Posts or comments on the Brigantine Police Department Facebook page that contain any of the following will not be tolerated and are subject to removal by the social media officer and/or his designee:

1. Profane, obscene, discriminatory, or pornographic content and/or language. BPD Facebook settings will automatically hide posts that contain profanity.
2. Content that could compromise ongoing investigations
3. Personal identifying information of any person, except as permitted under Open Public Records Act.
4. Defamatory or personal attacks.
5. Threats to any person, place, organization, and/or agency
6. Posts or comments related to any political campaigns
7. Solicitation of commerce, including but not limited to advertising businesses or products for sale
8. Conduct in violation of any state or federal law
9. Posts or comments that encourage illegal activity
10. Information that will compromise the safety or security of the public or our officers
11. Content that violates copyright or trademark law

Repeated or egregious violations of this policy will result in users being blocked from our page and/or being banned from future comments/posts.

We also ask that family members and friends of Brigantine Police Department personnel not tag any of our personnel in posts/comments associated with our page. This is to protect the privacy and safety of our employees.

This page is not monitored 24/7 and should not be used to report crimes or request police response/services. Brigantine Police Department disclaims liability for comments on our social media pages by any person or entity other than the Brigantine Police Department official account, and inclusion of comments on our page do not imply endorsement by the Brigantine Police Department. The responsibility for comments and/or content posted rests with individual users or organizations who post them.

The Brigantine Police Department reserves the right to remove or hide comments that do not adhere to this policy.
