Dear Bill,

This shall confirm our telephone conversation a few moments ago wherein we discussed the consummation of the settlement in this matter. Please have someone from your office or the Township attorney contact the zoning officer to have issued an unconditional zoning permit to allow my client to sell firearms from his store in Lacey Township. In addition, I am copying Mr. Riordan to issue a check in the amount of $5000 made payable to my client and forwarded to this office immediately.

Once my client is in receipt of the zoning permit and I'm in receipt of the settlement funds, I will circulate a stipulation of dismissal to dismiss the case without prejudice as we discussed since the Township ad Zoning Board was not interested in addressing this through a Whispering Woods hearing.

The zoning permit needs to be issued as soon as possible but in no event later than Friday of this week as my client has waited a long enough to have the Township consummate settlement. We will address the settlement proceeds as soon as possible as well.

Regards,

Stuart
