Chief,

I received this FB message tonight shortly after getting Frank's email. I didn't answer, as I don't on weekends unless it's an emergency. I clicked on the profile and it's blank. Just thought you should see.

To All,

Today I encountered a person videoing our building who was reported as suspicious. I hope that the attached video of the encounter can be useful as a learning experience and training.

Respectfully,

I just received a call from who I believe was the male that Frank dealt with in front of headquarters the other day. He refused to speak with a dispatcher and the call was sent to the WC's office. The male questioned me about being allowed to video record headquarters and asked if it was illegal in addition to asking several other questions. He later identified Officer Moschella and instructed me to go on to youtube in order to view the video and finally questioned me as to whether or not Officer Moschella would be re-trained in the matter.

I anticipate him calling the WC's again so just a heads up e-mail.

Good morning. The matter is still under investigation by our internal affairs unit under professional standards. I can assure you that we are taking this matter seriously and will take any corrective action necessary at the conclusion of this investigation. As in any internal affairs investigation there are a number of findings that can be made and various forms of re-training or discipline that can be imposed. I would be happy to meet with you at the conclusion of this investigation and provide you with the findings since you are technically the complainant of this particular incident and your video prompted the internal affairs investigation.

Chief Little,

Good morning. I would like to set up a meeting to speak to you regarding the video I made about Officer Moschella.

You will see as of this morning, I took down the video. I would like it to stay that way. What I ask is that we set up a meeting to discuss this event and what will be done to correct it. I would also like to discuss options to help prevent this from happening again, not only in Toms River, but elsewhere in N.J.

Would you be interested in meeting with me either today or tomorrow?

Please let me know as soon as possible.

Thank you

Thank you for your response. I'm actually not looking to discuss any findings or discipline taken at this point. Honestly, I just wanted to open a dialogue with you about what happened, why I posted the video, why I removed it, and my intentions going forward. If you'd like to wait until your investigation is complete, that's fine with me, I just figured it'd be more productive to address this issue while hot.

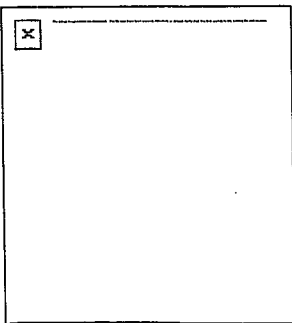

Whichever you prefer is fine.

In the mean time, if there is any information I can provide to your internal affairs investigator, please have him/her contact me at this email address.

Thank you.
