempt to frighten a group of colored persons who were refused service in his place of business.

He was ordered held for the jury following a hearing Thursday in the local Municipal Court.

Brandishes Revolver

According to court testimony, on June 12 Mrs. Pearl Smith, police-woman, of 735 N. 40th St., Philadelphia; Miss Doris Wilson, of the same address; and Walter McCall, a student at Crozier Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., went into the eating place and asked to be served.

Nickles, according to reports, not only refused to serve the group, but rushed into a back room and returned brandishing the revolver.

Using abusive language, he is said to have fired the gun into the air and ordered the group to leave the cafe.

The complainants are represented by Robert B. Johnson of Camden, member of the NAACP legal staff.

The incident brought the following comment from Dr. U. S. Wiggins, president of the State Conference of NAACP Branches:

Just imagine what it was like in a town that was hiding a Casino for four young black people to try and have the police do something. That is why King called LLoyd Burrus, who in turn called Dr.Wiggins to come to Maple Shade to help them get out of trouble. The 1981 article says that they got locked up and that some doctor had to come and get them out. It must have been a frustrating night for the four of them.

At that time Prosecutor Parker told the court "the jury planned to inquire into what connection, if any, the official family of Maple Shade" had with the gambling joint.

Parker said that by "official family," he referred to members of the Maple Shade township committee, other township officials and members of its police department.

All of the 15 indicted last week had been held in $5000 bail for action of the grand jury. Parker announced the bail would be continued pending their arraignment on the indictments. He said he would announce that date later.

We spoke sometime ago regarding the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his connections to south jersey. I see that you are part of the group doing the research for the DEP. I was hoping to help with the project if I could? I have three living witnesses that place Dr. King at the home, one lived there with him, the other visited the home while he lived there, and the third on Dr. King told in the early 60's that he used to live in Camden.

Please send me any updates or new information you may find. I would love to get together with you to explain the timeline and narrative that I have been working on and also some of the other evidence that I have found.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. Duff:

Thank you for your email. I do remember our earlier correspondence. John O'Hara and I were contacted by the DEP last year to locate, if possible, and assess both published and archival records about Camden in the mid-twentieth century and Martin Luther King, Jr.'s time in the region. The link posted on Stockton's American Studies Program Facebook page was for a presentation by two students who have been conducting a literature review of available published material on the subject.

We would be happy to talk with the three individuals who have personal memories of that time and place. Can you help us to arrange interviews, or provide us with their contact information so we can set up the meetings? In the interest of transparency, the DEP has shared with us what you have provided to them (as you did yourself when you first contacted us). They are hoping there are other forms of evidence that might create a stronger case for 753 Walnut's historic significance, and wanted an impartial review of all material.

Best,
Michelle McDonald

I only sent you a small bit of the documentation that I have found. Much of it is about the culture in that time of Maple Shade, which was quite a wild town in 1950. Just a short distance from Mary's Café was a Casino that was operating illegally for years that just got busted by a state force because all of the local police were looking the other way. I have an interview that Chief Detective Clifford Cain did of Pearl E. Smith, who was one of the two women there that night with Dr. King, all about what happened that evening in Mary's Café. If you don't have that please let me know and I will forward it to you. The strange thing about it is that the statement is given two and a half months after the incident and she also incriminates Walter McCall her statement.

Pearl was actually the second African American woman ever to become a Philadelphia Police Officer. Detective Cain was under investigation himself for covering up the casino, and referring a person complaining about it back to the Maple Shade police station where they already refused to do anything. I believe the statement by Pearl is what lead to the case being thrown out, and not the story about the white witnesses not wanting to testify. The biographies, King and McCall, all say that the case was thrown out when two or three white witnesses refused to testify at the grand Jury. Thomas McGann very clearly states in an article he wrote that it was King and McCall that didn't show up to the grand jury...so who is right?

I only sent you a portion of what I found, so I will send you over some more stuff in this email.

I can set up the interviews with the witnesses and or provide you with their contact info, what's best for you? I would however like to take video of the interviews and be able to ask some of my own questions for a documentary I am putting together about the project.

