PRE-AGENDA
MINUTES

Motion was made by Mr. Stites, with a request to speak concerning these minutes after the second, seconded by Mrs. Russell to approve the amended minutes of June 29, 1989. After the second was made, Mr. Stites expressed his concern regarding the Open Public Meetings Act. He was not sure if the amendment would cover his concern. He paraphrased the article which covers his concern as whenever a Board member feels the Sunshine Act has been violated, it is his obligation to state such and to be recorded in the minutes and the reasons that he feels the Sunshine Law has been violated. Mr. Collins had referred him to another part of that article, however he feels that is not binding in as DISCUSSION
