Re: Open Public Records Act (OPRA) Request
Re: Name of the employee that assigns employee cell phones and specific cell phone number during Oct. 14th, 2023 time frame

Dear Ms. Erin:

I am in receipt of your request for information relating to the above subject. Please be advised that your request does not identify specific documents; instead, it is a general request for information to be researched and produced, which is prohibited by the OPRA statute:

While OPRA provides an alternative means of access to government documents not otherwise exempted from its reach, it is not intended as a research tool litigants may use to force government officials to identify and siphon useful information. Rather, OPRA simply operates to make identifiable government records "readily accessible for inspection, copying, or examination." See MAG Entm't, LLC v. Div. of Alcoholic Beverage Control, 375 N.J. Super. 534, 546 (App. Div. 2005).

Therefore, your request is denied.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours very truly,
Dina R. Khajezadeh
