Detective Magnus:

The email thread which I had with Rebecca will be forwarded separately. She does acknowledge that she owes the adoption fees of about $7,700.

As far as how Coalition for Animals (CFA) became involved, I have attached our Bylaws below. They were modified as required by the State of NJ in March 2023. Those specific changes are highlighted in YELLOW. Sections 14 and 15 are the most relevant to why CFA had to take action due to Rebecca's activities. Normally, our subunits operate autonomously as stated in Section 14. Also, Section 12 may be relevant to Rebecca as she did not disclose her conflicts of interest to Lynn or CFA.

Lynn says that she wants to come in with me to meet with you on Thursday at 10:30 AM. Is this time still good for you?

I look forward to meeting you in person.

Good Morning,

I am one of the detective's conducting the investigation into Rebecca Halbach. I have previously met with Lynn Mangano who pointed me towards you as you may have information that can assist us in our investigation. We are looking to charge Halbach with several additional charges including theft, fraud and identity theft and I would the opportunity to speak with you. Please give me a call to schedule a time for you to come in.

Thank you,

Detective Joseph Magnus #22162
