- A. Patrol officers shall work approximately sixty (60) hours during one week (Monday through Sunday of the fourteen (14) day work period and approximately twenty-four (24) hours during the other week (Monday through Sunday) of the fourteen (14) day work period.

In addition, the Chief of Police shall also have the managerial right to alter said manning levels as he deems appropriate and necessary to ensure the efficient operation of the Department and/or where said adjustment shall be in the best interest of the Department and public safety.

5. The regular hours of employment of patrolmen shall not exceed twelve (12) consecutive hours in a shift. Overtime is defined as more hours than a regularly scheduled shift eight (8) or twelve (12) hours or working a regular day off.

6. All shift assignments for each employee shall not be changed without 72 hours' prior notice to the employee unless an emergency exists or the Chief and the employee agree upon the change.

7. Overtime hours shall be paid at a rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times the hourly rate of the individual patrol officer who has worked these said hours and shall be paid monthly as worked. Overtime will be calculated as one and one-half (1 ½) times the "hourly rate".

8. Overtime earned for additional time beyond the tour of duty and each hour thereafter will be earned and paid as follows:

If a patrol officer is called in to duty from their residence or other location, other than a time which would be a continuation of a regular shift or time that would continue into a regular shift, they will receive a minimum of four (4) hours overtime, or the equivalent of six (6) hours of the individual patrol officer's regular hourly pay rate.

11. The Police Department shall maintain a list where patrol officers shall be placed on a registry for overtime coverage. Placement on the registry does not constitute hours worked and shall not be compensable. In the event an officer listed in the registry is called into duty to cover a shift, they will be paid at the overtime rate applicable.

12. Training, including firearms qualification, shall occur throughout the year, based upon the schedule set by the Chief of Police. If applicable, any officer required to perform training at any time other than regularly scheduled work time shall be compensated for a minimum of four hours in the form of compensatory time which shall be accrued at the rate of one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times for each hour, or fraction thereof, worked by the patrol officer.

13. Compensatory time shall continue to be an option of each employee in lieu of cash payment for overtime work. Said compensatory time shall be accrued at the rate of one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times for each hour worked or fraction thereof worked by the employee as outlined in Item 8 above. Each employee shall be entitled to accrue and accumulate a total amount of one hundred forty-four (144) hours' worth of comp time into a bank. Once said one hundred forty-four (144) hours have been accrued, all further overtime compensation shall be in cash. Should an employee not utilize any or all of the comp time with the bank, said bank shall be carried from year to year. Employees retain the option to convert their accrued comp time bank into a cash payment at the end of each year.

14. When someone takes a sick or personal day that causes overtime within 12 hours before the start of the shift, the overtime goes to the on-call officer first. If the on-call officer initially declines the overtime, the off-duty patrol officers shall be contacted on a seniority basis. If unable to fill the on-call officer shall be required to work. When overtime arises more than 12 hours prior to the start of the shift, the off-duty patrol officers shall be contacted on a seniority basis (excluding the day/night on-call officers). Sergeants shall get first chance at any overtime when there is no supervisor working. The on-call officer is required to be available until the start of the shift. All switches to the on-call list must receive prior approval from the Chief or his designee.

C. If the PBA is not satisfied with the resolution of this matter, then binding arbitration shall be used to finally resolve the matter. It is understood and agreed that only the PBA or the Township may initiate the arbitration process. The scope of arbitration shall strictly be the conditions enumerated in the contract.

The Arbitrator shall be selected by mutual agreement of the officer and the Township Committee. If the Township Committee and officer cannot agree on an Arbitrator within fourteen (14) days, then the Arbitrator's selection process shall be the normal PERC procedures for selection of an Arbitrator.

An Arbitration process shall follow the procedure as outlined by the Arbitrator elected.

In the event a grievance on this Agreement could also be resolved in another forum, the Arbitrator shall not conduct any hearings on the grievance unless the officer waives their rights to proceed in the other forums and appropriate time for filing in those forums has expired.

Any of the steps provided for in this Agreement may be waived by mutual agreement of the officer and the Township.

Expenses for this appeal shall be divided as enumerated in (5)(C) above.

7. Failure to file the grievance or to move to the next level, within the time limits set forth herein shall be considered an abandonment of the grievance and the grievance will be deemed null and void.
