I am a police officer in Preble County, Ohio. I am looking to start a collection of law enforcement patches of other departments, either places I have been to, traveled through, or that are unique and of interest. Is there any possibility of obtaining a couple of your department's patches to add to my collection? Thanks, Scott Hamilton

Hi my name is Kyle I'm a Captain on the Walnut Twp. Fire Department in Montgomery County, Indiana. I'm trying to add patches to my Fire, EMS, Police & Military patch collection. I currently have over 1500 patches from across the US and World. I was wondering if you guys had any patches that you would sale or trade so that I can add you to my collection. If not that's fine I understand why. I am also interested in the State EMT Patches if you happen to have any and could share. All of the patches will be placed on a display board that i will Display at our department functions for people to see and also use during our fire prevention program. Thank you for your time. Also if you would like to see the patches, I have made a Facebook page showing off the patches that I have collected. if you want you can check it out and give it a like, spread the word to if you can. The page is Kyle's Patch Collection. Capt. Kyle McHargue

Borough Hall and the Police Department are public buildings so you may meet here if you feel it would be safer for you.

Hi there, I am a big supporter of law enforcement and thank them for all they do, especially during times like these. I am also a collector of law enforcement memorabilia (patches, trading cards & challenge coins). I would greatly appreciate a patch for my collection, and can gladly send a self addressed envelope with postage. I have been a lifelong New Jersey resident and am trying to build up that part of my collection. Any addition would be greatly appreciated and I plan on displaying any memorabilia proudly within my collection. Thank you very much & stay safe. Best, Greg Saperstein  Alpine, NJ 07620

Do you have a picture of the first police woman in Bradley Beach. Her name was Viola Aguero. She was beach morality censor and Deputy Supervisor and should be remembered and honored for her achievements.

Bradley Beach Police Department

Hello Sir, We have no record of Viola Aguero being a member of the Bradley Beach Police Department. Can you provide any further details of her employment here? Also, to make sure we have the correct Department, this is Bradley Beach Police Department in Monmouth County New Jersey.

I am very disappointed! I paid a lot of money for a vendor space for this years Memorial Day festival. I unloaded my stuff this morning and had to park 6 blocks away. I arrived at 7am and packed up at 7pm. During the packing up process, a parking spot opened on the west side of Ocean Ave., adjacent to my spot on the boardwalk. I went and moved my car to make loading easier. The car in the next spot was parked crooked causing me to have to park crooked also. (See the photo). After an exhausting day of not even making enough to cover the vendor fee and knowing that we will be rained out on Monday, I packed my car. All set to go home and get some much needed rest, I got in the car to find a $54 parking ticket on my windshield. I flagged down a police officer because I didn't know why I got a ticket. He didn't know either and had to look up the code. I wasn't aware that this was a violation. As you can see in the photo, I am barely over the line. This just doesn't seem fair! Thanks for listening....I've had a bad couple of days and this was just the icing on the cake. 🙄

Bari

P.S. The officer told me I could fight it in court, but I am unable to take off of work to do so. 🙄

Bradley Beach Police Department

We truly appreciate your feedback in this situation and can understand your concerns. Based on the information that you have provided, this is a parking violation. Once a summons for the violation is written the officers can only refer you to the court for this to be adjudicated.
