Subject: Williams Way street designation

Good Afternoon,

Two weeks ago Mayor Piazza who looked visibly under the influence of alcohol raised his voice at me at a Phillipsburg Republican Committee meeting saying the street name change of Williams Way is " Not a Priority " multiple times when I asked about the paperwork being filed for the official street designation. Mayor Piazza told me and others at the meeting that he or his administration had never filed the paperwork with the postal service or 911 services yet and then placed the blame on me . That was different then what he said to me at the street naming ceremony in December in which he attended as well. He said the paperwork was in progress on that day.

Shortly after that Committee meeting at the Painted Lady Building on S. Main St. and my last FB post as a Councilmen regarding the meeting and what the Mayor said then the street signs were put up miraculously. So was the Mayor lying multiple times to me over the past few months and at the committee meeting ? Has Williams Way been officially designated a street now ? Or are the signs up illegally ? Mayor should really tell the truth to the public and obviously he wasn't telling me the truth all along. Very erratic behavior on his part .

Best Regards,

Matthew Scerbo Sr.
