Narrative
On 07/20/12 at 2300 hours I was dispatched to 223 Lexington Boulavard Apartment 27 on a report of a suspicious incident.
Upon arrival I was met by the resident who was later identified as Dawn Casale. Dawn states that she left her residence on 07/15/12 at approximately 0500 hours for vacation. When she returned home today she noticed that the lights that she left on were turned off and there was an empty beer bottle with a cigarette in her garbage can. The towels in her bathroom appeared to have been moved. There were no signs of forced entry into her residence and she stated that the only person who she gave a key to is her sister, who did not go into her apartment.
