Hey Jim,

Need a quick favor.. On the front of the card, can you just slide the information under the logos over to the left so it all fits? Seems like it is getting cut off.

Should say For more information

Hey Jim,

Finally got to show these to the Prosecutor. He loves it. One thing, can we take the website out (or make it smaller) and put the logos back in for the office and for the sheriff underneath?

So it would be the LIFELINE logo, the website and then our 2 logos on the bottom.

Would that work?

Hey Jim,

Minor change to verbiage on the back of the rac card as requested by Lori and Woj:

Individuals have participated in this program in cooperation with the Monmouth County Prosecutor and Sheriff Offices.

This is not an endorsement by either agency of Lifellne Recovery Support Services. Participation in the Cuffs to Beds program does not necessarily impact the disposition of pending charges.

Thanks!

Ok, 1 quick change: On the back of the card, instead of saying the website again, we need to put in a disclaimer... See if you can fit this in with a smaller font:

Individuals have participated in this program in cooperation with the Monmouth County Prosecutor & Sheriff Offices. This is not an endorsement by either agency of Lifeline Recovery Support Services nor a representation that participation in Cuffs to Beds necessarily impacts pending charges.

Hey Jim,

Wanted to use your expertise a second... The Prosecutor sent me both of these RAC Card templates and asked me for my input... I like them for the most part but I wanted to jazz them up a bit... Is there some way to take those ideas with the cuffs in the logos and put a pair of hands in a set of cuffs with one open or breaking them, maybe? The entire campaign is about helping people with addiction, so I thought maybe that would be a cooler visual to go with the "Cuffs to Beds" campaign.

I attached both proposed Rac Cards for you to take a look at and see if you can work your magic.

Craig,

As discussed, John Brogan at Lifeline would like to conduct "roll call training" on the roll and purpose of addiction advisers who respond to the PD on the above mentioned matter. This will ensure that the supervisors and the "boots on the ground" understand the purpose and object of this initiative. I greatly appreciate your partnership and anticipated cooperation to facilitate this necessary training.

Thanks again.

John – please send to participating chiefs and Sheriff. Thanks.

Chiefs,

It has come to my attention that Lifeline Recovery Services' number has recently been disconnected. I spoke to John Brogan and Lifeline was recently purchased by a national company called Recovery Zone Solutions, LLC. During the acquisition, there was a number change so the new hotline is now 888-520-9749. Please utilize this number instead of the old one which has been disconnected to utilize Lifeline services. Brogan sends his deepest apologies, it was a casualty of the recent acquisition.

Thanks.

Chief:

I wanted you to take a look at my testimony from the Heroin Bi-Partisan task force in DC earlier in the year. I am going to create the narrative over the weekend to exclude the details of Ocean, leave in only the historical blurb regarding its importance in chronological history, and then really detail the success and efficacy of the Monmouth initiatives. Let me know if there is anything else you want me to add.
