

- June 20th, 1950: Philadelphia Tribune article about the maple shade incident where King is listed again as, Michael.
- Unknown date: Camden NAACP filed a lawsuit against the restaurant owner for discrimination. I believe this was done to gain some leverage because McCall faced being indicted too for trying to buy what could be considered packaged goods on a Sunday after 10pm.
- July 1st, 1950: Baltimore Afro American article about the incident. King is mysteriously left out of the article. Dr. Ulysses Wiggins is quoted at saying "Our organization expects to launch a drive soon against public places which refuse accommodations solely on the basis of race and color". Wiggins would later go on to lead a drive in the Southern NJ area to help desegregate places of public accommodation. Proving that this event was not just significant to King as a person, but also to southern NJ as a catalyst.
- August 28th, 1950, Burlington County Detectives office, Mount Holly NJ: Pearl Smith gives an interview to Burlington County Chief Detective, Clifford D. Cain, and in doing so she incriminates McCall by saying he was trying to buy "one, or two quarts of beer, and four glasses", and admitting it was a Sunday after 10 pm. She also tells the story of what happened inside Mary's cafe that night. Pearl, who was listed in all of the articles found about her as Mrs. Pearl Smith, was a police woman at the time, and should have known that her statement incriminated McCall. Interestingly, Detective Cain was under an investigation of his own for looking the other way on a Casino that operated out of Maple Shade for many years until it was busted right around the same time of this incident. The Casino was just down the street from Mary's Cafe.
- Date unknown, place unknown: A short while after Pearl gives the statement, the case is dropped by King and McCall, and they all walk away. McCall says the case was thrown out when three white witnesses refused to testify, King says that it was two white witnesses. McGann says that it was King and McCall that refused to show up. McCall also said in that King and himself couldn't act as their own plaintiff and defense at the grand jury, which shows that they were also facing being charged at the grand jury. Was it that the white students who originally testified on their behalf did not show up, as King and McCall said, or was it King and McCall who decided to not risk being indicted at the grand jury and walked away? It being 1950, and them being African American's, it was probably best not to take that chance.
- On Nov 12th, 1950 at 3:30 p.m. Rev. King delivered a sermon to the Fifth Presbyterian Church at 3rd and Tilghman St. Chester, PA 19013
- Between September and December of 1950, Crozer Campus: King begins to court the girlfriend of one of his professors, Kenneth Lee Smith, and wound up winning her heart. Her name was Betty Moatz, she was the daughter of the cook on campus and she also just happened to be white. King fell in love and asked for her to marry him. His friends and mentors stressed that he could not possibly return to the south with a white wife, Moatz, also thought the same, and they had to call it off. This angered King, said Moatz, but he went through with it in the end and they broke it off.
- January 6th, 1951: Courier Post clipping showing Walter McCall gave a sermon at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ
- January 13th, 1951 2:20 pm: Courier Post clipping showing Dr. King gave a sermon at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ.
- On Feb 25th, 1951 at 11 a.m. Rev. King was a speaker at the Fifth Presbyterian Church at 3rd and Tilghman St. Chester, PA 19013
- On March 11th, 1951 at 3 p.m. Rev. King gave a sermon to the Calvary Baptist Church on 1612 West Second Street Chester, PA. 19013
- On April 14th, 1951 at 8 p.m. Rev. King was a speaker at St. Daniels Methodist Church at 315 Edwards St. Chester, PA 19013
- September 15th 1952: Courier Post clipping showing Dr. King and Walter McCall were guests for the weekend at Zion Baptist Church in Camden, NJ. This is the last documented time of King in Camden.
- August 5th, 1954 letter to King, McCall writes to King in a letter: "Pearl has gone to California. I gave her fifty dollars with the idea of helping to support the child, but that support only gave Pearl a ray of hope to win me over to marry her although I have told her again and again that I am not going to do that. She has already worried the very day light out of me by long distance phone calls and a host of letters. So, instead of continuing that support, I have cut it off already. Never do I expect to help in any fashion. Man, Pearl will harass me to death if I give her the least o' consideration. Hate to take that attitude, but I think I am wise in so doing." Could McCall be talking about Pearl Smith?
- October 28th, 1961: Philadelphia Tribune Article with Dr. King speaking about what happened in Maple Shade. King said it was a very painful experience because they decided to "sit in". This proves that this was the first recorded time in which King would perform a sit in.
- 1960's, unknown date: Thomas McGann reports hearing a report by Fulton Lewis Jr that said Dr. King's interest in civil rights began while he was staying with friends in Camden and he was refused service at a restaurant in the suburbs of the city. This caused McGann to call Robert Burk Johnson to ask him to look into his files and see if he had the case they had together over a decade earlier. Johnson called McGann back and confirmed that it was Dr. King who was involved in the incident.
- 1970 interview with Walter McCall: McCall very clearly states that the first civil rights struggle Dr. King was in was in Maple Shade in the year 1950. He also states that he worked in the Camden, NJ school system for three months in 1948.
- 1976 article by George Anastasia: It is reported that the spokesperson for the NAACP in Camden, NJ mentioned the situation in Maple Shade as what inspired him to become involved in civil rights.

- Jan 16th, 1981 article in the Courier Post by Eileen Stilwell: Interview of Benjamin Hunt, cousin of Walter McCall, speaking about King and McCall living on and off at 753 Walnut St. in Camden, NJ. Reporter talks about seeing Dr. King in the pictures on the wall. Hunt states that he believed that what happened in Maple Shade started to change him into the leader he became.

Last night I had a chance to speak with Dr. Clarence B Jones and he said that he remembered Dr. King speaking about the incident in Maple Shade. I only had a minute to speak with him and I couldn't have it taped, but I am trying to do that today. There will be a round table discussion tonight at Palmyra High School featuring Dr. Jones with the chance to ask questions. During the day he will be visiting the home in Camden and also the sight in Maple Shade.

He is will be writing a letter of support on behalf of the home, as well is Valerie Still, who I believe the HPO knows very well already.
