Description of Incident:

Lifeguards had multiple conversations with him regarding the rules of the diving board. He was continuously double bouncing. Renee, Delia, and Brian spoke with him. He yelled back at them, cursing and yelling "bullshit." 2 different parents came to me complaining about the language he was using around the kids on the diving board. I spoke to him about following the rules and watching his language. He said he could say whatever he wanted. Continued to use inappropriate language and be disrespectful to myself and lifeguards. Cops were called and he was asked to leave for the day.
