AFFIDAVIT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

- A. On Saturday, October 19, 2019, Brick Township Police responded to [REDACTED] following a 9-1-1 call placed at 2336 hours by Justin Desiderio. Desiderio reported hearing shots fired in the parking lot of the complex.
- B. Upon arrival, police made contact with seven (7) male parties, four (4) of which are juveniles, at [REDACTED]. Police subsequently identified J'Quill Johnson (DOB: [REDACTED]) inside of said apartment with an apparent gunshot wound to the leg. Johnson was transported to Jersey Shore University Medical Center where he was treated for his injuries.
- C. On Sunday, October 21, 2019, at approximately 0001 hours, Detective Mitchell, of the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office, was directed to respond to [REDACTED] by Detective Sergeant Brian Haggerty to assist with the investigation. Detective Mitchell arrived on scene at approximately 0031 hours and was briefed on the known facts by Detective Greg Mullarkey of the Brick Township Police Department.
- D. In short, Detective Mitchell was advised that the seven (7) individuals were walking in the parking lot toward the apartment located at [REDACTED] when a vehicle pulled into the lot and approached the group. The vehicle slowed down as it passed the group of males and subsequently fired approximately five (5) rounds into the group of males, striking Johnson in the leg.
- E. Detective Cooney, of the Brick Township Police Department responded to Jersey Shore Medical Center to speak with the victim. Detective Cooney attempted to speak with Johnson in the presence of his parents. Detective Cooney advised that his interview did not produce any information to assist in the investigation as Johnson was uncooperative and unwilling to provide any details, suspects or vehicles he may have seen prior to being shot.
- F. Detective Mitchell and Detective Mullarkey spoke with juvenile Luis Rivas at [REDACTED] in reference to the incident. Rivas stated that he resides at [REDACTED]. Rivas related that the group was at a party earlier in the evening in Long Branch, New Jersey. On their way home from the party they stopped at Country Farms and subsequently found the store to be closed. The group then left Country Farms and drove back to [REDACTED] where Rivas stated he resides. While walking toward the apartment located at [REDACTED] a vehicle approached them and began firing toward the group. They realized that Johnson was struck in the leg and waited for first aid arrival inside of the apartment. Rivas was unable to describe the suspect vehicle or the occupant(s).

- G. Detective Mullarkey asked Rivas if he knew of anyone that would want to hurt them or that would be capable of committing such an act to which Rivas replied "No." Detective Mullarkey then asked Rivas that if he did know who shot at them or who would be trying to hurt them if he would provide said information to the police. Rivas replied "No."
- H. Detective Mitchell subsequently spoke with Emanuel Ventura (DOB: [REDACTED]), Nkosi Jones (DOB: [REDACTED]) and juveniles Alonzo Legrande, [REDACTED] in reference to the aforementioned incident. Said individuals were unwilling to provide any additional information in regards to the events that occurred and who may have shot at them.
- I. Alonzo Legrande stated that he currently resides at [REDACTED]. This is the same address Alonzo Legrande provided to Asbury Park Police in May of 2019. Emanuel Ventura stated that he currently resides at [REDACTED].
- J. Alonzo Legrande can be described as a heavyset black male, approximately six (6) feet two (2) inches tall with an afro style haircut. LUIS RIVAS can be described as a thin Hispanic male with pale complexion, approximately five (5) feet ten (10) inches tall with short dark in color hair.
- K. Detective Ralph Laudicina of the Ocean County Sheriff's Office, Crime Scene Investigations, responded to photograph and process the scene. Detective Laudicina collected approximately four (4) 9mm shell casings in the roadway on [REDACTED].
- L. Detective Mitchell was advised that there was video surveillance of the area located at [REDACTED]. Detective Mitchell subsequently went to [REDACTED] and spoke with Thomas Brennan, the occupant of the apartment. Brennan showed Detective Mitchell and officers from the Brick Township Police Department video of the incident. Upon reviewing the video, Detective Mitchell was able to identify a male group walking across the parking lot toward [REDACTED]. Detective Mitchell was able to identify the group of males, based on their physical appearance and clothing, as being the same group of individuals Detective Mitchell spoke with at [REDACTED]. A vehicle is shown pulling into the parking lot and approaching the group of males. The vehicle slows down and drives passed the group and briefly come to a stop. The crowd is scene dispersing frantically, shortly thereafter, an individual is observed hopping on one leg and appears to be injured.

