IN-ROADS

Item I motion that the Board President be authorized to enter into an agreement in the name of the Board with Educational In-Roads to terminate the existing contract for the provision of Chapter 1 services as to the St. Dominic's School only as a condition of the payment of any sums owing to Educational In-Roads for services rendered during the 1986-87 school year.

At the conclusion of the presentation of the Agenda, Mr. Roblenski mentioned to the Board Members and members of the audience that the Board has received much support for their Resolution on Impact Aid from the Township and other school districts. There have been many phone calls received from senior citizen groups and the Ocean County School Board President is offering support.

One question was asked from the audience regarding the number of sixth grades to be at Veterans Memorial Middle School. Mr. Wolf said the number would be the same as last year.
