I just reached out to the driver, and he ran out of them a while ago and never requested any. I'm not sure if we have any left. Is this something we get from you guys?

All,
I have to ask, "Why are we not using the RED STICKERS given to Republic to place on the can or trash letting the resident know of the violation? Every one of these houses with more then 6 items are calling me and roughing me up. I understand they are breaking the contract but we did give you stickers to place out for violations! Why are the stickers not being used? Hence, I have to take the call and explain to each.. PLEASE USE THE STICKERS!

Marc and team I know we have a new driver covering the route but we need better maps or communication to ensure there are no issues here.

Michael I am not sure if we have anyone available to run back but I can ensure you we will recover 1st thing Monday morning. Denise has been out this week and will return Monday. I am out next week as well and will be back next Friday. If we need to set up a call to discuss the recent issues I will be available to do so.

Marc please confirm if you have anyone available this late on a Saturday to recover.

I called this resident and asked him to please be patient. He's used to being picked up first thing in the morning. I explained that some days, the trucks may take a different route ect, so chill, they'll be there.

Please see he is picked up today, so he's not calling me tonight and tomorrow...

Great thanks. I asked the resident all the right questions: more then 6 items, metal, construction materials, recyclables, out late… she passed all questions but I knew something had to be off, why would they grab everyone but her… "people are strange" thanks Gary!

This was reported to Republic yesterday for recovery today. This is Old York Road which is a Wednesday pick up, the resident had it out Tuesday night, it was missed, hence my reporting it for recovery today, which did not happen! Please pick this up ASAP.

Thank You Liz… It seems [redacted] Road, right off of Columbus Road was missed yesterday. Can we please have that grabbed today. I do understand the confusion at [redacted], as I saw it last evening on my way home. The gentleman at [redacted] had his driveway resealed and it looks like the tape blocking the driveway off was attached to the trashcan, which upon further review, it is not. Kindly grab [redacted] today as well.

Liz,

What should I tell the profanity laced 84 year old resident on 68 about her mattress? She keeps calling me and I don't know what to say at this point… If I can even get a word in.