I put together a timeline that I will send over also.

I wanted to ask a favor, could you please give me a synopsis of what the students found?

Thanks for your time,
Patrick Duff

I apologize for the delay; we have commencement at the university today so it's been nonstop. We would appreciate your help in arranging the interviews, and I'm hoping to borrow a production staff member to help with the videography.

We should probably keep the interviews separate, if we can. We might be able to use the same staff to do a subsequent interview for you, as I appreciate the help you're providing, but the Historic Preservation Office has charged us with reviewing all extant information about 753 Walnut, and seeing what more we can locate. They actually own our research at this point, so it isn't something we can readily share, although the report we generate will ultimately become public.

I'm away, unfortunately, for the next two weeks, but would love to see if we can't arrange meetings in early June (I'm away again June 16-July 1). What would be best way to proceed?

Can you help us to arrange interviews, or provide us with their contact information so we can set up the meetings? In the interest of transparency, the DEP has shared with us what you have provided to them (as you did yourself when you first contacted us). They are hoping there are other forms of evidence that might create a stronger case for 753 Walnut's historic significance, and wanted an impartial review of all material.

Best,

Michelle McDonald

Hello Dr. McDonald,

We spoke sometime ago regarding the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his connections to south jersey. I see that you are part of the group doing the research for the DEP. I was hoping to help with the project if I could? I have three living witnesses that place Dr. King at the home, one lived there with him, the other visited the home while he lived there, and the third on Dr. King told in the early 60's that he used to live in Camden.

Please send me any updates or new information you may find. I would love to get together with you to explain the timeline and narrative that I have been working on and also some of the other evidence that I have found.

Thanks,
Patrick Duff

Wow! This is great, Paul. We'll have some nice material to discuss with the HPO folks at the end of next week. They've definitely confirmed for March 24 at 2:30pm. I've booked the Provost Office conference room, and look forward to seeing you all then if not before.

See you Friday (if not before).

I forgot to ask....for some reason, the CD from NJ HPO didn't copy onto the flash drive as I'd intended.

Are you on campus next week? If so, could you bring the disk by so we can try again?

Sorry... [REDACTED]

I'll look at the source list tomorrow morning. It might be that a listing of online databases is sufficient (or we might need to do screen shots of some materials; let me take a look).

Good Morning Michelle,

FYI - Just wanted to inform you that all three (3) originals of the NJDEP Historic Preservation Office contract have been executed by Michael Angulo, Brian Kowalski and Margaret Quinn. Please advise if your office will be forwarding the originals to Katherine J. Marcopol in Trenton directly. I have attached a scanned copy for your reference.

At your convenience, please let me know how you would like to proceed. Thank you and have a great day!

I do not see how you can conclude that it was the senior King preaching at the Camden Church? You also fail to mention his return to the same church in 1952 with Walter McCall. Why would Daddy King be travelling with McCall? That makes no sense. Also, McGann says it was King and McCall that didn't show up to the grand jury. Why not mention the conflicting stories?

Dear Patrick:

I received the request below this afternoon. I can comply, of course, but I also called Kate Marcopul to ask if it might be easier if I just sent you both the original application for Stockton's study as well as the final report.

Please know that I submitted the final report just last night (I'm happy to forward you the email by which I did so, which provides the date and time). This report also includes all transcribed interviews as appendices. I can send you the two audio files as well (what we transcribed is a verbatim transcription). Other interviews were done by email, and those are also appended.

I was going to send your interview, as well as that of Ms. Hunt to both of you, but first needed to submit to HPO as this is contracted work for hire. Again, this just happened yesterday.

I can send you both the application and final report today, if that would be helpful. Please let me know if this would satisfy the needs of your OPRA request.

I'm also happy to talk my phone. My work number is \(609\) 626-3529626-3529); [REDACTED]

Hi Patrick:

I wanted to read back over our research notes for constructing that timeline.

We wanted to differentiate between appearances by MLK, Jr. and Sr. (as both, obviously, have presentations announced via newspaper). While not an exact science, MLK, Jr.--more often than not--was identified as from Crozer or Chester.