- M. Detective Mitchell was advised by Brick Police of an incident that occurred on Saturday, October 19, 2019, involving Tierra Jones, the mother of Nkosi Jones and her vehicle. Said incident involved Ms. Jones's Cadillac Escalade bearing New Jersey registration number [REDACTED]. The vehicle was vandalized while parked in front of Ms. Jones's residence at [REDACTED]. Detective Mitchell was advised that Tierra Jones informed Brick Township Police that Nkosi Jones's ex-girlfriend, Arlisha Randolph, was sending threatening messages to Nkosi via Facebook Messenger. Ms. Jones related that her son, Nkosi Jones, sent Ms. Jones a screenshot of said messages. Ms. Jones subsequently showed Brick Police Officers the screen shot of the messages on her cell phone.
- N. On Sunday, October 20, 2019, Detective Mitchell and Detective Mullarkey and the undersigned of the Brick Township Police Department responded to [REDACTED] to speak with Ms. Jones about the two incidents from October 19, 2019. Ms. Jones related that she received screenshots of messages between Nkosi and Arlisha from Nkosi. The two were apparently arguing via Facebook Messenger. Ms. Jones read Detective Mitchell a message sent from Arlisha Randolph to Nkosi Jones that stated "We on the way" and "I hope it was Louie that got shot."
- O. Detective Mitchell requested that Ms. Jones have Nkosi Jones come to the front door so we could speak with him. Jones stated that Arlisha texted him saying "Look at your mom's car." Jones subsequently showed Detective Mitchell the conversations between Arlisha Randolph and himself on his cell phone. Jones handed Detective Mitchell his cellular device to view the messages. Subsequent to seeing the messages, Detective Mitchell advised Jones that we would like to have his phone extracted. Detective Mitchell requested that Jones provide consent for us to perform the extraction to which he denied. Jones was advised that we would only be seeking information pertaining to this investigation. Jones subsequently stated "Everything in my phone pertains to this bro."

Lanes Mill Road. The vehicle is observed to have a crooked black license plate frame. The vehicle is observed travelling westbound on New York Avenue and stopping at the intersection at Lanes Mill Road. The vehicle slowly enters the intersection and subsequently begins to travel eastbound in reverse, coming to rest near 540 New York Avenue. The vehicle can be described as a gold in color Nissan sedan with apparent damage to the driver's side rear bumper. The vehicle then pulls off and drives northbound on Lanes Mill Road.

EE. A short time later, a thin male, possibly Hispanic with pale complexion, is observed running eastbound into the frame. Detective Mitchell was able to identify the male on the video as Luis Rivas. The individual is observed with his left hand in his sweatshirt pocket. Said male stops and turns around to travel westbound on New York Avenue. Shortly thereafter he is again observed running eastbound on New York Avenue with the right hand in his sweatshirt pocket appearing to be carrying something. The left hand appeared to be supporting the object from outside of the sweatshirt. The male is again observed wearing black pants, a black hooded sweat shirt and white low top sneakers with a Nike check mark on the side. Behind the aforementioned male, a heavysset black male with an afro style hair cut is seen walking in the roadway. Detective Mitchell recognized this male as Alonso Legrande. The male is described as a heavysset black male, clad in a sweatshirt with dark in color sleeves and a white front with the hood up and afro style hair protruding from the front of the hood, black pants and black shoes with a white base.

FF. On Wednesday, October 23, 2019, Detective Mitchell was forwarded information from Jessica Butts, of the New Jersey Regional Operations and Intelligence Center. Ms. Butts stated that she researched all of the individuals present for the shooting that occurred on October 19, 2019. Ms. Butts' research revealed that on June 26, 2019, Emanuel Ventura was ticketed in Long Branch in a beige 2003 Nissan Altima registered to Patti Soterio (DOB [REDACTED] of [REDACTED]). A DMV look up yielded a 2003 beige in color Nissan Altima bearing New Jersey Registration number [REDACTED] registered to Patti Soterio.

GG. Detective Janine Kaiser of the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office forwarded Detective Mitchell a Vigilant look up of the aforementioned vehicle. Said look up
