Operations Report

Marc Ramirez responded to headquarters to report identity theft. Mr. Ramirez stated his identity was stolen in 2022 and reported the incident to Nutley PD at that time (reference case 22-74532).

Mr. Ramirez stated after the incident he was registered with NCIC as an identity theft victim, advised his financial institutions, and utilizes a credit monitoring service to prevent any further incidents. Mr. Ramirez stated he has received several collection letters regarding debts from accounts that were created fraudulently during the time of the initial incident.

The collections accounts are;

[REDACTED]

Mr. Ramirez stated he has contacted all of the account holders and advised them the accounts were fraudulent and the companies were in the process of rectifying the balances. Mr. Ramirez further stated he also reached out to all of the credit bureaus to advise the accounts were fraudulent.

It should be noted Mr. Ramirez was not offered to be entered into NCIC as an identity theft victim due to already having been entered (reference case 22-74532).

I advised Mr. Ramirez to continue to monitor his credit and report any additional accounts that may arise. BWC activated.