Sr. was almost always identified as "of Atlanta." Again, not an absolute measure, but our decisions were based on percentages of occurrence.

Make sense?

No, it makes no sense. Walter McCall preached at the same church the week prior, and was back at the church in 1952 with ML King. This is from Jan 6th, 1951.

Zion Baptist, Broadway and Atlantic avenue, the Rev. Lloyd A. Burrus: 11 a. m., sermon, "Which Way Shall We Go Up"? 1 p. m., school; 3.30, Holy Communion, the Rev. Walter McCall, of Crozer Theological Seminary, guest speaker; 6.30, young people.

We're not making a claim about McCall's traveling habits. The timeline was based on the propensity of newspapers to describe one King in one way and one King in another way.

There are identifiable trends.

Dear Patrick:

Attached please find one document and the link to a second (too large to send via email, so I'm sending via Dropbox).

The first is the final application Stockton submitted to the DEP; we initially applied in November, but the final scope of work was revised until January. That is the version I'm sending (as it was the final application). The contract itself was not finalized until the following August (all I can say is one state agency working with another state agency!).

Finally, I've included a link to the final report sent to the DEP last night (November 30, 2017) at 9:01pm:

Please let me know if you have any questions; I'll be interested in hearing your response.

Dear Patrick:

I received the request below this afternoon. I can comply, of course, but I also called Kate Marcopul to ask if it might be easier if I just sent you both the original application for Stockton's study as well as the final report.

Please know that I submitted the final report just last night (I'm happy to forward you the email by which I did so, which provides the date and time). This report also includes all transcribed interviews as appendices. I can send you the two audio files as well (what we transcribed is a verbatim transcription). Other interviews were done by email, and those are also appended.

I was going to send your interview, as well as that of Ms. Hunt to both of you, but first needed to submit to HPO as this is contracted work for hire. Again, this just happened yesterday.

I can send you both the application and final report today, if that would be helpful. Please let me know if this would satisfy the needs of your OPRA request.

I'm also happy to talk my phone. My work number is \(609\) 626-3529; [REDACTED].

Please check your files for records responsive to this request. If any are located, please forward a copy to me ASAP and no later than December 7. If you do not have any in your files, please respond

N.J.S. 47:1A-1.1.

Please provide all responsive records in full, without redaction or edits. I will review the record’s contents, and redact, where appropriate.

If that is all you are basing this in you are not considering all the facts. Fact, Walter McCall is listed as preaching one week prior. Fact, Lloyd Burrus is a friend of MLK Jr, not senior. In fact, I have several articles stating such.

So, since it didn't say ML King jr, is all you base your argument on...who than was Michael King, why did the papers call him Michael. By your logic, that could be someone else since it didn't say ML King Jr, correct?

Are you trying to claim that that McCall was travelling with Daddy King in 1952 as well?

I went to the church, the oral history of the church is well known that Dr. King preached there and used to frequent there, not his Father.

Sr. was almost always identified as "of Atlanta." Again, not an absolute measure, but our decisions were based on percentages of occurrence.

I do not see how you can conclude that it was the senior King preaching at the Camden Church? You also fail to mention his return to the same church in 1952 with Walter McCall. Why would Daddy King be travelling with McCall? That makes no sense. Also, McGann says it was King and McCall that didn't show up to the grand jury. Why not mention the conflicting stories?

Out of 20 articles found in the Chester Times, 10 use Jr., and 10 do not. 3 articles say he's from Atlanta. If you include the 3 clippings showing an M L King at Zion Baptist, than he is referred to without the Jr, more than he is with.

You haven't responded to the fact that McCall preached at Zion Baptist in Camden one week prior to the claim that Daddy King came up from Atlanta to preach the next week. Nor the buttressing fact that McCall and an "M L King" also visited the same church in 1952.

Dear Bob:

First, thank you for allowing the Stockton University team a few more days to assemble our proposal. It is attached to this email for your review and we look forward to hearing your response. It includes details about proposed team members and their qualifications, as well as a description of the scope of work, as proposed by the RFP, mapped on to our semester schedule for spring 2017. Finally, we've provided a cost estimate for the project.

