Importance: High

Mike,

I pushed my team out here to the brink of DOT regulations and we just got in. We completed Homestead. We did lay the following streets:

Jacksonville
Petticoat bridge

From recovery list I sent out this morning, we recovered everything except the following:

One side Georgetown
Surrey court

 (apparently we missed the odd side)
Chesterfield Road (called in this afternoon)

The driver we are training is new and young, and tonight I taught him the responsibility of a route driver the hard way by keeping him out. The old stuff needs to go first before hitting the current day's map. He knows for tomorrow, and we will work on the recovery streets first before heading into 4 Seasons.

All the best

Republic,

Looks like we are going to have to come up with a plan B for Mill Lane. Mill Lane was missed last week for trash because of the road being worked on half way through. I've received a call now from each resident complaining about the trash. As you're aware, I politely asked you come at Mill Lane from each end in picking up said trash, of which I was told can't happen due to not enough space to turn around, as the road is narrow. It seems the Recycling Truck was able to approach from both ends so I'm asking if Republic can please do the same this Wednesday.

Anthony,

Just sending this to you as to not confuse anyone. You can forward to whomever. As per our conversation about moving some Friday runs to Monday, the following would be Mansfield's recommendation as we can reach these residents more easily and not have to include Republic in getting the word out. Obviously, they are developments that have a heavy social media presence. We would love to see the following if it worked for you guys as well:

1. Mapleton
2. Bridal Ridge Estates
3. Quail Run
4. Cloverdale Estates
5. Landview Estates
6. Forest Edge

That would be our wishlist for Mondays. I'll wait to hear back from you guys.

Can someone please touch base with this resident. Seems he left a note for the crew to take his 2 OLD trash cans and throw them away but for some reason, the crew left the OLD trash cans and took and threw away his brand new one.

This is that older resident on Jacksonville Road that continues to call me.... Let's see what we can do please. I don't want to call her and tell her the Calvary is coming, as I did that in the past and they never arrived..

Please advise, Thank You.

Please take a listen to the attached voicemail. I ran through the gauntlet of questions as to what she had out for garbage in seeing if there was a reason for the miss but all seems good. Her address is ~~_____~~ Road. Realizing the crew will be on West Main Street tomorrow, which turns into Mount Pleasant, any chance this could be grabbed tomorrow as the garbage is now piling up in her garage.

I called this resident and asked him to please be patient. He's used to being picked up first thing in the morning. I explained that some days, the trucks may take a different route ect, so chill, they'll be there.

Please see he is picked up today, so he's not calling me tonight and tomorrow...
