I understand that, but I do believe these all get intertwined. I'm glad to learn more about your history on the board and that it sounds like you continue to support (and hopefully fight for) our public school system.

I am not part of the stonewalling. I think the issue of off cycle elections should be decided by the voters.

Thank you. And I hope you are working to build a stronger voice that supports PUBLIC schools. I am very concerned about our schools and town. To wit: The corrupt stonewalling from the town with respect to merely trying to get a vote on the ballot about off-cycle elections astonishes me. I hope you are not part of that... I'm only beginning to see some of the ugliness here and I'll be actively supporting only our best public servants who support public education in all ways.

I appreciate you having responded to my email.

Hello Marya,

I have had the opportunity to work with Dr. Fishbein for the entirety of his tenure in Ridgewood. I know he is an excellent superintendent and educational leader. It is not my wish for Dr. Fishbein to resign. I have been open in my support of Dr. Fishbein.

Dear Ms. Brogan,

I am DISGRACED at the board's treatment of Dr. Fishbein and appalled at what must have happened behind the scenes that caused him to resign.

Please work to reverse the loss of Dr. Fishbein!

Please clarify for me- What you are doing with respect to our school's leadership?