I've appended brief CVs for each team member as well to provide a little more detail about the range of experience we would bring to this undertaking. I asked folks to be brief, however. We can provide full CVs if you prefer. It seems like a fascinating project, and we would love to be involved.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

Dear Ms. Nead:

Good morning. Your name was passed to me from the New York Office of Historical Preservation as someone who might assist my research team with identifying and accessing records held by CRCDS about Martin Luther King, Jr.'s, time at Crozer Theological Seminary, in Chester, Pennsylvania, between 1948 and 1951. NY OHP gave me your phone number, but I didn't want to call you out of the blue on such a thorny issue, so I am writing first.

I am currently directing a team of researchers working on a state grant through the New Jersey Office of Historic Preservation (NJOHP) to investigate the

Dear Dr. O'Hara,

We reviewed your request and, unfortunately, we do not have any of the documents or information you are requesting.

It is unlikely that all the records from Crozer Theological were transferred to our campus in Rochester after the merger. I also think it is unlikely that the types of records you are requesting would have been retained by Crozer for a long period of time, although we do not have information related to their document retention practices. We will be certain to contact you should we come across anything that would be helpful to your efforts.

There are Crozer graduates who may be able to speak to the general policies during their time at the school. Should you wish to speak with them, please let me know and we can discuss how to proceed.

I am sorry we are not able to assist you in this effort. We wish you all the best.

Ok. Thanks, John. We will put out a notice to some of our Crozer alums and encourage them to be in contact with you directly via e-mail. There are still living graduates from that time period, but not too many.

I was just down at the old Crozer campus last week. It was sad to see the old buildings in various states of disrepair. I appreciate your efforts to help preserve the physical places related to Dr. King's legacy.

Dear Tom:

Thank you very much for your response. This research has been difficult because we are looking for something we don't know is "there," in fact. Our report would benefit from any piece of the puzzle we can put together. For example, if we learned about dormitory policies, it would show a comprehensive effort, even if we learn little.

Contacts for any alumnae from that era who would be willing to correspond with me would be much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Hello Dr. O'Hara.

We spoke sometime ago regarding the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his connections to south jersey. I see that you are part of the group doing the research for the DEP. I was hoping to help with the project if I could? I have three living witnesses that place Dr. King at the home, one lived there with him, the other visited the home while he lived there, and the third on Dr. King told in the early 60's that he used to live in Camden.

Please send me any updates or new information you may find. I would love to get together with you to explain the timeline and narrative that I have been working on.

Hello Dr. O'Hara.

We spoke sometime ago regarding the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his connections to south jersey. I see that you are part of the group doing the research for the DEP. I was hoping to help with the project if I could? I have three living witnesses that place Dr. King at the home, one lived there with him, the other visited the home while he lived there, and the third on Dr. King told in the early 60's that he used to live in Camden.

Please send me any updates or new information you may find. I would love to get together with you to explain the timeline and narrative that I have been working on.

Thanks,
Patrick Duff

Off to a meeting. I realized I'd composed the email below last night around 11pm, but never hit send. Duh.

I've been able to get through a couple more pages this morning (through 12), so in case this reaches you in time, see attached. I'll have a window from 9-10:30am today as well.

Mrs. Hunt and Thelma do not get along very well and Thelma owns that other home next door to 753 Walnut Street. Thelma was living in 753 at the time King was living there. She was actually married in 1952 <https://www.newspapers.com/clip/9105743/hunt/>

I think I will call her tomorrow to see if she'll help, unless one of you wants to try her? I think that may work. She was a bit reluctant to talk to me at first, so she may let her guard down for one of you after you let her know what you are doing. I think she just doesn't want to talk to reporters and city officials.

I will be filming a documentary in the next couple of weeks about the project and it could really add to the narrative.

She has already worried the very day light out of me by long distance phone calls and a host of letters. So, instead of continuing that support, I have cut it off already. Never do I expect to help in any fashion. Man, [Name deleted] will harass me to death if I give her the least o' consideration. Hate to take that attitude, but I think I am wise in so doing.

