Hi,

My name is Aneeta Bhole I was hoping to ask a few questions in regard to the death of Adriana Kuch.

1. Why did the school not file a police report [REDACTED]
2. Was the school aware of the [REDACTED]
3. What has been done in terms of help for students/staff/community to help with the grieving process – the school community claim they were not told of counselling services or how to access them?
4. Is the school aware of other instances of bullying? What is being done?
5. What is the policy when a student is bullied and attacked? [REDACTED]
6. [REDACTED]
7. Why have the school community been banned from protesting unless given prior approval?
8. Would you like to add anything?

Thanks,

Aneeta Bhole

Dear Mrs. Bhole,

I hope you are well. Here are some answers to your questions:

1. The police are notified and suspensions given immediately when an incident occurs.
2. The entire School District has cameras so we have all incidents that occur. [REDACTED]
3. Our Crisis Team was activated immediately and the community was notified by the parent portal and letter.
4. Any incidents of Bullying are addressed. If we know about it we address it.
5. Our policy is 5512.
6. [REDACTED]
7. We encourage our student protest but do it properly with supervision and all safety issues addressed.
8. It is a tragic case and prayers go out to the family.

Thank you,

Dr. Parlapanides

Hi Tom,

Thank you for coming back to me.

Regarding this response:

6. [REDACTED]

Just wanted to follow up and ask:

Are you suggesting that Adriana's death was related to her mother's suicide, father's alleged 'affair'?

Given the circumstances, that can be perceived as being insensitive. Do you think it's an appropriate response to questions about a student's suicide?

[REDACTED] Are you saying this isn't the case?
