PHYSICAL TRAINING PROGRESS REPORT - PRE-TEST

Recruit : Justin D. Lamb Seat # 20

Date: September 06, 2002

☐ 1. Above captioned Recruit is considered a high risk candidate in that he smokes cigarettes. It is recommended that he discontinue this habit permanently, or at least during the remaining weeks of Academy Training.

☐ 2. Above captioned Recruit is considered a High Risk candidate, as there is a History of Heart Disease in his/her family.

☐ 3. Above captioned Recruit is a high risk candidate in that he is extremely overweight.
Height _____ Weight _____

☒ 4. Above captioned Recruit's level of physical fitness performance is far below the average level of the class.

Example:

Recruit Lamb's pre-test fitness level is below the O.C.P.A.

minimum standards, presently disqualifying him for County certification.

☐ 5. Above captioned Recruit was absent from P.T. on the following date (s):

☐ 6. Above captioned Recruit has been absent from P.T. the maximum amount of hours permitted. Any additional absences will result in his/her failure and will necessitate complete re-training in a subsequent Basic Training Class.

☒ 7. Above captioned Recruit attained a Pre-Test physical agility score of 278 out of a possible 500. Rating - Fair.

* POOR RATING - Indicated Recruit is performing far below the P.T. Class average and as such should participate in a self-imposed physical conditioning program on his own, outside Academy hours, in an attempt to increase his physical prowess and receive a satisfactory P.T. score at the conclusion of the Academy program.

Re: Miscellaneous Correspondence

Pat,

Justin made up the ½ hour owed you from the domestic violence training by viewing the domestic violence tape that u told me to have him watch.

Officers Lamb, Schierer and I all need CPR and first-aid training.

Any questions feel free to contact me.

Colin

PAT,

Also, whenever you send up to the academy, can you have them ask if the day class gets the yellow cards. They did not provide me with any with the packets.

Thanks,,

Re: Recruit Class #79 Candidates

Date: July 31, 2002

From: Ptl. Colin Grant

The following is the list and ranking of the candidates who participated in the Lavallette Physical Training test and their evaluations. All candidates were informed of the results. All candidates that were chosen for Class #79 were instructed that the salary would be $5.15/hr and the only expenses covered by the Borough of Lavallette are the firearms and ammunitions.