A site of a building or structure no longer standing would qualify if the person or event associated with it is of transcendent importance in the nation's history and the association is consequential.

The nomination must demonstrate that the person or event associated with the site of a building or structure no longer standing is of a level of national significance greater than that which would ordinarily qualify a person or event to be nationally significant. In addition, that association to the property must be demonstrated to have been consequential rather than a connection that was incidental and of little impact on either the event or the reason for the person to be considered of exceptional national significance. That building no longer standing is the Café that was torn down even though local historians tried to save it. Want to hear something ironic, they never did the road project they "needed" to tear it down for. So what other structure is not only connected to Dr. King, but also his first civil right struggle?

I forgot to tell you, an author who was writing a book about the early years of King actually changed his book quite a bit and says some more info will come out with the book about Camden. His name is Patrick Parr and the book is the seminarian.

Good afternoon, Michelle,

I am just checking in to confirm our attendance at tomorrow's meeting with the Stockton University Research Team. Bob Craig, Doug McVarish, Andrea Tingey, and I will be attending the meeting from the Historic Preservation Office. I understand from your earlier e-mail that we will be meeting in the Provost Office's conference room (K201d on the campus map) tomorrow at 2:30pm.

As I noted in an earlier e-mail, we will be arriving on campus in two cars. I understand that we will need parking passes for the cars. Judging from the online campus map, I presume that we should stop at the Visitor parking Check-in upon our arrival in order to make sure that we have the proper parking passes, and are parking in the proper locations. If this is incorrect, and there is something else that we need to do, please let me know.

We look forward to meeting with you tomorrow. I will be at a meeting out of the office tomorrow morning. If any issues arise tomorrow or you would like to discuss any of the arrangements in more detail, you are welcome to call my cell phone at (609) 422-6383. You are also welcome to contact Andrea Tingey at (609) 984-0539 or Bob Craig at (609) 984-0541.

Sincerely,
Kate

I wouldn't mind meeting briefly before they arrive. I know John teaches until 2pm tomorrow. Should we three convene in the K201 conference room at 2pm? That would give us half an hour to compare thoughts before the HPO folks arrive?

Good afternoon, Michelle,

I am just checking in to confirm our attendance at tomorrow's meeting with the Stockton University Research Team. Bob Craig, Doug McVarish, Andrea Tingey, and I will be attending the meeting from the Historic Preservation Office. I understand from your earlier e-mail that we will be meeting in the Provost Office's conference room (K201d on the campus map) tomorrow at 2:30pm.

As I noted in an earlier e-mail, we will be arriving on campus in two cars. I understand that we will need parking passes for the cars. Judging from the online campus map, I presume that we should stop at the Visitor parking Check-in upon our arrival in order to make sure that we have the proper parking passes, and are parking in the proper locations. If this is incorrect, and there is something else that we need to do, please let me know.

We look forward to meeting with you tomorrow. I will be at a meeting out of the office tomorrow morning. If any issues arise tomorrow or you would like to discuss any of the arrangements in more detail, you are welcome to call my cell phone at (609) 422-6383. You are also welcome to contact Andrea Tingey at (609) 984-0539 or Bob Craig at (609) 984-0541.

Sincerely,
Kate

Evening, gentlemen.

I've only gotten through page 11, but what I have is attached. It's rough-ish. All thoughts welcome.

I'm also building the bibliography (that will be done tomorrow along with, knock on wood, a reworked methodology section).

More when I have it.

