My name is [REDACTED] and I am writing to you on behalf of [REDACTED] and his family of the [REDACTED] NY police department. I did ride alongs with the [REDACTED] and volunteered with the [REDACTED] for 4 years. [REDACTED] is dying of cancer. He will not make it if he doesn't get a bone marrow match. It would be phenomenal if you could pass it around to officers in the department to see if any of them are eligible and if so to please sign up with the link below. [REDACTED] needs anyone who is: 18 to 44 years old but up to 60 is okay, does not have diabetes, no pregnant women at the time of donation, and because race does matter during a bone marrow donation anyone who is White, Native American, or White and Native American. [REDACTED] police are well aware of my efforts. I've reached out to over 700 police departments and so far his match still hasn't come in. This also can help the deputy of the [REDACTED] who also needs a bone marrow match. God bless and thank you. [REDACTED]

So, this is entirely off topic to anything we have talked about before, but after this incident that happened to me tonight a friend/biological mother told me yes, take the opportunity to teach this to police. I have already taught it to some police such as the [REDACTED] NY chief police detective who got books and a movie from me. Tonight, I was bullied, gaslighted, and mocked by an employee of my adoption agency (I sent her nothing nasty, and have everything saved). I was adopted and I have caught my adoption agency, amongst others, in a plethora of lies. All adopted citizens are discriminated against. I also was lightly threatened, falsely accusing me of "being on the verge of aggravated harassment." I saved everything. Unless a person tells you not to write them, it is not harassment in any US state so long as what you say and/or write does not endorse violence to them, their children, their animals, or their property which I certainly being a respectful and law abiding citizen would never do. My adoption agency has been caught not only telling lies, but also discriminating me and thousands of others. When I exposed them and asked for an apology, and attached a police department in their area, they refused to answer. That police department wants me to compile evidence which I will when I am emotionally prepared. I know you are extraordinarily busy, with more important matters, but here are 6 facts on adoption in America. I have been a researcher for 17 years and was nominated to audition for Ted Talks to discuss adoption, which was about a 1 in 9,000 chance of being asked. 1. The infant adoption industry is a loosely regulated, uncredentialed, multibillion dollar industry. It is currently worth a minimum $17 billion. 2. In 2015, 102 or 105 adopted children were murdered or raped and murdered by their adopters. Of all of my research, reaching out to various police departments, not a single adoption agency worker or adoption attorney who put a child in a murderous home was brought to justice or even fired. When I mentioned this in a newspaper article [REDACTED] the response I got was literally "How dare you. Adoption is love. My friends adopted." 3. [REDACTED] brother is the director of America's biggest adoption agency, [REDACTED] being paid last year $112 million dollars for convincing young and/or poor and low middle class women and girls to give away their babies to adoption. If I had $112 million dollars and cared about poor and young families, I'd be opening up shelters for them. 4. Adoptees are much more likely to be incarcerated. They are also four times more likely to commit suicide. No, I am not suicidal. 5. Birthparent privacy, and anyone who wants privacy from their child has something psychologically wrong with them is false. The lie was created by child serial killer and human trafficker [REDACTED]. The original birth certificate is not sealed until the adoption is finalized, so if a baby is given away for adoption but ends up growing up in foster care he or she keeps his or her original birth certificate making privacy null and void. Sealing occurred when [REDACTED] of NY bought 2 kidnapped children from her and wanted to hide what he did. It can be read about in [REDACTED]. If we took the money out of infant adoption, like Australia did, it would drop by 95% in one year, and like Australia saw, we would see the corruption, lies, and deceit practically vamoos. I could literally give another 200 facts but this is more than enough for a busy leo like yourself. I feel it important to share this with those in authority, so they can learn and share with others. It's time for America to ban closed adoptions, stop sealing original birth certificates, legally enforce open adoptions, do surprise visits by police on all adopted children, ban reselling (yes, it is legal to resell children and since it's loosely regulated some of these kids go to paedophiles) children, apologise to the hundreds of thousands of women who were handcuffed (not by law enforcement) to the hospital beds and made to sign relinquishment papers under force and heavily drugged, and more. They told my bio mother she is "nothing but a vessel" and "undeserving of her baby because she is not married". So she got married soon after (I saw a photo of her [REDACTED] and he gives me the creeps), had my 9 half siblings but tells them to pretend I don't exist and makes up lies about me. My bio [REDACTED] (maternal) say I should not exist to anyone and have sabotaged my relationships with others. I grew up without bio family health info like all 7 million closed adoptees. Imagine for over a quarter of your life you look everywhere for people who look like you. I lost 32 and 33 years with bio paternal [REDACTED]. My bio father the very second I contacted him, my aunt told me to even though she hasn't talked to him in many, many years, immediately told everyone incriminating lies about me that I had to inform police in the city of Rochester I have never done those crimes. By having a closed adoption, where you get no contact information, I spent 13 years and a lot of money and stress looking. They also put me in danger because an adoptee reaches out to anyone not knowing whether or not they are safe. A friend's sister is adopted and this happened when she reached out to her bio father, as the agency says nothing, and came to learn he is a sexual deviant which she had to have the law involved. I hope you have found this intriguing. If you care to know more, I can reference you movies and books and articles. Again, I only felt like sending this after being borderline threatened, bullied, gaslighted, and mocked which I scoff at. These adoption agency workers act like 13 year olds.

