FOR SELECTION OF CURRICULUM MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

Policy

It is the policy of the Board to provide instructional materials and equipment that will enrich and support the educational program, taking into consideration the varied interests, abilities, and maturity levels of the pupils served.

The responsibility for final approval and purchase of instructional materials and equipment by law is vested in the Board. The Board, however, delegates to the staff the responsibility of reviewing and recommending for purchase the materials and equipment to be used in the instructional program. In reviewing and recommending materials and equipment, the staff shall take cognizance of the needs of the students and the objectives of the program.

It shall be the responsibility of each principal to see that staff members are afforded the opportunity to participate in the reviewing and recommendation of instructional materials and equipment.
