Re:
OPRA Request, dated 11/19/2017

The Blairstown Police Department received your OPRA Request. Please accept these documents. We have provided all documents that are in our custody.

According to the Warren County Prosecutor's Office, Internal Affairs Summary Reports are received from each police department in the county (scheduled format), are tabulated and then the Countywide Report is sent in to the Attorney General's Office. These departmental reports are not retained by the Prosecutor's Office.

In 2014, there was one "Citizen's Complaint" regarding an "Other Rule Violation," of which the disposition was "Not Sustained."

In 2015 and 2016 there were no reported complaints. At this time, there are no complaints (Internal Affairs) for 2017.

In regards to your request #6., the majority of our annual training records are not kept at our department in the normal course of business. Training records (mandated by the county/state) are kept at the Warren County Prosecutor's Office (located at 413 Second Street, Belvidere, NJ 07823).

Training records for our 911 dispatchers and call-taker training are not available to our agency, as we contract with the Warren County Communications Center (1024 Route 57, Washington, NJ 07882) for all of our dispatching needs.

In addition, we do not have a canine unit, thus K-9 training certificates are not maintained.
