145 Crash Description/Narrative

Box #118a: D1 did not see B1 riding through the parking lot and struck the bicycle.

B1 was on a bicycle traveling west through the private property parking lot of 2040 SR 33. V1 was entering the parking lot from SR 33 East, heading south and directly in the path of B1. D1 did not see B1, and continued to drive directly into the path of B1.

B1, seeing this, jumped off the bicycle and fell to the ground. The front driver fender of V1 struck the bicycle, but did not hit B1. After the collision, D1 left the scene of the crash without reporting it to police.

B1 had a complaint of pain in his left leg and arm. He was treated by medics already on scene, and later refused further medical attention on scene with medics and NTFAS. There was no damage observed to the bicycle.

The vehicle is described as a silver Honda Accord 2-door, NJ Reg: H14FXX. This registration is fictitious, coming back to a 2000 white Infiniti, expiring 10/2018. I made contact with the original owner of the license plate, Chrystal Fitzpatrick, who advised she has not had that vehicle in years, as she sold it to a company that bought used cars for cash (she could not remember which company). She also advised she did not know where the license plates for the vehicle ended up after turning the vehicle in.

The vehicle description and fictitious registration were given to County Dispatch, who added the license plate to the ALPR alerts. At the completion of this report, the vehicle has not been located.
