Weekly Police Blotter – Lacey Township Police Department –

June 7th through June 13th, 2019

Weapon Possession- At 3:45 am, Sunday, June 9, 2019, Officers Jesse Dalziel and Chris Meyler responded to a West Lacey Road home in reference to a suspicious person on the property. As the officers approached, they observed a vehicle on the shoulder and four men in what appeared to be an argument. As the officers neared the men, one man, David Most, was observed having a handgun in his waistband. The investigation revealed that a Little Egg Harbor man was walking from a party in the woods and accidentally exited onto Most's property. Most was alerted by home surveillance video and exited his home with the gun. Most then followed the man off his property onto the roadway pointing the gun and ordering the man to lie on the ground. A passerby stopped and urging Most not to continue. The surveillance video confirmed that the lost man walked across Most's property although no criminal offenses were noted. David Most, 60, was placed under arrest and ultimately transported to the Ocean County Correctional Facility. Most was charged with Possession of a Weapon for an Unlawful Purpose, Unlawful Possession of a Weapon, and Aggravated Assault.
