Tommy,

I appreciate the apology. I can imagine the pressure you are under at this time and I am sure the rumors flying around regarding this matter has made it even more difficult.

Thank you for sharing that the Crisis Team will continue to work with the CRSD students and staff. Hopefully we will have more details on the protocol for these types of situations.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I hope that as respect to him, students, teachers, friends and staff, that there will be at least a moment of silence tomorrow morning. [REDACTED]

Thank you everyone for sharing. Members of the crisis team have been following up with identified students all weekend. A full report of activity will be provided, but public sharing of student health matters is not permissible. Sorry to not make social media happy, but nothing new there. I do reiterate Mr. Dasti's suggestion as well for all of CR, and any public comment should go through Tommy.

But this is the 1st for me and I am only asking questions here and seeking my own answers. I only apologize that I can not wait until the closed session.

Good afternoon,

I wanted to share some information to help with grief [REDACTED] I am sure we are doing the best that we can. A friend of mine is a board member in Middletown. She said that they went through this several times. She offered some suggestions. And I'm just wondering if we are using what's called the Best Practice from the suicide foundation? Also, will we be having these grief counselors open all weekend at the school?

Middletown Superintendent and the assistant superintendent asked us if we would like to reach out to them to help in the situation.

Assistant superintendent Matt Kirkpatrick (732) 614-6920

Mary Ellen Walker Middletown superintendent
(732) 558-2631

I pray that we can come together to help our community with all our resources.

Thank you,

Merissa
