APPENDIX A

OCPO CASE NUMBER: 200500261

BTPD CASE NUMBER: 31290-19

1. On May 17th, 2020 at approximately 1144 hours, the Brick Township Police Department received a 9-1-1 call from a Michael Stallworth, advising that a female located at 28 Creek Road in Brick, NJ was unresponsive. Police responded and found a female, later identified as Rebeca Gavilanez Alectus, laying in the upstairs bedroom on the "one side" of the residence. The female was not breathing, and significant trauma could be seen to the left side of her head and a large quantity of blood on the bed and walls. A cylindrical container was observed near the body, covered in blood. The victim was pronounced deceased at 1614 hours by Dr. Poco of JFK Hospital through medic unit 2493.
2. It was learned through field interviews that the victim was in a relationship with a Mayra Gavilanez Alectus, and that the two have been involved in verbal altercations while they were in Ecuador in the recent weeks. Both the decedent and Mayra were known to reside together at 28 Creek Road in Brick, NJ.
3. Based on the previous information, telephonic search warrants were sought and granted by the Honorable Michael T. Collins, Judge of the Superior Court of Ocean County. The warrants obtained were for the search of the residence, 28 Creek Road in Brick, NJ, common area including two sets of dumpsters located in the community, and for the real time GPS location and historical location data for the cellular phone belonging to Mayra Gavilanez Alectus, specifically T-Mobile telephone facility number [REDACTED]
4. The physical location information for telephone facility number [REDACTED] was returned from T-Mobile support and showed that the cellular phone was not currently powered on. The search showed that that number, believed to belong to Mayra Gavilanez Alectus, made several calls on May 16th and May 17th. One number that was called was determined to belong to a travel agent.

5. The New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission database was used to obtain pedigree information and a photograph of Myra J. Gavilanez-Alectus. NJ Motor Vehicle Commission also showed that Myra Gavilanez-Alectus operated a 2005 Red Chrysler Pacifica bearing NJ registration [REDACTED]
6. On May 17, 2020, Det. Steinberg and Det. Carroll obtained a digitally recorded statement from an OD'Amuo Alectus at the Brick Township Police Department. In brief, OD' Amuo advised that he is the brother to the decedent. OD'Amuo advised he received a telephone call in the morning hours on May 17, 2020 from his mother, Mezanie, in reference to her not being able to get in contact with the decedent. OD'Amuo advised that he then attempted to contact the decedent via telephone and was unable to make contact. OD'Amuo stated he then called Francia Villacis-Gavilanez, the daughter to Mayra Gavilanez, in attempt to make contact with the decedent. After doing so, OD'Amuo responded to the decedent's residence at 28 Creek Road. Upon arrival, he observed the Brick Township Police Department at the said residence, wherein he then learned the decedent was deceased.
7. On May 17, 2020, Det. Steinberg and Det. Carroll obtained a digitally recorded statement from Francia Villacis-Gavilanez at the Brick Township Police Department. In brief, Francia advised she received a telephone call from OD'Amuo stating they could not get in contact with the decedent. Francia then attempted to contact her mother, Mayra, via call and text messaging. Francia advised she was unable to make contact and decided to respond to the residence at 28 Creek Road. Francia was accompanied by her boyfriend, Michael Stallworth. Upon arrival, Francia stated they knocked on the front and back doors and received no answer. They observed the front window to be open. Stallworth made entry into the residence by removing the screen and climbing through the opening. He unlocked the front door and let Francia inside the residence. They walked upstairs to the second floor and observed a female laying in the bed of the master bedroom. They observed what appeared to be blood everywhere in the bedroom. They then called 911 from Stallworth's cellular telephone number [REDACTED]

8. Francia further stated that she and her mother, the suspect, have joint bank accounts. The TD bank information for the accounts was provided to police. Francia further advised that Mayra is married to the decedent and they returned from Ecuador at the end of February. Francia stated that they have only been residing at the residence for approximately one month. Francia advised she last spoke with Mayra on May 16, 2020 via telephone between 1500 hours and 1700 hours. Francia stated Mayra told her she was at the store getting food for the kids. Francia asked Mayra about the decedent, when Mayra told her the decedent was home sleeping. Francia advised she has had no additional contact with the Mayra. Francia stated she has attempted to contact Mayra via telephone and text messaging with no response. Francia advised when she attempts to call, it was going right to voicemail.
9. On May 17, 2020, Det. Steinberg and Det. Carroll obtained a digitally recorded statement from a Michael Stallworth at the Brick Township Police Department. In brief, Michael stated Francia received a telephone call in the early morning hours on May 17, 2020, from OD'Amuo in reference to not being able to make contact with the decedent. At that time, Stallworth and Francia responded to 28 Creek Road to attempt to make contact with either the decedent or Mayra. Stallworth advised Francia also attempt to contact Mayra via telephone with negative results. Once at the residence, Stallworth advised they knocked on the front and back doors and received no answer. Stallworth then made entry to the residence through the front window. Stallworth stated he removed the screen, climbed through the window, and unlocked the front door to let Francia inside. They proceeded to walk upstairs and observed a female laying in the bed of the master bedroom covered in blood under a sheet. They uncovered the victim, then called 911 and exited the residence.

10. On May 17, 2020, Det. Steinberg and Det. Carroll obtained a digitally recorded statement from a Leonard Villacis at the Brick Township Police Department. In brief, Leonard advised on May 17, 2020 he received a telephone call in the morning hours from his cousin, Christian Topana from Ecuador, stating there was someone dead at his mother's residence. Leonard then attempted to contact his mother, Mayra Gavilanez, but received no answer. Leonard then responded to said residence. Leonard stated he has not talked with his mother in a couple days. Leonard advised Mayra attempted to call him twice on May 17, 2020 between 1900 hours and 2000 hours. Leonard stated he was sleeping and did not see the missed calls until after midnight. Leonard further identified a photograph of his mother Mayra.
11. Leonard Villacis and Francia Villacis-Gavilanez consented to the search of their phones, which were conducted by Detective Mantle of Ocean County Prosecutors Office High Tech Crime Squad and returned to both parties.
12. On May 18, 2020, Detective Carroll and Detective Steinburg spoke with Mandy O'Shanghnessy, the Executive Director of the Chelsea assisted living in Toms River NJ. She stated that the decedent worked on Saturday, leaving at 1600 hours, and she failed to report to work on May 17, 2020. A coworker, Snyne Etienne, responded to the decedent's residence at Creek Road, knocked on the door, and received no answer. They then notified the mother of the decedent.
13. Detective Denis Mitchell of the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office was able to secure surveillance footage from 32 Creek Road, 1166 Sawmill Road, 1180 Sawmill Road, 1186 Sawmill, and footage from the Sawmill complex.
