Can you send me the denial from Glenn to the ATC application. If the shop isn't within 1000 feet then i don't see a problem with it. He pisses me off sometimes

I want to see what law he cited for the denial

It's not Glenn's fault
He was right in doing it
He consulted with Greg and Darren

True.
I hear ya

Okay great

Problem also isn't with his interpretation, it's a problem with the state not clarifying the state and federal guidelines

Or at least not advising

And so the safe option, consistent with what the state is doing, is to put the onus back on them. February 8, 2019 at 11:36:56 AM UTC-5 can do what they do

The reason there's also ambiguity is because, police gave us this example, when they're charging someone with possession, they up the charge for violation of drug free zones so long as the property line is in it even if the physical violation is outside of the zone

I hear ya and understand
