NARRATIVE

Patrols were dispatched to 58 Hancock St for the residents to speak to an officer regarding water leaking into their residence. Upon arrival, I spoke with Baira Chernov, who invited me into the residence to see where the water was seeping in. I observed the carpet, padding and cement underneath to be wet at the shared wall between their residence and 56 Hancock. I advised Mrs. Chernov I would attempt to make contact with the occupants of 56 Hancock to see if the source of the water was coming from their residence.

I was able to make contact with an occupant who provided me access to 56 Hancock St. I was allowed to check the areas around the shared wall, one space being the utility room. I observed a small amount of moisture on the floor in the area of the forced air system, however, it was not as much water as I had observed in 58 Hancock. After determining there was not any obvious water leak in 56 Hancock, I excused myself from the residence.

I advised Mr. Chernov of my findings in the home next door and that any issues of property damage would be civil in nature, however, my observations would be documented.

No further patrol action at this time.
