Case #: 2016-46050

Location: Cr 559 / Elwood Rd

Incident Date & Time: 11/22/2016 17:06

Charge: 39:4-50

DWI Summons #: E16 9047

Alcotest Machine Used: ALCOTEST 7110 MKIII-C

Defendant: Nicholas Pagano

Sex: Male

Race: White

Officer: Officer L. Murray #95

1. OPERATION OF THE MOTOR VEHICLE: I did not see the vehicle in operation.

2. AT THE SCENE: The accused, Nicholas Pagano, fled from the motor vehicle crash and was followed by a local off duty volunteer fire fighter where he was observed entering the wooded area. Pagano was subsequently located hiding in the woods after being tracked by the Township of Hamilton K-9 Unit. (see K-9 report) Pagano was detained by the Mullica Township Police Department who were on scene assisting in the search and he was turned over to me. Pagano had no shoes on which were left at the scene of the crash. As Pagano was turned over to me he became excited and said, "look at my car, I was in that shit, Dude". Pagano was showing signs of being under the influence of an unknown narcotic, specifically by having erratic movements and outbursts followed by paranoia. Pagano's eyes were watery and bloodshot. Pagano rambled on incoherently while yelling sporadically. I handcuffed Pagano behind his back (D/L and checked) and he was searched incident to arrest. Pagano was placed in the rear of my patrol vehicle while I continued my crash investigation. I observed small scratches to Pagano's arms and face area from the thick thorn bushes in which he was hiding in. I asked Pagano if he required an ambulance for his injuries in which he stated, "Yeah, Dude". I requested an ambulance meet us at the station.

Sgt Robell searched Pagano's vehicle and located a glass smoking bowl in the glove box which contained suspected marijuana.

Due to Pagano being in custody and acting erratic I was unable to perform any Standardized Field Sobriety Test's. These tests were later conducted by Ofc Blose as apart of the DRE Evaluation. (see Ofc Blose report for further)

3. EN ROUTE TO THE STATION: Pagano continued to yell sporadically and incoherently while transporting him to the station. 4. AT THE STATION: Pagano was treated by members of the HT Rescue Squad. Pagano refused treatment and transportation by them stating he was fine. Pagano was read his Miranda Warning in which he stated he understood and would answer my questions. Pagano was read the Standardized Statement Form and I asked if he would consent to the taking of breath samples for the purpose of making chemical tests to determine the content of alcohol in his blood. He replied, "Yes, I can do it". He did not have anything in his mouth, or electronic devices on his person. Dispatch was asked the time and at 18:29 hours I started a 20 minute observation period. During this time I asked Pagano what drugs he ingested today. Pagano said he was going to cooperate and tell me what is going on. Pagano started by saying he was sorry for what happened and did not mean to cause the damage he did. Pagano continued by telling me that he was just hired as an RN at Inspira Hospital and wanted to party with his friends in Hammonton. Pagano explained that he purchased $40 worth of Gummies which were laced with THC (Tetrahydrocannabinol) and he ate two of them while at the friends house. Pagano explained that he felt like something was wrong so he left the unnamed friends house in the Hammonton area and began to drive towards Mays Landing on Weymouth Rd. Pagano explained that while he was driving he began to panic. Pagano explained he then became paranoid due to the narcotics and began to drive as fast as he could as he felt someone or something was after him. Pagano explained that he laid down in his vehicle while it was traveling at the high rate of speed and he crashed. Pagano explained that he thought he hit a tree and was unsure if he hit another vehicle. Pagano explained that after his vehicle came to a stop he was in the back seat of his vehicle. Pagano explained that he exited his vehicle under his own power and began to run away. Pagano explained that he remembered he had two more gummies in his vehicle so he returned to his car to get the gummies. Once Pagano located the gummies he explained that he threw them into the woods (which was witnessed by the victims of the motor vehicle crash) so he would not get caught with them. Pagano explained that after he threw the narcotics he then ran away from the scene and hid in the woods. I maintained constant visual on Pagano. Nothing entered his mouth and he did not belch or vomit. At 18:50 hours I was advised the twenty minute observation period was over. I advised Ofc Blose and he escorted Pagano to the Alcotest room. Murray arrived on location with prisoner Nicholas J. Pagano. Pagano was escorted into the processing room by Ofc. Murray. Ofc. Murray requested I assist him by operating the Alcotest Machine. I was in the processing room with Ofc. Murray when he advised me that his twenty minute observation period had lapsed. I ensured all electronics, including my portable radio and personal cellphone, had been removed from my person and left in the processing room. I did the same for Pagano. I requested Pagano open his mouth and lift his tongue. I confirmed that he had nothing in his mouth. Pagano and I walked out of the processing room and into the Alcotest Room. I maintained a constant uninterrupted visual of Pagano during this time. Pagano sat in the chair directly next to Alcotest Machine #2. During this time, Pagano did not vomit, belch, or place anything in his mouth. I then entered the necessary information into the Alcotest Machine, serial number ARXA-0065. Pagano then provided two proper breath samples, rendering a reading of 0.00% B.A.C. I read him the instructions before each breath sample as posted on the wall above the machine. I also used a new mouthpiece for each breath sample. Once completed I escorted Pagano back to the processing room and turned him back over to Ofc. Murray.

OBSERVATIONS AT THE SCENE: V1 was facing south in traffic in the intersection of 559 and Elwood Rd suspended on a guardrail over a creek with major damage to the front and rear of the vehicle. V2 was approximately 40 yards south past V1 into the wooded area facing north with total vehicle damage from the vehicle overturning.
