City Launches Comprehensive Web Page Offering Various COVID-19 Related Links

Current health updates and New Brunswick-specific news stories all posted on one comprehensive page

NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ (March 18, 2020) – The City of New Brunswick has launched a content-rich web page where residents can find valuable links and information all relative to the COVID-19 outbreak.

This comprehensive site features links to various credible sources of COVID-19 information that is constantly being shared and updated by National, State, and County entities.

Links to health information, news updates, labor and employee benefit issues and more are all housed in one convenient easy-to-navigate page housed on the official website of the City of New Brunswick.

This page is accessible on desktop and mobile devices. Users can click on https://www.cityofnewbrunswick.org/residents/public_safety/police/nbpd_divisions/bureau_of_emergency_preparedness/office_of_emergency_management.php or simply click the link in the pop-up notification window on the cityofnewbrunswick.org to access the links.

The City of New Brunswick is the county seat for Middlesex County and home of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, the world headquarters for Johnson & Johnson and two globally-renowned hospitals. New Brunswick is an educationally-focused City as well as “The Healthcare City.”

All of New Brunswick’s developments provide seamless access to major transportation lines and an extensive dining scene and an arts district, located in its bustling downtown. The City is focused not only on bringing in new residents and businesses, but also on improving the lives of every one of its residents.
