Subject: Excellent Savvas Feature

Good Afternoon,

I am sad to say that I did not know about this feature sooner. There is a feature in Savvas that lets you add your own content to Savvas and assign through Savvas.

Why does this matter? If you have ever created lesson notes, extra practice, extra remediation, in addition to what the publisher offers, you won't have to "remember" to use it in the following years. You can program it right into a specific lesson in Savvas (Math, Science, and MyView).

I know it's June, so I will be sharing this again in September. Six more wakeups! Video below!

Hello!

We hope that you are enjoying your summer so far!

The New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE), in partnership with Rutgers, Graduate School of Education, and the Center for Literacy Development has launched the Reading Acceleration Professional Integrated Development (RAPID) Plus Initiative that will offer free professional development opportunities for Administrators and teachers of grades 4th, 5th, and 6th in Hunterdon, Middlesex, Moris, and Somerset counties.

This initiative represents a comprehensive approach to literacy development that goes beyond traditional classroom instruction. Our program seeks to empower educators, engage students, and enrich communities by providing research-based resources and tools.

Administrator and School Leaders Webinar – Tuesday, August 13th

The focus of this live, 180-minute webinar is to guide school and district leaders in designing a system that supports effective literacy instruction. Implementation research indicates that school or district level programs are more successfully sustained when certain factors are in place. An effective reading system is one that coherently integrates several factors, including the below elements.

- Introduction to Foundational Literacy
- A Culture that Supports Effective Literacy Instruction
- High-Quality Instructional Material
- High-Quality Aligned Assessment
- High-Quality Professional Learning
- Monitoring & Appropriate Instructional Responses

Educator Series – Wednesday, August 14th and Thursday, August 15th

The Educator Series consists of four 60-minute sessions that will cover the following topics.

- Module I: The Neurology of Reading
- Module II: Word Study and Fluency
- Module III: Vocabulary Development
- Module IV: Comprehension Development

Participants will receive Professional Development hours for the Administrator Webinar and Educator Series. Please visit our website for additional information and to register!

Warm regards,

Rutgers RAPID Plus Team
