

Ross Licitra <chief@monmouthcountyspca.org>

Employee Cara Facebook Sharing o

1 message

Kathy Derry <kathyd@monmouthcountyspca.org>

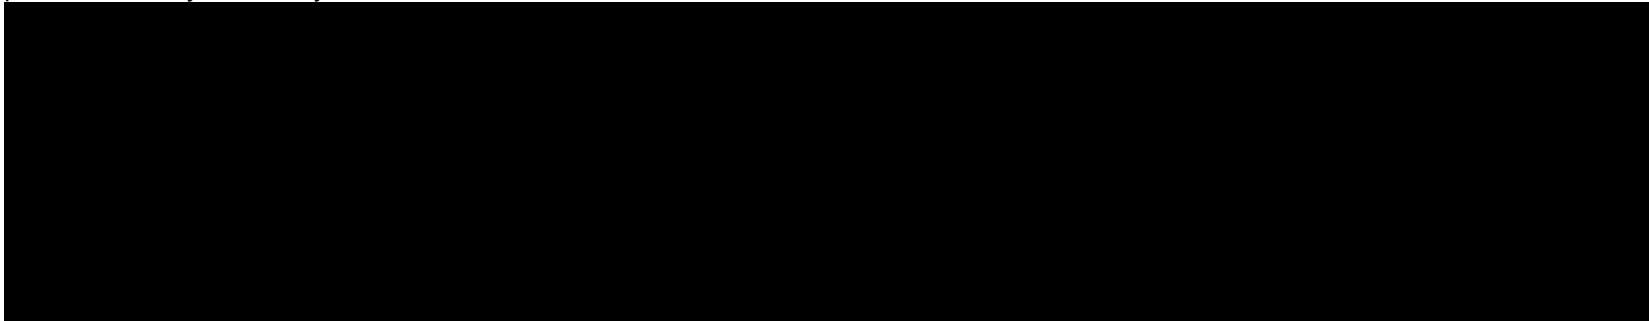

Mon, Feb 3, 2020 at 6:26 PM

To: Chief Ross Licitra <chief@monmouthcountyspca.org>, Robert Stern <bob@monmouthcountyspca.org>

Per our conversation I enclosed the Facebook posts that are now being shared amongst ex and current employees of Animal Care.

Below is the screen shot of the original Facebook post from our ex employee Kayla warning "Karma is a bitch.

The second is my concern - it is our current employee Cara sharing her post on her Facebook page and commenting how it needs to be shared as much as possible and anywhere they can.

AT&T LTE

4:41 PM

66%

Cara Thumm

SEE ALL FRIENDS

Posts

Write something to Cara...

 Write Post

 Share Photo

 Photos

 Did You Know

Cara Thumm

4 hrs ·

YELP.COM

Kayla N.'s review of Monmouth County SPCA

This is definitely a great place to adopt and was once a great place to work. Over the past year management and leadership

i

the past year management and leadership...

Like

Comment

Share

Cara Thumm

6 hrs ·

2:12

Done

3 of 3

Search

Photos

Life Events

Kayla Nocera

3 hrs •

Karma is a bitch...isn't it?

YELP.COM

Kayla N.'s review of Monmouth County SPCA

This is definitely a great place to adopt and was once a great place to work. Over the past year management and leadership roles of the a...

2

3 Comments • 2 Shares

Like

Comment

Share

Kayla Nocera

11 hrs • 🌐

