Lifeline Support responded with professionalism and compassion when I reached out for support for my son with a long history of alcoholism. Texts and phone calls were responded to in a timely and patient manner. John Brogan and his team are an exceptional group and should be supported and congratulated for the care they give not only to their client but to the family as well. Please continue to endorse and fund this Agency.

Good afternoon gentlemen,

Here is today's list. We have a couple "frequent flyers" on here. I am eager to see if they will make the cut for this program. It would be nice to see them try something different.

Mike, inmate [REDACTED] is getting his call to Damon House as we speak.

Have a great day!!

Hi John -

I wanted to let you know about a reception we are having in our Washington, DC for friends of the Firm. This will include Members of Congress and staff as well as other clients and partners. We are celebrating our 45 years as a policy practice in the Firm. So you can see we are very well established and one of the first law firms to institute a lobbying arm. The event is June 6th at 5:30 pm. If you are able to attend perhaps we can build other meetings around your visit?

Amy and I are looking forward to working with you.

Best, Tracy

Subject: GoMo Health Meeting Today

John,

Hey good talking to you today. As I mentioned during our conversation, I had a meeting today with Bob Gold and Gary Pollack of GoMo Health. I know Gary from [REDACTED] They have a unique product that is best described as a virtual addiction coach service. GoMo offers a personal concierge service that can help interactively guide a person struggling with opioid use addiction via use of mobile messaging. These cell messages contains texts, videos and other content relevant to the challenges of opioids addiction. Messages are supposed to help the recipient's mood and spirit, help motivate, provide support and, where necessary, prevent relapse.

After speaking with Gary and Bob, I thought that their service may provide the best utility to the various recovery support organizations we work with like Lifeline. In our world, we can't mandate that someone use a service like this (and it would be a heavy lift to convince a court or judge to have someone do so), but I thought the product may have some overlay with recovery support services. I know how thinly spread Lifeline and other programs are and I wanted to "introduce" you three to see if you could be useful to each others' missions.

So, John meet Bob and Gary, and Gary and Bob, meet John. Contact information below for all. Good luck!

R/ Chris
