Re: OPRA Request No. 030520-1

Dear Mr. Duff:

Stockton University's Open Public Records Act (OPRA) Custodian received your OPRA Request on March 5, 2020. As such, the seven (7) business day deadline to respond to your request was March 16, 2020.

By letter dated March 13, 2020, the University extended its response time by nine (9) business days, until March 27, 2020, because of the volume of documents requested and the corresponding review, and the impact of the University's emergent and ongoing operations response to the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Your OPRA Request sought access to the following:

This is a request for public records made under OPRA and the common law right of access. I am not required to fill out an official form. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.

Records requested:

Email communications to and from Stockton employee Paul Schopp's email address pwschopp@comcast.net regarding the following terms from 1-1-2015 through 3-3-2020.

Patrick Duff
753 Walnut
Martin Luther King
Maple Shade
Hunt family

OPRA allows custodians extensions of time pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-5. i. Specifically, OPRA states that, "the requestor shall be advised by the custodian when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access shall be deemed denied." In addition, please note that on March 20, 2020, New Governor Philip Murphy signed into law P.L. 2020, c. 10, which amends OPRA to suspend the 7-day response deadline when "a state of emergency, public health emergency, or state of local disaster emergency" has been declared. N.J.S.A. 47:1A-5(i)(2).

We regret to inform you that your request requires a further extension of time to respond because the University's OPRA staff began operating remotely on March 18, 2020 in accordance with the University's precautionary measures to protect its students, employees, and community during the COVID-19 global pandemic. The implementation of remote operations has impacted the scope and timing of the University's OPRA responses. Your request requires additional response time of five (5) business days, until Friday, April 3, 2020.

If your request for access to a government record has been denied, you have a right to challenge the decision to deny access. At your option, you may either institute a proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey or file a complaint with the Government Records Council ("GRC") by completing the Denial of Access Complaint Form. You may contact the GRC by toll-free telephone at 866-850-0511; by mail at P.O. Box 819, Trenton, NJ, 08625; by e-mail at grc@dca.state.nj.us; or, at its web site located at www.state.nj.us/grc. The GRC can also answer other questions about OPRA. All questions regarding complaints filed in Superior Court should be directed to the Court Clerk in your County.

Sincerely,

Dawn Livingston
