Chief Zabita,

In reference to training that you would like accomplished, I am providing a quote for the same. You had inquired about other vendors that do the same work as I, for purchasing reasons,

As I was deciding whether or not PRC would be a viable endeavor, I did research as to other companies who do this type of consulting and found none in New Jersey. Furthermore, the only entity that does similar work, of which I am aware, is based in California. What sets me apart is that I am intimately familiar with the NJ requirements, and I will complete your set up in accordance with those requirements as well as best practices.

Additionally, I am the only vendor outside of Porter Lee Corporation that is authorized to train in the BEAST system.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.
