NARRATIVE

On 11/10/21, at 1500 hours, patrols were dispatched to 56 Hancock Street for a noise complaint. The caller wished to stay anonymous and did not want to speak to an officer. Upon arrival, patrols stood by out front listening for noise. The complaint was the resident was drumming. There was no sound at the time of my arrival. I attempted to make contact at the residence. I spoke with Jahmere Holliday, he stated he was playing the drums. I advised him that patrols received complaints of the drumming and that's why we were on location. Patrols advised Mr. Holliday because playing the drums in a townhome where the neighbors are connected, to make sure the windows are closed and to get some sound deafening acoustics for the walls. This would help with the noise. Mr. Holliday advised he was done for the day. No further action.