Sorry to bug you but a new scam is out I think you should know about to inform your locals. No, it's not a rumour cos I know of one police department that has already published about it. Scam artists are now preying on people by pretending they are police officers and telling the person they called that law enforcement is demanding that they call back this number otherwise they will be taken to court for blah blah blah, you get the picture. The elderly and mentally disabled are easy prey for this. Too bad it's not legal for me to mind eff with these people and respond back, police department fraud unit or city morgue you kill em we chill em. My best friend is a computer genius and I mean literal genius. Wish it was legal for him to make a virus to infect all these scammers' computers. Sigh. Just wanted to pass along to you the newest scam the scammers are trying. Sorry to carry on, this me during sleep deprivation. Sorry to carry on I just hate scammers.

I hope you don't mind the email, but it's for a great cause. I am raising money between now and New Year's Eve for police and police families. It would be great if each of your officers and dispatchers can donate. The money goes to helping those affected by officers killed in the line of duty or by suicide. The program provides free counseling, summer camp for the children whose parent died in the line of duty, and more.

Police said they can't post it on the bulletin but they can share it with other police officers I guess word of mouth or through their email accounts, so if your police chief says you can do it that way, that's another way. Any way you all can help out would be fantastic.

Tonight is my birthday. It's also the day I was cruelly and unnecessarily separated from my first family. There's something police across the country can do this day and every other day. Go undercover. Do undercover investigations. Don't call up adoption agency workers and cps workers. You really think they'd be honest to police? Catch them lying that all children are put in good homes, expose the fact none have ever gone to prison for putting a child into a home where they were murdered by their adopters, expose those who in the past handcuffed unmarried mothers to the hospital beds, expose those who lie about open adoptions (most close), expose those who continue the lie of birthparent privacy, and expose those who don't or didn't report rapes especially of minors. There is no such thing as an honest and moral adoption agency and they also lie to adoptive parents. I also have raised money for police and police families. So tonight for my birthday please not only a donation to Concerned About Police Survivors is great, but also reading books like The [redacted] and [redacted]. Look at why some of these agencies are making millions on tax returns, why some haven't filed their 990 forms in years, and follow the money into why people on the top are economically tied into adoption agencies across the country which is why they've allowed for outrageous legal behaviour such as letting a 14 year old child give away her baby without a single trusted adult in her life knowing she's pregnant and then being legally allowed to lie to her and tell her she'll forget or how adoption agencies can deny an adoptee bio family medical info when the bio mother wants to give it. Go undercover and expose how bio mothers who ask for their child back in the legal time frame are ignored, or their baby shifted in foster care so they don't know where they are so abandonment is written on the form. Whatever you can do to create a years long undercover investigation on any adoption agency if there is one in your jurisdiction would be appreciated. Not undercover would be useless. It's my birthday and I'm using it as a personal giving the finger [redacted] of [redacted] who lied and gaslighted and I have that on paper, and the many, many others out there like them.

just saw a video of Moschella #369 threatening violence and kidnapping to a citizen in public who committed no crime. It appears he is either unhinged or ignorant of law which are both unacceptable. Good job on the sgt for fixing the situation however please train your officers. This is law enforcement 101.

Officers like this only further the mistrust gap between the public and police.
