Hey Chief

I sent you a text earlier but just wanted to follow up before tomorrow AM.

Lindsay and Bob who brought in the cat from Neptune City called me around 4:30/5 asking if we could do bloodwork too.

Since bloodwork isn't part of what we do under our TNR program I wanted to clarify if you wanted to OK this for them - and if so, if they need to pay for it.

Jen&Amy, I have you both on here because I'm not sure how feasible it is for you guys to draw blood now that the cat is awake. Lindsay and Bob realize there is nothing wrong to warrant bloodwork, they told me they just want the cat "checked out"

We would likely need to sedate the cat again for a blood draw as she wasn't too handleable for us.

So they should definitely consider the risks associated with further anesthesia vs not putting her under if there are no underlying concerns making them want bloodwork.
