Joe,

The Detective went through all the UFRs for 2017 and informed me that there are no reports for canine involvement. However, I understand that we sent you all of 2015 and 2016. Not sure if you still want all the reports for 2017.

Let me know – thanks!

Mr. Hernandez,

The City is in receipt of your OPRA request. Please note that there are over 1,000 UFRs to sort through for the years 2015-2017. A special service charge will have to be assessed if you want the UFRs only for canine involvement. If not, I can send you all of the UFRs for 2015 through 2017. Detective D'Arco,

Pursuant to our conversation this afternoon regarding the search warrant affidavit, you informed me that said affidavits are not releasable. These affidavits contain confidential informant information and surveillance techniques which if disclosed could compromise future investigations/persons involved, etc. The records involved could also be part of a criminal investigation.

Hi Todd, I promise the last request for this year, please review the attached request for the Community Event scheduled for Valentine’s day and advise me as soon as possible on your decision. Remember we need this approved as soon as possible since we have to start purchasing the needed items to make this a success. Without the forfeiture approval this event cannot happen. Thanks again

Miss Hilbert,

Please be advised that a check by the record's division turned up no reports for that individual, on that date. You might want to advise the requestor to check with the fire department and see if there was an ambulance run report made.

I understand what you're saying. If there was a charge associated with this, then the requestor would be responsible for it. Here is the contact information I have - Enforsys CRM/Support support@enforsys.com

I forwarded the last request and they provided me with the excel sheet within a couple of days.

I wasn't involved in that. The last time I contacted Enforsys to ask them this, I was told it could not be done. Now we need to contact an outside company to create something that doesn't exist? When does it stop?
