I have reviewed the submitted posts of January 8, 2018, December 17, 2017 and December 15, 2017.

The January 8, 2018 post was a road closing notice. The postings were unrelated and beyond the scope of the limited forum provided by the Township. Specifically they are violations of paragraph 5 and paragraph 7 of the Woodbridge Township social media policy. The January 8, 2018 posting may be removed.

The December 17, 2017 posting concerned the Woodbridge Police Department and the New Jersey State policemen's benevolent Association hockey team event. The posting referred to an outside link and was unrelated to the posting. Specifically it is in violation of paragraph 5 and paragraph 15 of the Woodbridge Township social media policy. The December 17, 2017 posting may be removed.

The December 15, 2017 posting refers to the David's touch foundation. Comment 1 is unrelated to the David's touch foundation and in violation of paragraph 5 of the Woodbridge social media statement and comment 2 refers the reader to an outside link and is in violation of paragraph 15 of the Woodbridge Township social media policy. Both postings of December 15, 2017 may be removed.

I received a post placed on the Woodbridge Police Department community affairs Facebook website on January 2, 2018. The post is a photograph of a monkey, with a man's sunglassed face superimposed, making a pointing obscene pointing gesture.

The sentence , the road to give a F----is that way, is printed across the photo. Paragraph 7 of the Woodbridge media policy states that inappropriate, foul or obscene language cannot be tolerated. The paragraph reminds the user that language that the Woodbridge community would design offensive and/or obscene to either it's adult or child population will be removed. While some might find it entertaining, the use of the F word along with the obscene gesture, will clearly be offensive and inappropriate to any adult who would like to shield their child from such language. It would also be offensive to much of the Woodbridge population in general. Indeed paragraph 7 reminds the user that Woodbridge has both an adult and child population.

I find that the above post is inappropriate , offensive and foul. It must be removed.

I received two posts received by the Woodbridge Police Department of Community Affairs, on February 6, 2018.

The first post from Mr. Hernandez refers to a photograph of an officer answering the question; why do cops kill so many people. He responds speaking to a young youth group that police are trained to escalate situations with violence, police lives are more important than anyone else's, and the police enforce the laws of the ruling class.

There is a printed line under the photograph published by Mr. .Farr that says Hitler had youth groups too. The Farr post contains an unauthorized external video link.

Paragraph 15 of the Woodbridge Facebook policy states, advertisements or links to some other forum will not be permitted and will be removed.

The Farr post must be removed.

The photographic post presenting an unsettling, and offensive perception is not obscene and accordingly is protected speech. The paragraph refers to the Junior police Academy graduates and accordingly, while disrespectful and to some degree odious it does relate to police, and the education of youth. The post does not recommend, insight, or demand violence. Rather it is the opinion of Mr. Hernandez. The First Amendment protects even hateful speech. Until the actor recommends promotes or directs action, his speech remains protected.

I do not find that this post must be removed.

I have been asked to review a post placed on the Woodbridge Police Department community affairs Facebook website on February 16, 2018. That post from Ms. Gallagher states what a dirty little place" and is followed by a U-tube site referral.

Paragraph 15 of the Woodbridge Facebook and media accounts policy guidelines states that advertisements or links to some other form will not be permitted and will be removed. The reference to a u-tube site is clearly a link to some other form and accordingly it is my recommendation that it must be removed.
