PUBLIC RECORDS REQUEST RESPONSE

The Camden County Prosecutor's Office received your original OPRA request via opramachine to AP William Staas on July 17, 2023 which read:

Dear Camden County Prosecutor's Office,

This is a request for public records made under OPRA and the common law right of access. I am not required to fill out an official form. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.

Records requested:

practice procedures Animal Control

Yours faithfully,

Tina Dace

The Camden County Prosecutor's Office requested clarification of your request for "practice procedures Animal Control" and on July 18, 2023 received a response from you which read:

Dear Camden County Prosecutor's Office,

This is a request for public records made under OPRA and the common law right of access. I am not required to fill out an official form. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.

Records requested:

any literature on statues ordinances, legalities on behalf of the owner and also the legalities of the animal control officer and their reach of authority. Including and not limited to procedures for seizing animals.

Yours faithfully,

Tina Dace

The Camden County Prosecutor's Office objects to this request for the following reasons:

1. OPRA does not authorize a party to make a blanket request for "every document" or "all" documents. Bent v. Township of Stafford Police Dept., Custodian of Records, 381 N.J. Super. 30, 37, 39 (App. Div. 2005). The requestor's obligation is to specifically describe the document sought; the request may not be a broad, generic description of documents because the custodian is not required to speculate about what the requestor seeks, nor survey agency employees regarding the request. Bart v. Passaic Cnty. Pub. Hous. Agency, 406 N.J. Super. 445, 451-52 (App. Div. 2009).

A request for "any literature" is overbroad and generic and requires speculation as to what you are specifically seeking. Additionally, the lack of timeframe is also overbroad.

2. Records custodians are required to search their files for responsive records, but not to conduct any research on behalf of the requestor. See Donato v.

Tp of Union, GRC Complaint No. 2005-182, Analysis (February 28, 2007). However, custodians have no obligation to create responsive records. N.J. Builders Assoc., supra, 390 N.J. Super. at 171; Librizzi v. Tp of Verona Police Department, GRC Complaint No. 2009-213, Analysis (August 24, 2010). OPRA does not force government officials to identify and siphon useful information on behalf of the requestor, nor does it compel them to review, analyze, collate and/or compile data or statistics. N.J. Builders Assoc. v. N.J. Council on Affordable Housing, 390 N.J. Super. 166, 177 (App. Div. 2007), certif. denied, 190 N.J. 394 (2007); MAG Entertainment, supra, 375 N.J. Super. at 548-49; Reda, supra, GRC Complaint No. 2002-58, Analysis.

The Camden County Prosecutor's Office objects to your request as it requires analysis of "statutes, ordinances, legalities on behalf of the owner and also the legalities of the animal control officer and their reach of authority".

3. The Camden County Prosecutor's Office objects to this request as overly broad and/or unclear as it fails to name specifically identifiable government records and requires research beyond the scope of a custodian's duties pursuant to MAG Entertainment, LLC v. Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, 375 N. J. Super. 534, 546 (App. Div. 2005), Bent v. Stafford Police Department, 381 N.J. Super. 30, 37 (App. Div. 2005), New Jersey Builders Association v. New Jersey Council on Affordable Housing, 390 N. J. Super. 166, 180 (App. Div. 2007), and Schuler v. Borough of Bloomsbury, GRC Complaint No. 2007-151 (February 2009). See also Toscano v. NJ Department of Labor, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services, GRC Complaint No. 2010-293 (March 2012), Elcavage v. West Milford Township (Passiac), GRC Complaint No. 2009-08 (April 2010), and Wolosky v. Township of Randolph (Morris), GRC Complaint No. 2010-244 (February 2012).

A request for "any literature" is overbroad and generic and requires speculation as to what documents you are specifically seeking. Furthermore, the OPRA custodian is not required to make an analysis of information.

4. The Camden County Prosecutor's Office has no documents responsive to your request as to "Including but not limited to procedures for seizing animals.

The Camden County Prosecutor's Office also reserves the right to raise any other ground for denial not raised in this response. The failure of the Camden County Prosecutor's Office to assert an exception or privilege does not act as a waiver of any ground for denial.

You have a right to appeal the decision that the document or documents are not public records. You may take your appeal to the Public Records Council or to the New Jersey Superior Court as provided by N.J.S.A. 47:1A-6 and -7.