Subject: Timeline

Timeline of 1945-1961

- September of 1945: King starts his schooling at Morehouse college after graduating from High School at the age of 15.
- 1945, date unknown: McCall gives King a haircut but King forgot his money. This caused a wrestling match between the two where King bested McCall, causing McCall to gain respect for the younger and smaller King, and they soon became best friends. For years to come they were known as "Mac and Mike".
- May of 1948, Morehouse College: King and McCall graduate from college and both decide to go to Crozer Theological Seminary, in Upland, PA. King's Father bestows upon his son a Brand new Cadillac to drive himself and McCall to Crozer.
- June of 1948, Haverford College: King and fellow Morehouse Graduate, June Butts work with Dr. Ira Dea Reid learning interview techniques. They later travelled around the south and interviewed black preachers during the summer months.
- September of 1948, Crozer and 753 Walnut: King starts his first semester as a student at Crozer. One semester later he is joined by McCall. Most biographers thought McCall stayed in Atlanta and followed King after needing to save enough money for tuition, which is half true. Instead, McCall was staying at 753 Walnut Street and working in Camden, NJ as a substitute teacher to save money.
- 1948, Camden School District, date yet unknown: Walter McCall interview with Herbert Homes: McCall states that "I worked for three months in the public school system in Camden, NJ" This shows that McCall was staying in Camden in 1948 and that he was not in the Atlanta area as has been previously written in the history books. Thelma "Hunt", Daughter of Benjamin Hunt, says that McCall worked as a substitute teacher in the Camden Schools.
- 1948, 753 Walnut Street in Camden, Quotes by Benjamin Hunt, Lily Hunt and Thelma Lawrey: All report King and McCall as staying at 753 Walnut off and on for about 2 years.
- October of 1949, Zion Baptist Church in Camden:, date yet unknown, Courier Post article: King's Crozer classmate, Rev. LLOYD Burrus, becomes pastor at Zion Baptist Church.
- Spring of 1950, date yet unknown: Dr. King hears Mordecai Johnson, who is said to be one of the most prolific orators of the 20th century, speak in Philadelphia at a fellowship house meeting, after the speech Dr. King went out and bought every book on Gandhi and his techniques of nonviolence that he could find. In these teachings he would learn about such things as "sit ins", an idea that he would soon employ in his own life, and other forms of nonviolent resistance.

- May of 1950, Crozer: King and McCall complete their second year of seminary school. It was mentioned in the Philadelphia Tribune article that King and McCall were staying in the area after the school year for the summer to work on a project with Dr. Ira Dea Reid at Haverford College.
- June 11th, 1950 Mary's Cafe Sunday night: King, McCall, Pearl E. Smith and Doris Wilson walk into Mary's Cafe around 11:30 pm. Pearl, Doris and King all took a seat while McCall went up to the bar and asked for 1, or 2 quarts of beer and 4 glasses. The Bartender, Ernest Nichols, rudely responded, "NO BEER". King began to question Nichols as to whether he wasn't serving them based on their color, so Nichols responded by saying it's illegal to sell packaged goods on a Sunday after 10 pm, and a quart of beer was considered packaged goods. So McCall, armed with this new bit of information, walks back up to the bar and says that he wants 4 beers or 4 Ginger Ales, Nichols asks them to leave and they decided to perform a sit in. Nichols loses it and begins to yell at King and his group. A couple of white college students from Penn tried to calm down Nichols and have them served, but Nichols goes back to his apartment and grabs a gun. He returns to the bar where King and his group were still seated. He points the 45 in McCall's face and orders them out but they still refused to leave. Nichols takes one step out the front door and fires the gun off a couple of times into the air and screams "I'll Kill for Less". At this point, with their lives being threatened, the four leave the bar and go to the Maple Shade police station.
- June 11th 11:45 pm: Maple Shade Police Station: King and the group go to the police station to file charges. Pearl Smith is quoted as saying "we attempted to prefer charges". My belief is the police refused to prefer charges, causing Dr. King to reach out for some help. Benjamin Hunt is quoted as saying that "It was King's idea to call a doctor who was very active in civil rights", and that doctor was Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins. Hunt also said that they got locked up that night, which could have been the reason why Wiggins left his home in the middle of the night. Wiggins was one of the people responsible for helping to make sure that the newly drafted NJ Constitution, which was implemented in 1947, included a section making refusal of service based upon color illegal.
- June 12th, 1950 12:45 am: Maple Shade Police Station: President of the Camden NAACP comes to help King and the group prefer charges. King is said to have been introduced to Wiggins by Lloyd Burrus, a fellow Classmate of King and McCall at Crozer and the pastor at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, which was only blocks from Dr. Wiggins house, and also a place that King preached at several times. A complaint is filed for the refusal of service, some one hour and 15 minutes after the incident occurred. The interesting part of the actual complaint was the charge was originally written "Refusal to serve alcoholic beverage in public place", but the word "alcoholic" was later crossed out, most likely by the magistrate judge. This is interesting because the very complaint itself was attempting to incriminate King and his group by saying they were trying to buy alcohol on a Sunday after 10. Another interesting part of the complaint was the address that King listed as his home, which was 753 Walnut St. Camden, NJ. Which we now know was his part time residence while he attended Crozer. We also know that classes had ended at Crozer for over a month at this point in June, so it's safe to assume that he was staying at the address he listed on the sworn police complaint at that time.
- June 12th, 1950 later in the morning, Maple Shade Municipal Court: The restaurant owner, Ernest Nichols, appears before Judge Percy Charlton with his attorney Thomas McGann. McGann asks for a continuation and the hearing is postponed till Thursday night, June, 15th.

