Voorhees, New Jersey—Congratulations to Lieutenant William Walsh, who was nominated and selected as a 2019 recipient of the prestigious IACP 40 under 40 award for 2019. The IACP 40 Under 40 award program is designed to recognize individuals in law enforcement under the age of 40 who demonstrate leadership and commitment to law enforcement. This prestigious award is presented to 40 awardees from around the globe who exemplify this leadership, dedication and service to their communities and profession. <https://www.theiacp.org/2019-iacp-40-under-40-awardees>

The 2019 awardees represent local, county, state/provincial, university, tribal, and national law enforcement agencies, including awardees from sheriff's departments, federal agencies, airport police, and investigative organizations, among others. They hail from seven countries—the United States, Canada, Colombia, the United Arab Emirates, Spain, India, and the Solomon Islands. They include chiefs of police, sergeants, lieutenants, inspectors, special agents, project leads, and numerous other roles and ranks, serving their communities in both sworn and non-sworn positions.

Lieutenant Walsh will be recognized at the 2019 IACP Conference this October in Chicago.

This evening we held our 6th Annual Voorhees Veterans Wall of Honor Ceremony, adding 39 plaques of veterans to bring the Wall's total to 436. We also installed a Chair of Honor in tribute to Prisoners of War and those Missing in Action. Wonderful turnout to pay tribute to these heroes.
