Requestor's Address: N/A

Dear Anonymous (John W. Milner),

The East Brunswick Police Department received your Open Public Records Act (OPRA) request on April 26, 2023. The official Records Custodian, of the East Brunswick Police Department, received your OPRA request on April 26, 2023. As such, the seven (7) business day deadline to respond to your request is May 5, 2023. This response to your request is being provided to you on the 1st business day after the custodian's receipt of said request.

Your request has been assigned Request ID # 2023-151 for tracking purposes.

Your OPRA request sought access to the following record(s):

The job application and copies of academic diplomas for former chief of police Frank LoSacco.

Response: This office has been advised there are no job applications or academic diplomas that were submitted by Frank LoSacco for the position of Chief of Police.

However, be advised employment applications are exempt from disclose pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10 Personnel Records, Governor McGreevey's Executive Order No. 26, GRC Complaint 2010-147 Louis Paul Toscano v NJ Department of Human Services, GRC Complaint 2017-24 Christina Moreira v. Elizabeth Board of Education (Union), and GRC Complaint 2011-361 Michael Deutsch v. NJ Civil Service Commission.

If your request for access to a government record has been denied or unfilled within the seven (7) business days required by law, you have a right to challenge the decision by the East Brunswick Police Department to deny access. At your option, you may either institute a proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey or file a complaint with the Government Records Council (GRC) by completing the Denial of Access Complaint Form. You may contact the GRC by toll-free telephone at their web site at www.state.nj.us/grc. The GRC can also answer other questions about the law. All questions regarding complaints filed in Superior Court should be directed to the Court Clerk in your County.

This OPRA request is now deemed answered and closed.

Regards,

Records Custodian