- June 15th, 1950 Thursday night, Maple Shade municipal court house: A formal complaint is made against Nichols for brandishing a weapon, using obscene language and refusal of service. Ernest Nichols is held on $500 bail by Judge Charlton on for the refusal charge and found guilty on the brandishing a weapon and obscene language charges and paid a $50 fine. The refusal charge is sent to the Grand Jury for further proceedings. King and McCall are represented by Robert Burk Johnson who is assisted by Ulysses S. Wiggins. Three white witnesses testify on behalf of King and his group, saying they tried to calm down Nichols and have them served. This shows that the white people were being served at the same time he refused to serve King and the group, otherwise, why would they ask King's group be served?
- June 16th, 1950, Claymont DE: King is arrested for speeding in Claymont Delaware on his way to his Brother's wedding. His brother's wedding was on the next day, so King was rushing back to make sure he was there, especially considering he was the best man.
- June 17th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the Maple Shade situation. King is listed as Michael King. Other articles from the same time period about King have his name listed as Martin Luther King Jr., or M.L. King Jr, but this clearly states his name as Michael, why? The article also states they were being helped by Dr. Wiggins, who they were introduced to through LLOYD Burrus.
- June 20th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the maple shade incident where King is listed again as, Michael.
- Unknown date: Camden NAACP filed a lawsuit against the restaurant owner for discrimination. I believe this was done to gain some leverage because McCall faced being indicted too for trying to buy what could be considered packaged goods on a Sunday after 10pm.
- July 1st, 1950: Baltimore Afro American article about the incident. King is mysteriously left out of the article. Dr. Ulysses Wiggins is quoted at saying "Our organization expects to launch a drive soon against public places which refuse accommodations solely on the basis of race and color". Wiggins would later go on to lead a drive in the Southern NJ area to help desegregate places of public accommodation. Proving that this event was not just significant to King as a person, but also to southern NJ as a catalyst.
- August 28th, 1950, Burlington County Detectives office, Mount Holly NJ: Pearl Smith gives an interview to Burlington County Chief Detective, Clifford D. Cain, and in doing so she incriminates McCall by saying he was trying to buy "one, or two quarts of beer, and four glasses", and admitting it was a Sunday after 10 pm. She also tells the story of what happened inside Mary's cafe that night. Pearl, who was listed in all of the articles found about her as Mrs. Pearl Smith, was a police woman at the time, and would have known that her statement incriminated McCall. Interestingly, Detective Cain was under an investigation of his own for looking the other way on a Casino that operated out of Maple Shade for many years until it was busted right around the same time of this incident.
- Date unknown, place unknown: A short while after Pearl gives the statement, the case is dropped by King and McCall, and they all walk away. McCall says the case was thrown out when three white witnesses refused to testify, King says that it was two white witnesses. McGann says that it was King and McCall that refused to show up. McCall also said in that King and himself couldn't act as their own plaintiff and defense at the grand jury, which shows that they were also facing being charged at the grand jury. Was it that the white students who originally testified on their behalf did not show up, as King and McCall said? Or was it King and McCall who decided to not risk being indicted at the grand jury and walked away? It being 1950, and them being African American's, it was probably best not to take that chance.
