Please take a listen to the attached voicemail. I ran through the gauntlet of questions as to what she had out for garbage in seeing if there was a reason for the miss but all seems good. Her address is [REDACTED] Road. Realizing the crew will be on West Main Street tomorrow, which turns into Mount Pleasant, any chance this could be grabbed tomorrow as the garbage is now piling up in her garage.

We have some major recovery plans in store for Saturday in other towns. We can see to free up someone if we have to tomorrow. On Monday, barring any massive equipment or staffing issues, we could run recovery as well.

The guys are doing a good job, but we have a helper running into hours issues so we had to break off route. The other team is still out there.

All the best,

So, led to believe the route was completed today, which would be outstanding. Per voicemail attached, wondering if the route was not completed and that's the reason??? [REDACTED] Road also known as route 545. It seems the road continues to be missed WEEKLY. Resident called me while typing this, he can't understand as I, why this road continues to be missed? Please let me know if it was truly missed, or if this section of town was just NOT completed and was put on for recovery. I need to know where we are at with this road PLEASE.

My driver is actually there right now. They might have realized it was missed and went back. Or they did a turnaround and grabbed other stops and this one last.

Resolved.

Ok, so Joe from [REDACTED] Court (Friday Pickup) [REDACTED] can't seem to figure out why the truck passed his house and didn't pick up his garbage. I asked if they picked up his neighbors on both sides, thinking the (this side of the road, other side of the road later theory) but both neighbors were picked up. Ran through all the other things that may have caused them not to pick up, but he seemed all good?? I'm sure something went down, can someone please call the driver so we know..

Ok, so Joe from [REDACTED] Court (Friday Pickup) [REDACTED] can't seem to figure out why the truck passed his house and didn't pick up his garbage. I asked if they picked up his neighbors on both sides, thinking the (this side of the road, other side of the road later theory) but both neighbors were picked up. Ran through all the other things that may have caused them not to pick up, but he seemed all good?? I'm sure something went down, can someone please call the driver so we know..
